themes in US religion before the twentieth century Changes in the religious landscape in the early twentieth century Religion and social conflict in the early twentieth century Shifts in the religious landscape from World War II to the present Religion and evolving social conflicts from World War II to the present Cultural aspects of religion from World War II to the present Conclusion consensus pluralism and hegemony in US religion Religion and Cultural Studies Susan Laura

Mizruchi,2001 Americans have never been more religious than they are now at the dawn of the twenty first century By all reports attendance rates at traditional places of worship are high and rising the influx of new immigrant religions has revitalized standard faiths and drawn in those who had strayed from them Popular television shows like The Simpsons feature characters who go to church every Sunday and speak to God special events like the 1998 outdoor mass in Worcester Massachusetts for a comatose girl believed to have miraculous powers attract thousands of people This collection is both part of this ferment and an intellectual reflection upon it Religion and Cultural Studies features essays by major scholars from the fields of anthropology history literary criticism and religion in order to enrich critical discourse about religion and culture Despite the variety of disciplines represented by this group of scholars and the variety of cultures explored in their essays from fifteenth century Flemish asceticism and nineteenth century African American spiritualism to Russian blood libel trials and Alien Abduction Reports in the twentieth century their common ground is the question of religion s place in current American academic analysis and more broadly in American life today The volume s range of vocabulary and subject matter is aimed at vitalizing scholarly interest in the field of religion and cultural studies and deepening intellectual inquiry in the contemporary academy The contributors are Eytan Bercovitch Karen McCarthy Brown Gillian Feeley Harnik Richard Wightman Fox Jenny Franchot Giles Gunn Geoffrey Galt Harpham Bruce B Lawrence Jack Miles Susan L Mizruchi and Jonathan Z Smith Religion and its History Jörg Rüpke,2021-05-09 Religion and its History offers a reflection of our operative concept of religion and religions developing a set of approaches that bridge the widely assumed gulf between analysing present religion and doing history of religion Religious Studies have adapted a wide range of methodologies from sociological tool kits to insights and concepts from disciplines of social and cultural studies Their massive historical claims which typically idealize and reify communities and traditions and build normative claims thereupon lack a critical engagement on the part of the researchers This book radically rethinks and critically engages with these biases It does so by offering neither an abridged global history of religion nor a small handbook of methodology Instead this book presents concepts and methods that allow the analysis of contemporary and past religious practices ideas and institutions within a shared framework Overcoming Religious Illiteracy D. Moore,2007-10-02 In Overcoming Religious Illiteracy Harvard professor and Phillips Academy teacher Diane L Moore argues that though the United States is one of the most religiously diverse nations in the world the vast majority of citizens are woefully ignorant about religion itself and the basic tenets of the world s major religious traditions The consequences of this religious illiteracy are profound and include fueling the culture wars curtailing historical understanding and promoting religious and racial bigotry In this volume Moore combines theory with practice to articulate how to incorporate the study of religion into the schools in ways that will invigorate classrooms and enhance democratic discourse in the public sphere

Mediating Faiths Michael Bailey, Guy Redden, 2011 Mediating Faiths brings together scholars working across a range of fields including cultural studies media sociology anthropology cultural theory and religious studies in order to illustrate how religion continues to be responsive to the very latest social and cultural developments in the environments in which it exists They raise fundamental questions concerning new media and religious expression religious youth cultures the links between spirituality personal development and consumer culture and contemporary intersections of religion identity and politics

Handbook of Cultural Developmental Science Marc H. Bornstein, 2014-06-03 Researchers and theoreticians commonly acknowledge the profound impact of culture on all aspects of development However many in the field are often unaware of the latest cultural literatures or how development proceeds in places other than their home locations This comprehensive handbook covers all domains of developmental science from a cultural point of view and in all regions of the globe Part 1 covers domains of development across cultures and Part 2 focuses on development in different places around the world The Handbook documents child and caregiver characteristics associated with cultural variation and it charts relations between cultural and developmental variations in physical mental emotional and social development in children parents and cultural groups This contemporary and scholarly resource of culture in development covers theoretical methodological substantive and ethnic issues as well as geographic approaches Each chapter includes an introduction historical and demographic considerations theory an overview of the most important classical and modern research studies recommended future directions in theory and research and a conclusion The chapters focus on children from the prenatal stage through adolescence Interdisciplinary in nature the Handbook will appeal to human development theoreticians researchers and students in psychology education and pediatrics Ideal for those new to the field readers will appreciate the plethora of cultural examples from all fields of child and human development and developmental examples from all fields of cultural study

The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Education Liam Francis Gearon, Arniika Kuusisto, 2025-04-29 The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Education offers a multi disciplinary work of scholarship and research highlighting the global significance of a critical interface of cultural and social political and theological importance Drawing on historical perspective and contemporary reflection the collection provides a uniquely transformative analysis of why the interface of religion and education is of such critical significance With contributions from some of the leading thinkers in the field this Handbook presents a cumulatively powerful argument to reassess the complexities of the intersection of religion and education With ambitious and yet accessible intellectual engagements the Handbook here furthers a central thesis that the interface of religion and education is not merely a matter of arcane disputation about a domain of ancient origin or a rudimentary matter of formal educational process but a vibrant domain of critical contestation fundamental to knowing understanding and living in the modern world

The African Diaspora and the Study of Religion T. Trost, 2007-12-25 This book focuses on the location of the religious heritage of Africa within the academic study of religion including indigenous African religions African Christianities African American forms of Islam the religions of African Americans Afro Caribbean religions and Afro Brazilian religions Aesthetics of Religion Alexandra K. Grieser, Jay Johnston, 2017-12-18 This volume is the first English language presentation of the innovative approaches developed in the aesthetics of religion The chapters present diverse material and detailed analysis on descriptive methodological and theoretical concepts that together explore the potential of an aesthetic approach for investigating religion as a sensory and mediated practice In dialogue with yet different from other major movements in the field material culture anthropology of the senses for instance it is the specific intent of this approach to create a framework for understanding the interplay between sensory cognitive and socio cultural aspects of world construction The volume demonstrates that aesthetics as a theory of sensory knowledge offers an elaborate repertoire of concepts that can help to understand religious traditions These approaches take into account contemporary developments in scientific theories of perception neuro aesthetics and cultural studies highlighting the socio cultural and political context informing how humans perceive themselves and the world around them Developing since the 1990s the aesthetic approach has responded to debates in the study of religion in particular striving to overcome biased categories that confined religion either to texts and abstract beliefs or to an indisputable sui generis mode of experience This volume documents what has been achieved to date its significance for the study of religion and for interdisciplinary scholarship Approaches to the Visual in Religion Daria Pezzoli-Olgati, Christopher Rowland, 2011-06-16 The authors of this volume investigate the analysis of visual sources and their indispensable role for understanding and interpreting religions their symbol systems and the wider traditions of which they are a part A particular interest in this study is the focus on the methodological challenge of images from a comparative perspective The common concern that ranges over all the contributions is the search for a methodological perspective where images may be analysed in a comprehensive way with particular regard for the social and wider intellectual settings as well as the religious in which the images are embedded Accordingly we seek to show that visual sources need to be interpreted from different angles In the last decades a broad range of publications has contributed to highlight the significance of images and visual media in general for understanding religious traditions communities and discourses in both historical and contemporary perspective In more recent research streams focussing on visual media in religious traditions and symbol systems various avenues have opened up and been explored focussing on the status of images and of the gaze of the viewer as central aspects Furthermore there are illuminating contributions dealing with the theoretical premises and settings with which to approach the visual as a central component of religion on the one hand giving an overview of essential definitions and implications on the other hand concentrating on specific techniques and or media
