Shaping The Current Islamic Reformation:

Shaping the Current Islamic Reformation B.A. Roberson, 2004-08-02 The essays that comprise this study eschew stereotypical representations of a politicized Islam in the Mediterranean Region The contributors consider the reality that lies behind current issues in the area and the role that an embedded Islam has played or may play in the region Shaping the Current Islamic Reformation B.A. Roberson, 2004-08-02 Roberson goes beyond the media presentation of the impact of Islam in the Middle East to consider the reality that lies behind it An Islamic Reformation? Michaelle Browers, Charles Kurzman, 2004-01-01 This book brings together scholars with expertise in modern Islamic thought and practice to evaluate the claim that we are witnessing something tantamount to an Islamic Reformation by assessing the character and impact of various reformist trends in the Middle East and North Africa Each chapter also addresses the question of the appropriateness and usefulness of comparisons between Christian and Islamic or Western and Eastern reformations Special Issue on Shaping the Current Islamic Reformation Barbara A. Roberson, 2003 Speaking for Islam Gudrun Krämer, Sabine Schmidtke, 2006 Focuses on Middle Eastern Muslim majority societies in the period from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries This work contains papers which highlight the scope and variety of religious authorities in Muslim societies A Comparative Study of Islamic Finance in Australia and the UK Imran Lum, 2021-09-28 This book provides valuable insights into the practical challenges faced by the nascent Islamic finance industry and compares the Australian experience to developments in the UK It contributes to a greater understanding of how Muslims living as a minority in Australia and the UK negotiate Islamic doctrine in secular societies by focusing on one aspect of this negotiation namely the prohibition of rib There is little debate in the Islamic tradition on the prohibition of rib The differences however lie in the interpretation of rib and the question of how Muslims live in a society that is heavily reliant on interest and conventional banking yet at the same time adhere to Islamic guidelines Through the words of religious leaders Muslim professionals and university students Imran Lum provides real accounts of how Muslims in Australia and the UK practically deal with conventional banking and finance products such as home loans savings accounts and credit cards He also explores Muslim attitudes towards Islamic finance and queries whether religion is the sole determining factor when it comes to its uptake Drawing on his own unique experience as a practitioner responsible for growing an Islamic business in a conventional bank Lum provides a firsthand account of the complexities associated with structuring Islamic finance products that are not only sharia compliant but also competitive in a non Muslim jurisdiction Using uk k bonds as a case study he highlights the tangible and non tangible barriers to product development such as tax and regulatory requirements and the rise of Islamophobia Combining academic and industry experience Lum unpacks the relationship of Islamic finance with Muslim identity construction in the West and how certain modalities of religiosity can lead to an uptake of Islamic finance while others can lead to its rejection Islam Dot Com M. el-Nawawy, Sahar M. Khamis, 2009-06-22 This book analyzes the discourses and deliberations in the discussion forums of three of the most visited Islamic websites and investigates the extent to which they have provided a venue for Muslims to freely engage in discussion among themselves and with non Muslims about political economic religious and social issues
