Shaping The Discourse On Space

Quaquarelli

Shaping The Discourse On Space:

Shaping Space and Mobilities in Contemporary Walking Narratives Adrien Frenay, Giulio Iacoli, Lucia Quaquarelli, 2024-12-22 Shaping Space and Mobilities in Contemporary Walking Narratives represents an exploration of the dynamic intersections between mobility space and literature. By focusing on walking as both a practice and a narrative device, the book illustrates how mobilities shape and reconfigure our experiences of space. Drawing from both literary and interdisciplinary approaches, the contributors engage with diverse themes including urban flânerie, rural wanderings, migration, and queer spatialities. The research presented here shows how literary discourse mediates and constructs human relationships with space and place. Addressing with key theoretical movements such as the narrative spatial and mobilities turns, this book contributes to the recent humanities turn by advancing discussions within mobility studies, particularly in French and Italian contexts.

Shaping the Post-Soviet Space? Laure Delcour, 2016-04-01 While the European Union (EU) is widely perceived as a model for regional integration, the encouragement of regional co-operation also ranks high among its foreign policy priorities. Drawing on a wealth of sources and extensive fieldwork conducted in the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS), Laure Delcour questions the pursuit of this external objective in EU policies implemented in the CIS and the existence of an EU regional vision in the post-Soviet area. She asks: does the recent compartmentalization of EU policies correspond to a growing fragmentation of the former Soviet Union that cannot be considered as a region anymore? Does it rather reflect the EU's own interests in the area? Interested in exposing why the EU has not pursued a strategy of region building in the post-Soviet area, Delcour examines the disintegration dynamics affecting the area following the collapse of the USSR, the interplay between different actors and levels of action in EU foreign policy making, and the role of other region builders. She takes a closer look at the strategic partnership with Russia, European Neighbourhood Policy, Eastern Partnership, and Black Sea Synergy as a capability test for the European foreign policy to promote its foreign policy priorities and to raise a distinctive profile in the international arena.

Space, Time and Evaluation in Ideological Discourse Laura Filardo-Llamas, Christopher Hart, Bertie Kaal, 2017-10-02 Bringing together a body of related research which has recently developed in Critical Discourse Analysis, this book is the first to address the role of perspective in socio-political discourse. Specifically, the contributions to this volume seek to explore from a cognitive standpoint the way in which perspective functions in three dimensions: space, time, and evaluation, to enact ideology and persuasion. A range of discourse genres are analysed, including political discourse, media discourse, and songs used as political tools. Starting from the contention that discourse processing relies on the same mechanisms that support our understanding and experience of space, the book finds a recurrent theme in the way in which perspectival concepts like distance and focus, prompted by linguistic signs, feature in our discursively constructed knowledge of social and political realities. By highlighting the complex nature of perspective taking in ideological discourse, the volume sets the agenda for further research in this area. The book will appeal to linguists discourse analysts media scholars and political scientists and all who are interested in the relationship between language and cognition in the socio political domain This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Discourse Studies Cities and the Shaping of Memory in the Ancient Near East Ömür Harmanşah,2013-03-18 This book investigates the practice of constructing cities in the ancient Near East bringing together architecture and cultural history

The Space and Practice of Reading Chin Ee Loh,2017-02-10 Mirroring worldwide debates on social class literacy rates and social change this study explores the intersection between reading and social class in Singapore one of the top scorers on the Programme for International Assessment PISA tests and questions the rhetoric of social change that does not take into account local spaces and practices This comparative study of reading practices in an elite school and a government school in Singapore draws on practice and spatial perspectives to provide critical insight into how taken for granted practices and spaces of reading can be in fact unacknowledged spaces of inequity Acknowledging the role of social class in shaping reading education is a start to reconfiguring current practices and spaces for more effective and equitable reading practices This book shows how using localized contextualized approaches sensitive to the home school national and global contexts can lead to more targeted policy and practice transformation in the area of reading instruction and intervention Chapters in the book include Becoming a Reader Home School Connections Singaporean Boys Constructing Global Literate Selves School Nation Connections Levelling the Reading Gap Socio Spatial Perspectives The book will be relevant to literacy scholars and educators library science researchers and sociologists interested in the intersection of class and literacy practices in the 21st century

Making European Space Ole Brandt Jensen,Tim Richardson,2004 Making European Space crystallises and critically examines the key policy ideas emerging in the new field of European spatial planning and explores the arguments surrounding policy themes such as polycentric development sustainability

Space, Time and Language in Plutarch Aristoula Georgiadou,Katerina Oikonomopoulou,2017-10-10 Space and time have been key concepts of investigation in the humanities in recent years In the field of Classics in particular they have led to the fresh appraisal of genres such as epic historiography the novel and biography by enabling a close focus on how ancient texts invest their representations of space and time with a variety of symbolic and cultural meanings This collection of essays by a team of international scholars seeks to make a contribution to this rich interdisciplinary field by exploring how space and time are perceived linguistically codified and portrayed in the biographical and philosophical work of Plutarch of Chaeronea 1st 2nd centuries CE The volume s aim is to show how philological approaches in conjunction with socio cultural readings can shed light on Plutarch s spatial terminology and clarify his conceptions of time especially in terms of the ways in which he situates himself in his era s fascination with the past The volume s intended readership includes Classicists intellectual and cultural historians and scholars whose field of expertise embraces theoretical study of space and time along with the linguistic strategies used to portray them in literary or historical texts

European External Action Veit Bachmann,2017-02-24 European External

Action provides a critical assessment of the practice of EU diplomacy in a key site of Africa European relations and the global development industry the Kenyan capital of Nairobi It analyses how the EU positions itself through its newly established diplomatic corps the European External Action Service EEAS and how it is perceived as a collective geopolitical actor by its external cooperation partners Going beyond existing studies on EU policy making in Brussels and African European relations more generally this book explores in a novel way the conduct of external relations and perceptions of the EU abroad Based on institutional ethnography within the EU Delegation in Nairobi and research affiliation with the University of Nairobi as well as interviews with leading individuals of Kenyan European interaction it analyses the practices processes and perceptions through which EU diplomacy is enacted and realised in a strategic node of global North South relations In light of the EU s claim as a key partner for developing countries and its ambition to be a major player in global politics European External Action thereby speaks not only to wider debates on the EU s role as a global and development actor but also provides new insights in the internal dynamics and the making of external agency in and through EU diplomacy

Political Space Yale H. Ferguson,R. J. Barry Jones,2012-02-01 This collection brings together an unusually distinguished and diverse group of theorists of global politics political geography and international political economy who reflect on the concept of political space Already familiar to political geographers the concept of political space has lately received increased attention arising out of the need for new ways of thinking about and describing the actors structures and processes that shape politics and patterns of governance in today s complex post Cold War world The essays explore the frontiers of the field of global politics and each deals imaginatively with some aspect of political space Although the participants may be loosely classified as realists neo realists constructivists and postinternationalists the essays are not fitted to the usual theoretical pigeonholes What they do share is a continued faith in empirical research and a collective sense of discovery Space Business Arto Ojala,William W. Baber,2024-08-20 This book is an academic investigation of commercial activities of firms in the space related industries and those utilizing services provided by space technology firms These firms and their activities are part of the New Space concept where space related commercial activities are undertaken and funded by private firms rather than government institutions New Space is leading to business model innovation and new theory about space business activities including upstream and downstream commercial activities Upstream value chains include activities prior to turnover of launched systems to operators Downstream value chains include operation of systems in space as well as the transfer processing and sale of space based data and data services The commercial activities of space business now reach into everyday lives of most humans from banking and disaster management to resource monitoring to tourism With such broad reach the New Space ecosystem is rapidly developing in importance and complexity

Following Jesus in Invaded Space Chris Budden, 2009-05-04 Christianity is never just about beliefs but habits and practices for better or worse Theology always reflects the social location of the theologian including her privileges and prejudices all the time working with a particular often undisclosed notion of what is normal Therefore theology is never neutral it defends particular constructions of reality and it promotes certain interests Following Jesus in Invaded Space asks what and whose interests theology protects when it is part of a community that invaded the land of Indigenous peoples Developing a theological method and position that self consciously acknowledges the church's role in occupying Aboriginal land in Australia it dares to speak of God church and justice in the context of past history and continuing dispossession Hence a Second people's theology emerges through constant and careful attention to experiences of invasion and displacement brought into dialogue with the theological landscape or tradition of the church

Shaping Claims to Urban Land Fons van Overbeek, 2022-10-03 The concept of hybridity is often still poorly theorized and problematically applied by peace and development scholars and researchers of resource governance This book turns to a particular ethnographic reading of Michel Foucault's Governmentality and investigates its usefulness to study precisely those mechanisms processes and practices that hybridity once promised to clarify Claim making to land and authority in a post conflict environment is the empirical grist supporting this exploration of governmentality Specifically in the periphery of Bukavu This focus is relevant as urban land is increasingly becoming scarce in rapidly expanding cities of eastern Congo primarily due to internal rural to urban migration as a result of regional insecurity The governance of urban land is also important analytically as land governance and state authority in Africa are believed to be closely linked and co evolve An ethnographic reading of governmentality enables researchers to study hybridization without biasing analysis towards hierarchical dualities Additionally a better understanding of hybridization in the claim making practices may contribute to improved government intervention and development assistance in Bukavu and elsewhere

Interrogating Illiberal Peace in Eurasia Catherine Owen, Shairbek Juraev, David Lewis, Nick Megoran, John Heathershaw, 2018-01-09 The collapse of the USSR wrought dramatic changes in Eurasia both in terms of the structure of state power within the region and the ways in which Western states and international organisations engaged with it Analyses of conflict in this region remain rooted in supposed global models often assuming that patterns of state failure are due to resistance to the liberal model of peacebuilding This book sets out a challenge to these assumptions and framings It not only questions but resolutely dismisses the notion that the peacebuilding methods favoured by Western states remain the most salient in Eurasia Instead it develops a framework that seeks to conceptualise the ways in which non liberal actors contest or transform globally promoted norms of conflict management and promote alternative ones in their place Authoritarian Conflict Management ACM consists of an ensemble of norms and practices in which non liberal actors attempt to exert sustained hegemonic control over the local discursive economic and spatial realms in a given territory With case studies ranging from Afghanistan to Uzbekistan Xinjiang to the Caucasus the chapters shed light on the ways in which local and regional actors enact practice of ACM in order to impose stability in conflict prone localities thereby challenging the Western led consensus known as the liberal peace Dewey's Democracy and Education Revisited Patrick M.

Jenlink,2009-05-16 This book presents a collection of contemporary discourses that reconsider the relationship of democracy as a political ideology and American ideal i e Dewey s progressivist ideas and education as the foundation of preparing democratic citizens in America The Space of the Book Miranda Remnek,2011-01-01 Skilfully connecting multidisciplinary sources along broad historical continuum The Space of the Book will be a valuable resource as the study of Russian print culture takes on new directions in a digitized world Reforming Child Welfare in the Post-Soviet Space Meri Kulmala,Majja Jäppinen,Anna Tarasenko,Anna Pivovarova,2020-09-24 This book provides new and empirically grounded research based knowledge and insights into the current transformation of the Russian child welfare system It focuses on the major shift in Russia s child welfare policy deinstitutionalisation of the system of children s homes inherited from the Soviet era and an increase in fostering and adoption Divided into four sections this book details both the changing role and function of residential institutions within the Russian child welfare system and the rapidly developing form of alternative care in foster families as well as work undertaken with birth families By analysing the consequences of deinstitutionalisation and its effects on children and young people as well as their foster and birth parents it provides a model for understanding this process across the whole of the post Soviet space It will be of interest to academics and students of social work sociology child welfare social policy political science and Russian and East European politics more generally Mathematics of Space
