Shape Of The Turtle Myth Art Cosmos:

The Shape of the Turtle Sarah Allan, 1991-02-21 Many Chinese philosophic concepts derive from an ancient cosmology This work is the first reconstructions of the mythic thought of the Shang Dynasty ca 1700 1100 B C which laid the foundation for later Chinese patterns of thought Allan regards the myth cosmology divination sacrificial ritual and art of the Shang as different manifestations of a common religious system and each is examined in turn building up a coherent and consistent picture Although primarily concerned with the Shang this work also describes the manner in which Shang thought was transformed in the later textual tradition Political Frontiers, Ethnic Boundaries and Human Geographies in Chinese History Nicola Di Cosmo, Don J Wyatt, 2005-08-16 Boundaries demanding physical space enclosing political entities and distinguishing social or ethnic groups constitute an essential aspect of historical investigation It is especially with regard to disciplinary pluralism and historical breadth that this book most clearly departs and distinguishes itself from other works on Chinese boundaries and ethnicity In addition to history the disciplines represented in this book include anthropology particularly ethnography religion art history and literary studies Each of the authors focuses on a distinct period beginning with the Zhou dynasty c 1100 BCE and ending with the early centuries after the Manchu conquest c CE 1800 resulting in a chronological sweep of nearly three millennia China in the Early Bronze Age Robert L. Thorp, 2013-03-25 One of the great breakthroughs in Chinese studies in the early twentieth century was the archaeological identification of the earliest fully historical dynasty of kings the Shang ca 1300 1050 B C E The last fifty years have seen major advances in all areas of Chinese archaeology but recent studies of the Shang their ancestors and their contemporaries have been especially rich Since the last English language overview of Shang civilization appeared in 1980 the pace of discovery has quickened China in the Early Bronze Age Shang Civilization is the first work in twenty five years to synthesize current knowledge of the Shang for everyone interested in the origins of Chinese civilization China in the Early Bronze Age traces the development of early Bronze Age cultures in North and Northwestern China from about 2000 B C E including the Erlitou culture often identified with the Xia and the Erligang culture Robert L Thorp introduces major sites their architectural remains burials and material culture with special attention to jades and bronze He reviews the many discoveries near Anyang site of two capitals of the Shang kings In addition to the topography of these sites Thorp discusses elite crafts and devotes a chapter to the Shang cult its divination practices and its rituals The volume concludes with a survey of the late Shang world cultures contemporary with Anyang during the late second millennium B C E Fully documented with references to Chinese archaeological sources and illustrated with more than one hundred line drawings China in the Early Bronze Age also includes informative sidebars on related topics and suggested readings Students of the history and archaeology of early civilizations will find China in the Early Bronze Age the most up to date and wide ranging introduction to its topic now in print Scholars in Chinese studies will use this work as a handbook and research guide This volume makes fascinating reading for anyone interested in the

Of Tripod and Palate R. Sterckx, 2005-10-06 Attitudes toward food and commensality constituted a central fiber in the social religious and political fabric of ancient Chinese society The offering of sacrifices the banqueting of guests and the ritual preparation prohibition or consumption of food and drink were central elements in each of China's three main religious traditions the Classicist Confucian tradition religious Daoism and Buddhism What links late Shang and Zhou bronze vessels to Buddhist dietary codes or Daoist recipes for immortality is a poignant testimony that culinary activity fasting and feasting governed not only human relationships but also fermented the communication between humans and the spirit world In Of Tripod and Palate leading scholars examine the relationship between secular and religious food culture in ancient China from various perspectives

History of Science, History of Text Karine Chemla, 2005-08-01 two main interacting ways They constitute that with which exploration into problems or questions is carried out But they also constitute that which is exchanged between scholars or in other terms that which is shaped by one or by some for use by others In these various dimensions texts obviously depend on the means and technologies available for producing reproducing using and organizing writings In this regard the contribution of a history of text is essential in helping us approach the various historical contexts from which our sources originate However there is more to it While shaping texts as texts the practitioners of the sciences may create new textual resources that intimately relate to the research carried on One may think for instance of the process of introduction of formulas in mathematical texts This aspect opens up a whole range of extremely interesting questions to which we will return at a later point But practitioners of the sciences also rely on texts produced by themselves or others which they bring into play in various ways More generally they make use of textual resources of every kind that is available to them reshaping them restricting or enlarging them Among these one can think of ways of naming syntax of statements or grammatical analysis literary techniques modes of shaping texts or parts of text genres of text and so on In this sense the practitioners depend on and draw on the textual cultures available to the social and professional groups to which they belong

Making the New World Their Own Qiong Zhang, 2015-05-26 In Making the

New World Their Own Qiong Zhang offers a systematic study of how Chinese scholars in the late Ming and early Qing came to understand that the earth is shaped as a globe This notion arose from their encounters with Matteo Ricci Giulio Aleni and other Jesuits These encounters formed a fascinating chapter in the early modern global integration of space It unfolded as a series of mutually constitutive and competing scholarly discourses that reverberated in fields from cosmology cartography and world geography to classical studies Zhang demonstrates how scholars such as Xiong Mingyu Fang Yizhi Jie Xuan Gu Yanwu and Hu Wei appropriated Jesuit ideas to rediscover China's place in the world and reconstitute their classical tradition Winner of the Chinese Historians in the United States CHUS 2015 Academic Excellence Award Buried Ideas Sarah Allan, 2015-10-21 Four Warring States texts discovered during recent decades challenge longstanding understandings of Chinese intellectual history The discovery of previously unknown philosophical texts from the Axial Age is revolutionizing our understanding of Chinese intellectual history Buried Ideas presents and discusses four texts found on brush written slips of bamboo and their seemingly unprecedented political philosophy Written in the regional script of Chu during the Warring States period 475-221 BCE all of the works discuss Yao's abdication to Shun and are related to but differ significantly from the core texts of the classical period such as the Mencius and Zhuangzi Notably these works evince an unusually meritocratic stance and two even advocate abdication over hereditary succession as a political ideal Sarah Allan includes full English translations and her own modern character editions of the four works examined Tang Y zhi dao Zigao Rongchengshi and Bao xun In addition she provides an introduction to Chu script bamboo slip manuscripts and the complex issues inherent in deciphering them Medieval Islamic Maps Karen C. Pinto, 2016-11-01 Hundreds of exceptional cartographic images are scattered throughout medieval and early modern Arabic Persian and Turkish manuscript collections The plethora of copies created around the Islamic world over the course of eight centuries testifies to the enduring importance of these medieval visions for the Muslim cartographic imagination With Medieval Islamic Maps historian Karen C Pinto brings us the first in depth exploration of medieval Islamic cartography from the mid tenth to the nineteenth century Pinto focuses on the distinct tradition of maps known collectively as the Book of Roads and Kingdoms Kitab al Masalik wa al Mamalik or KMMS examining them from three distinct angles iconography context and patronage She untangles the history of the KMMS maps traces their inception and evolution and analyzes them to reveal the identities of their creators painters and patrons as well as the vivid realities of the social and physical world they depicted In doing so Pinto develops innovative techniques for approaching the visual record of Islamic history explores how medieval Muslims perceived themselves and their world and brings Middle Eastern maps into the forefront of the study of the history of cartography The Other Yijing Tze-ki Hon, 2021-11-29 In imperial China the Yijing Book of Changes was not just read as a Confucian classic for moral cultivation but also put into practice to solve problems of everyday life To explain why the Yijing was so widely used in China this volume examines its multiple textual layers its divinatory practices its medical uses and its role in Chinese modernity Together the ten chapters demonstrate that the Yijing is indeed a living text used by both the educated elite and the populace to alleviate their fear and anxiety Contributors are Andrea Br and Chang Chia Feng Constance A Cook St phane Feuillas Tze ki Hon Liao Hsien huei William Matthews Tao Yingna Xing Wang and Zhao Lu Sandplay: Silent Workshop of the Psyche Kay Bradway,Barbara McCoard,2005-08-19 Sandplay is a growing field of interest for Jungian and other psychotherapists Sandplay Silent Workshop of the Psyche by Kay Bradway and Barbara McCoard provides an introduction to sandplay as well as extensive new material for those already using this form of therapy Based on the authors wide ranging clinical work it includes in depth sandplay case histories material from a wide range of adults and children over 90 illustrations in black and white and colour detailed notes on interpretation of sand trays an examination of symbols and concepts used in sandplay Clearly written and soundly based in theory this book provides historical background for understanding sandplay as well as helpful discussion of how it works in a clinical context Kay Bradway and Barbara McCoard bring their indispensable personal experience to the subject to stress the healing potential of sandplay They also reflect on the nature of a therapy where the psyche works largely in silence Merriam-Webster's Encyclopedia of World Religions Merriam-Webster, Inc,1999 Contains 3 500 alphabetically arranged entries that provide information about various aspects of the world s religions features thirty in depth discussions of major religions and includes illustrations and maps The Oxford Handbook of Early China Elizabeth Childs-Johnson,2020-10-23 The Oxford Handbook on Early China brings 30 scholars together to cover early China from the Neolithic through Warring States periods ca 5000 500BCE The study is chronological and incorporates a multidisciplinary approach covering topics from archaeology anthropology art history architecture music and metallurgy to literature religion paleography cosmology religion prehistory and history Heaven and Earth in Early Han Thought John S. Major,1993-08-03 The Huainanzi has in recent years been recognized by scholars as one of the seminal works of Chinese thought at the beginning of the imperial era a summary of the full flowering of early Taoist philosophy This book presents a study of three key chapters of the Huainanzi The Treatise on the Patterns of Heaven The Treatise on Topography and The Treatise on the Seasonal Rules which collectively comprise the most comprehensive extant statement of cosmological thinking in the early Han period Major presents for the first time full English translations of these treatises He supplements the translations with detailed commentaries that clarify the sometimes arcane language of the text and presents a fascinating picture of the ancient Chinese view of how the world was formed and sustained and of the role of humans in the cosmos Qing Encounters Petra ten-Doesschate Chu,Ning Ding,2015-10-01 Qing Encounters Artistic Exchanges between China and the West examines how the contact between China and Europe in the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries transformed the arts on both sides of the East West divide The essays in the volume reveal the extent to which images artifacts and natural specimens were traded and copied and how these materials inflected both cultures visions of novelty and pleasure battle and power and ways of seeing and representing Artists and craftspeople on both continents borrowed and adapted forms techniques and modes of representation producing deliberate meaningful and complex new creations By considering this reciprocity from both Eastern and Western perspectives Qing Encounters offers a new and nuanced understanding of this critical period
