Shaolin Drunken Monk:

Legacies of the Drunken Master Luke White, 2020-04-30 In 1978 the films Snake in the Eagle's Shadow and Drunken Master both starring a young Jackie Chan caused a stir in the Hong Kong cinema industry and changed the landscape of martial arts cinema. Mixing virtuoso displays of acrobatic kung fu with knockabout humor to huge box office success they broke the mold of the tragic and heroic martial arts film and sparked not only a wave of imitations but also a much longer trend for kung fu comedies that continues to the present day. Legacies of the Drunken Master the first book length analysis of kung fu comedy interrogates the politics of the films and their representations of the performing body. It draws on an interdisciplinary engagement with popular culture and an interrogation of the critical literature on Hong Kong and martial arts cinema to offer original readings of key films. These readings pursue the genre in terms of its carnival aesthetic the utopias of the body it envisions its highly stylized depictions of violence its images of masculinity and the registers of its hysterical laughter. The book's analyses are carried out amidst kung fu comedy's shifting historical contexts including the aftermath of the 1960s radical youth movements the rapidly globalizing colonial enclave of Hong Kong and the emerging consciousness of its 1997 handover to China and the transnationalization of cinema audiences. It argues that through kung fu comedy's images of the body the genre articulated in complex and often contradictory ways political realities relevant to late twentieth century Hong Kong and the wider conditions of globalized capitalism. The kung fu comedy entwines us in a popular cultural history that stretches into the folk past and forward into utopian and dystopian possibilities. Theoretically rich and critical Legacies of the Drunken Master aims to be at the forefront of scholarship on martial arts cinema. It also addresses readers with a broader interest in Hong Kong culture and politics during the 1970s and 1980s postcolonialism in East Asia and action and comedy films in a global context as well as those fascinated with the performing body in the martial arts.

The Encyclopedia of Martial Arts Movies Bill Palmer, Karen Palmer, 1995 The Encyclopedia covers the genre from 1920 to 1994. The genre however can be very confusing. Films often have several titles and many of the stars have more than one pseudonym. In an effort to clarify some of the confusion the authors have included all the information available to them on almost 3 300 films. Each entry includes a listing of the production company the cast and crew distributors running times reviews with star ratings whenever possible and alternate film titles. A list of film series and one of the stars pseudonyms in addition to a 7 900 name index are also included. Illustrated. Spinegrinder Clive Davies, 2015-03-06 First came video and more recently high definition home entertainment through to the internet with its streaming videos and not strictly legal peer to peer capabilities. With so many sources available today's fan of horror and exploitation movies isn't necessarily educated on paths well trodden. Universal classics 1950s monster movies Hammer as once they were. They may not even be born and bred on DAWN OF THE DEAD. In fact anyone with a bit of technical savvy quickly becoming second nature for the born clicking generation may be viewing MYSTICS IN BALI and S S EXPERIMENT CAMP long before ever hearing of Bela Lugosi.

Lingnan Hung Kuen: Kung Fu in Cinema and Community Hing Chao,2018-05-02 For so many around the world it was in the cinema that they saw their first glimpse of martial arts Through the films of Lau Kar Leung among others they came to appreciate the power and skill of many kung fu techniques However devotees and practitioners of kung fu and Hung Kuen were aware of the much longer tradition of these arts and in particular the contribution of both the Lam family and the Lau family In 2009 the Hong Kong Government endeavoured to identify and recognize forms of intangible cultural heritage It was this awareness of a vibrant part of Hong Kong history and culture which led to the creation of the Hong Kong Martial Arts Living Archive and from this the exhibition Lingnan Hung Kuen Across the Century Kung Fu Narratives in Hong Kong Cinema and Community In the exhibition and this companion book the histories of the Lam and Lau families are traced and their role in preserving and creating new stances and forms and bringing Hung Kuen to a wider audience through the medium of film Using the latest technologies including 3D imagery
