Shared Learning In A Plural World Ecumenical Approaches To Interreligious Education:

Shared Learning in a Plural World Gert Rüppell, Peter Schreiner, 2003 Shared Learning in a Plural World takes the reader along to a discourse held between representatives of different world religions religious educators and researchers about How religious education can contribute to good community relations Starting with the issue of pluralism the book leads on to concepts of learning in world religions reflections on inter religious learning in Europe and examples on methodologies of education and community A number of documents related to the Interfaith work of the World Council of Churches are also documented The publication is an outcome of a co operation between the World Council of Churches Education and Ecumenical Formation Inter religious Relations and the Comenius Institut in Munster Germany International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity God Beyond Borders Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2014-03-17 Based on ten years of research God Beyond Borders is a comprehensive study of interreligious learning in faith communities The United States is one of the most diverse countries of the world Kujawa Holbrook details the many practices of interreligious learning in faith communities through interreligious encounters religious education shared sacred space shared prayer and compassionate action The book also surveys the field of interreligious learning and investigates some of the more common intentionally interreligious communities families clergy groups chaplaincies and community organizations Kujawa Holbrook combines theory and praxis to make a case for the importance of interreligious learning in all religious organizations Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education

The Myth of Religious Superiority Paul F. Knitter, 2005 In this challenging book the leading exponents of the idea that all religions are a refraction of a truth no single tradition can exclusively reveal discuss what to make of that conviction in today s world of interreligious rivalry and strife The authors represent a variety of faith traditions Christianity Judaism Islam

Teaching Religious Education Julian Stern, 2018-01-25 An updated expanded edition of the popular textbook for student and practising teachers of religious education It is a book for and about teaching and learning religious education in schools which is a lively and open ended subject ideal for those wanting to explore how people understand the world and how they live their lives A wide range of religious and non religious ways of life are explored New to this edition are descriptions of more recent research on teaching and learning religious education from the UK Europe America Asia Africa and Australia Also included are personal accounts written by pupils teachers and researchers giving voice to those learning and researching religious education in practice As well as revising and extending every chapter of the first edition there are brand new chapters on the real lives of teachers and pupils in religious education religious education around the world spirituality thinking about philosophy truth and religious education ethics rights values and virtues creativity and religious education A key feature of the book is the 33 classroom activities for learners aged 7 to 18 which are also designed for use by student and practising teachers These activities enable those studying and teaching religious education to be active researchers

Schools and Religions Julian Stern, 2007-03-08 The link between schools and religions is an area of lively and passionate debate In this meticulously researched volume Julian Stern analyzes the role that religion can play in fostering communities in schools and its implications for social cultural and political developments in both national and international contexts Drawing heavily on Vygotskyan social constructivism and

Buber's research into human relationships Stern constructs an innovative and challenging philosophy of schooling which places schools at the heart of two of the main challenges of the twenty first century social inclusion and globalization

A New Physiognomy of Jewish Thinking Aubrey L. Glazer, 2011-03-24 A New Physiognomy of Jewish Thinking is a search for authenticity that combines critical thinking with a yearning for heartfelt poetics A physiognomy of thinking addresses the figure of a life lived where theory and praxis are unified This study explores how the critical essays on music of German Jewish thinker Theodor Wieselgrund Adorno 1903 1969 necessarily accompany the downfall of metaphysics By scrutinizing a critical juncture in modern intellectual history marked in 1931 by Adorno's founding of the Frankfurt Institute for Social Research neglected applications of Critical Theory to Jewish Thought become possible This study proffers a constructive justification of a critical standpoint reconstructively shown how such ideals are seen under the genealogical proviso of recognizing their original meaning Recognition of A New Physiognomy of Jewish Thinking redresses neglected applications of Negative Dialectics the poetics of God the metaphysics of musical thinking reification in Zionism the transpoetics of Physics and Metaphysics as well as correlating Aesthetic Theory to Jewish Law halakhah

Interdependence HyeRan Kim-Cragg, 2018-05-31

This book calls attention to an urgent need for postcolonial feminist approaches to practical theology It not only advocates for the inclusion of colonialism as a critical optic for practical theology but also demands a close look at how colonialism is entangled with issues of race ethnicity gender class disability and sexual orientation Seeking to highlight the importance of the interdependence of life the author challenges and contests the notion of independence as the desirable goal of the human being Lifting up the experiences of overlooked groups including children at adult centered worship queer and interracial youth in heterosexual and white normative family discourse and non human species in human centered academic and theological realms the book contributes to expanding the concerns of practical theology in ways that create healthy community for all human beings and non human fellow creatures It also takes up issues of multiple religious belonging and migration that practical theology has not sufficiently explored These illuminating new possibilities promise to renew and even transform church communities through the inclusion of often neglected groups with whom God is already present
