Shaping Of South African Society 1652 184:

The Shaping of South African Society, 1652-1840. Richard Elphick, Hermann Giliomee, 2014-01-15 History is a powerful aid to the understanding of the present and those who are concerned with the escalating crisis in South Africa will find this an invaluable source book This is the story of the evolution of a society in which race became the dominant characteristic the primary determinant of status wealth and power Cultural chauvinism of the first European colonists primarily the Dutch merged with economic and demographic developments to create a society in which whites relegated all blacks free blacks Africans imported slaves to a systematic pattern of subordination and oppression that foreshadowed the apartheid of the twentieth century From the beginning of the nineteenth century the new empire builders the British reinforced the racial order In the next century and a half the industrialized South Africa would become firmly integrated into the world economy Published originally in South Africa in 1979 and updated and expanded now a decade later this book by twelve South African British Canadian Dutch and American scholars is the most comprehensive history of the early years of that troubled nation The authors put South Africa in the comparative context of other colonial systems Their social political and economic history is rich with empirical data and rests on a solid base of archival research The story they tell is a complex drama of a racial structure that has resisted hostile impulses from without and rebellion from within Slavery In South Africa Elizabeth Eldredge, Fred Morton, 2019-05-28 South African slavery differs from slavery practiced in other frontier zones of European settlement in that the settlers enslaved indigenes as a supplement to and eventually as a replacement for imported slave labor On the expanding frontier Dutch speaking farmers increasingly met their labor needs by conducting slave raids arming African slave Afrikaners and the Boundaries of Faith in Post-Apartheid South Africa Annika Björnsdotter Teppo, 2021-09-30 This book examines the shifting moral and spiritual lives of white Afrikaners in South Africa after apartheid The end of South Africa s apartheid system of racial and spatial segregation sparked wide reaching social change as social cultural spatial and racial boundaries were transgressed and transformed This book investigates how Afrikaners have mediated the country s shifting boundaries within the realm of religion For instance one in every three Afrikaners used these new freedoms to leave the traditional Dutch Reformed Church NGK often for an entirely new religious affiliation within the Pentecostal or Charismatic churches or New Religious Movements such as Wiccan neopaganism Based on long term ethnographic fieldwork in the Western Cape area the book investigates what spiritual life after racial totalitarianism means for the members of the ethnic group that constructed and maintained that very totalitarianism Ultimately the book asks how these new Afrikaner religious practices contribute to social solidarity and integration in a persistently segregated society and what they can tell us about racial relations in the country today This book will be of interest to scholars of religious studies social and cultural anthropology and African studies Intermediaries, Interpreters, and Clerks Benjamin N. Lawrance, Emily Lynn Osborn, Richard L. Roberts, 2006 Publisher description Jan Paerl, a

Edges of Transatlantic Commerce in the Long Eighteenth Century Seohyon Jung, Leah M. Thomas, 2021-05-03 Edges of Transatlantic Commerce in the Long Eighteenth Century examines and challenges the boundaries of the Atlantic in the eighteenth century with a particular focus on commerce Commerce as a keyword encompasses a wide range of documented and undocumented encounters that invoke topics such as shared or conflicting ideas of value affective experiences of the emerging global system and development of national economies as well as their opponents By investigating what gets exchanged created or obscured on the peripheries of transatlantic commercial relations and geography in the eighteenth century the chapters in this collection reimagine the edge as a liminal space with a potential for an alternative historical and aesthetic knowledge To ground this inquiry in a more material dimension the chapters engage specifically with what is being exchanged sold or communicated across the Atlantic by exploring ideas that are being shaped concealed undermined or exploited through intricate exchanges With its contributions from multiple contexts and disciplinary perspectives Edges of Transatlantic Commerce offers insights into relatively neglected aspects of the transatlantic world to cultivate the value that the edges allow us to conceive

Networks of Empire Kerry Ward, 2009 In this book Ward examines the Dutch East India Company's control of migration as an expression of imperial power

Sugar Girls & Seamen Henry Trotter, 2008 Sugar Girls Seamen illuminates the shadowy world of dockside prostitution in South Africa focusing on the women of Cape Town and Durban who sell their hospitality to foreign sailors Dockside sugar girls work at one of the busiest cultural intersections in the world Through their continual interactions with foreign seamen they become major traffickers in culture ideas languages styles goods currencies genes and diseases Many learn the seamen's tongues develop emotional relationships with them have their babies and become entangled in vast webs of connection In many ways these South African mermaids are the ultimate cosmopolitans the unsung sirens of globalisation Based on fifteen months of research at the seamen's nightclubs plus countless interviews with sugar girls sailors club owners cabbies bouncers and barmaids this book provides a comprehensive account of dockside romance at the southern tip of Africa Through stories analysis and first hand experiences it reveals this gritty world in all its raw vitality and fragile humanity Sugar Girls Seamen is simultaneously racy and light critical and profound

Global Calvinism Charles H. Parker, 2022-01-11 A comprehensive study of the connection between Calvinist missions and Dutch imperial expansion during the early modern period A tour de force offering the reader the best study of global Calvinism in the realms of the Dutch East India Company Ronnie Po Chia Hsia editor Calvinism and Religious Toleration in the Dutch Golden Age Calvinism went global in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries as close to a thousand Dutch Reformed ministers along with hundreds of lay chaplains attached themselves to the Dutch East India and West India companies Across Asia Africa and the Americas where the trading companies set up operation Dutch ministers sought to convert pagans Moors Jews and Catholics and to spread the cultural influence of Protestant Christianity As Dutch ministers labored under the auspices of the trading companies the missionary project coalesced sometimes grudgingly but often readily with empire building and mercantile capitalism Simultaneously Calvinism became entangled with societies around the world as encounters with indigenous societies shaped the development of European religious and intellectual history Though historians have traditionally treated the Protestant and European expansion as unrelated developments the global reach of Dutch Calvinism offers a unique opportunity to understand the intermingling of a Protestant faith commerce and empire

Religions of South Africa (Routledge Revivals) David Chidester, 2014-06-27 First published in 1992 this title explores the religious diversity of South Africa organizing it into a single coherent narrative and providing the first comparative study and introduction to the topic David Chidester emphasizes the fact that the complex distinctive character of South African religious life has taken shape with a particular economic social and political context and pays special attention to the creativity of people who have suffered under conquest colonialism and apartheid With an overview of African traditional religion Christian missions and African innovations during the nineteenth century this reissue will be of great value to students of religious studies South African history anthropology sociology and political studies

Imperial Underworld Kirsten McKenzie, 2016-01-14 During a major overhaul of British imperial policy following the Napoleonic Wars an escaped convict reinvented himself as an improbable activist renowned for his exposés of government misconduct and corruption in the Cape Colony and New South Wales Charting scandals unleashed by the man known variously as Alexander Loe Kaye and William Edwards Imperial Underworld offers a radical new account of the legal constitutional and administrative transformations that unfolded during the British colonial order of the 1820s In a narrative rife with daring jail breaks infamous agents provocateurs and allegations of sexual deviance Professor Kirsten McKenzie argues that such colourful and salacious aspects of colonial administrations cannot be separated from the real business of political and social change The book instead highlights the importance of taking gossip paranoia factional infighting and political spin seriously to show the extent to which ostensibly marginal figures and events influenced the transformation of the nineteenth century British Empire

Historical Archaeology in South Africa Carmel Schrire, 2018-12-13 This volume documents the analysis of excavated historical archaeological collections at the Cape of Good Hope South Africa The corpus provides a rich picture of life and times at this distant outpost of an immense Dutch seaborne empire during the contact period Representing over three decades of excavation conservation and analysis the book examines ceramics glass metal and other categories of artifacts in their archaeological contexts An enclosed CD includes a video reconstruction plus a comprehensive catalog and color illustrations of the artifacts in the corpus The parallels and contrasts this volume reveals will help scholars studying the European expansion period to build a richer comparative picture of colonial material culture

The Making of Modern South Africa Nigel Worden, 2012-01-10 The new edition of The Making of Modern South Africa provides a comprehensive current introduction to the key themes and debates concerning the history of this controversial country Engagingly written the author provides a sharp analytical overview of the new South Africa Examines the major issues in South Africa's history from pre colonial to present including colonial conquest the establishment of racism segregation and apartheid resistance movements and the eventual founding of democracy Contains an additional final chapter that takes the story to the present and considers the challenges and compromises of the first two decades of democracy Updated with material on post apartheid era and current issues in South Africa The only book that gives direct guidance to bibliographical material and readings on key debates Provides a sharp analytical overview of the new South Africa Extensive references are given to the key writings on each topic and the debates between scholars Slavery in South Africa Elizabeth A. Eldredge and Fred Morton, 2010 Captives were used as domestics herders hunters agricultural laborers porters drivers personal servants and artisans Slavery was legalized as inboekstelsel and portrayed by authorities as a form of apprenticeship in which abandoned and orphaned youths were bonded as unpaid laborers until their mid twenties In practice they were captured as children and held for most of their lives At least 60 percent of the slaves were female

Colonized Bodies, Worlds Transformed Melissa S. Murphy, Haagen D. Klaus, 2021-11-01 Breaks new ground regarding how to think about colonial encounters in innovative ways that pay attention to a wide range of issues from health and demography to identity formations and adaptation Debra L. Martin coeditor of The Bioarchaeology of Violence Amply demonstrates the breadth and variability of the impact of colonialism Ken Nystrom State University of New York at New Paltz European expansion into the New World fundamentally altered Indigenous populations The collision between East and West led to the most recent human adaptive transition that spread around the world Paradoxically these are some of the least scientifically understood processes of the human past Representing a new generation of contact and colonialism studies this volume expands on the traditional focus on the health of conquered peoples by considering how extraordinary biological and cultural transformations were incorporated into the human body and reflected in behavior identity and adaptation By examining changes in diet mortuary practices and diseases these globally diverse case studies demonstrate that the effects of conquest reach further than was ever thought before to both the colonized and the colonizers People on all sides of colonial contact became entangled in cultural and biological transformations of social identities foodways social structures and gene pools at points of contact and beyond Contributors to this volume illustrate previously unknown and variable effects of colonialism by analyzing skeletal remains and burial patterns from never before studied regions in the Americas to the Middle East Africa and Europe The result is the first step toward a new synthesis of archaeology and bioarchaeology Contributors Rosabella Alvarez Calder n Elliot H Blair Maria Fernanda Boza Michele R Buzon Romina Casali Mark N Cohen Danielle N Cook Marie Elaine Danforth J Lynn Funkhouser Catherine Gaither Pamela Garc a Laborde Ricardo A Guich n Rocio Guich n Fern ndez Heather Guzik Amanda R Harvey Barbara T Hester Dale L Hutchinson Kristina Killgrove Haagen D Klaus Clark Spencer Larsen Alan G Morris Melissa S Murphy Alejandra Ortiz Megan A Perry Emily S Renschler Isabelle Ribot Melisa A Salerno Matthew C Sanger Paul W Sciulli Stuart Tyson Smith Christopher M Stojanowski David Hurst Thomas Victor D Thompson Vera Tiesler Jason Toohey Lauren A Winkler Pilar Zabala

The Top Books of the Year Shaping Of South African Society 1652 184 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Shaping Of South African Society 1652 184 : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
