silenced Borrowing the analytic lens of the chronotope from Bakhtin Quijada argues that rituals have chronotopes which situate people within time and space As they revived rituals Post Soviet Buryats encountered new historical information and traditional ways of being in time that enabled them to re imagine the Buryat past and what it means to be Buryat Through the temporal perspective of a reincarnating Buddhist monk Dashi Dorzho Etigelov Buddhists come to see the Soviet period as a test on the path of dharma Shamanic practitioners in contrast renegotiate their relationship to the past by speaking to their ancestors through the bodies of shamans By comparing the versions of history that are produced in Buddhist shamanic and civic rituals Buddhists Shamans and Soviets offers a new lens for analyzing ritual a new perspective on how an indigenous people grapples with a history of state repression and an innovative approach to the ethnographic study of how people know about the past

Makaryk, Virlana Tkacz, 2010-05-22 The study of modernism has been largely focused on Western cultural centres such as Paris Vienna London and New York Extravagantly illustrated with over 300 photos and reproductions Modernism in Kyiv demonstrates that the Ukrainian capital was a major centre of performing and visual arts as well as literary and cultural activity While arguing that Kyiv's modernist impulse is most prominently displayed in the experimental work of Les Kurbas one of the masters of the early Soviet stage the contributors also examine the history of the city and the artistic production of diverse groups including Ukrainians Russians Jews and Poles Until now a silent presence in Western accounts of the cultural topography of modernism multicultural Kyiv is here restored to its historical intellectual and artistic complexity Excerpts
