
SHANE COMES HOME

★ RINKER BUCK ★

The first to die in Iraq,
Lieutenant Shane Childers
was more than a legendary Marine—
he also lived an amazing American life.

“There hasn’t so far been a better portrait of the wartime American military at its best, nor one of the kind of family and community that produces a very high percentage of the men and women called to go to war.”

Burning the Big House Terence Dooley, 2022-04-19 The gripping story of the tumultuous destruction of the Irish country house spanning the revolutionary years of 1912 to 1923 During the Irish Revolution nearly three hundred country houses were burned to the ground These Big Houses were powerful symbols of conquest plantation and colonial oppression and were caught up in the struggle for independence and the conflict between the aristocracy and those demanding access to more land Stripped of their most important artifacts most of the houses were never rebuilt and ruins such as Summerhill stood like ghostly figures for generations to come Terence Dooley offers a unique perspective on the Irish Revolution exploring the struggles over land the impact of the Great War and why the country mansions of the landed class became such a symbolic target for republicans throughout the period Dooley details the shockingly sudden acts of occupation and destruction including soldiers using a Rembrandt as a dart board and evokes the exhilaration felt by the revolutionaries at seizing these grand houses and visibly overturning the established order
