Grades 6-12 The Heart Has Its Reasons Michael Cart, Christine A. Jenkins, 2006-03-30 Society does not make it easy for young people regardless of their sexual orientation to find accurate nonjudgmental information about homosexuality. It makes it even more difficult for young homosexuals to find positive role models in fiction either written or published expressly for them or if published for adults relevant to them and their lives. The Heart Has Its Reasons examines these issues and critically evaluates the body of literature published for young adults that offers homosexual themes and characters. Cart and Jenkins chart the evolution of the field of YA literature having GLBTQ (gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered, and/or queer) questioning content. They identify titles that are remarkable either for their excellence or failures, noting the stereotypic, wrongheaded, and outdated books as well as the accurate, thoughtful, and tactful titles. Useful criteria for evaluating books with GLBTQ content are provided. Books and resources of all types are reviewed based on a model that uses the category descriptors of Homosexual Visibility, Gay Assimilation, and Queer Consciousness Community. An annotated bibliography and a number of author title lists of books discussed in the text arranged by subject round out this valuable reference for teachers, librarians, parents, and young adults.

Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Rights David M. Donahue, 2000 This curriculum is intended to further thoughtful examination and responsible action among high school students about lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) issues. Unlike other curricula, this discussion is not in the context of civil or political rights but in the broader context of human rights. These rights as defined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights include among others the right to education, identity, security, assembly, expression, employment, health, and family, all relevant to the current discussion of LGBT rights. The activities in the curriculum promote appropriate action in addition to reflection and discussion. Students are asked to take responsibility for the homophobia that causes human rights abuses. The curriculum aims to prepare students for responding in meaningful ways to such abuses. It is divided into the following parts: Part 1 Introduction; Part 2 Activities contains 1. Words Really Matter: Examining Language at School; 2. Are Gay Rights Special? What Does the Universal Declaration of Human Rights Say? 3. What If Things Were Different: Charting the Effects of Change; 4. Is It a Crime To Be Gay? Debating Tolerance in a New Democracy; 5.
