Sharing Ideas Robert Perrin, 1985 The Rhetoric of Cool Jeff Rice, 2007-05-11 The Rhetoric of Cool Composition Studies and New Media offers a historical critique of composition studies rebirth narrative using that critique to propose a new rhetoric for new media work Author Jeff Rice returns to critical moments during the rebirth of composition studies when the discipline chose not to emphasize technology cultural studies and visual writing which are now fundamental to composition studies Rice redefines these moments in order to invent a new electronic practice The Rhetoric of Cool addresses the disciplinary claim that composition studies underwent a rebirth in 1963 At that time three writers reviewed technology cultural studies and visual writing outside composition studies and independently used the word cool to describe each position Starting from these three positions Rice focuses on chora appropriation commutation juxtaposition nonlinearity and imagery rhetorical gestures conducive to new media work to construct the rhetoric of cool An innovative work that approaches computers and writing issues from historical critical theoretical and practical perspectives The Rhetoric of Cool challenges current understandings of writing and new media and proposes a rhetorical rather than an instrumental response for teaching writing in new media contexts South Atlantic Review , 1984 British Books in Print , 1985

Rhetoric and Theology Manfred Hoffman, 1993-12-15 Departing from the traditional focus on Erasmus as philologist and moralist Rhetoric and Theology shows how Erasmus attempted to interpret Scripture by way of a rhetorical theology that focuses on the figurative metaphorical quality of language with a view to moral and theological reform Manfred Hoffmann concentrates on the theological sources of Erasmus hermeneutic from 1518 to 1535 especially the Ratio verae theologiae the Ecclesiastes and the exegesis of Old and New Testament texts He shows that Erasmus hermeneutic is based on the concept of language as mediation Words do not have the power to represent the truth unambiguously but they appeal to our understanding in ways that draw us to the truth through the process of interpretation For Erasmus it is through allegory that the divine Word carries out its mediation between letter and spirit Erasmus used the tools of rhetoric to read and understand Scripture and thereby constructed a theological framework that has a direct relationship with his hermeneutic Rhetorical theologians imitate the invention disposition inverbation and delivery of divine speech by clarifying its composition ordering its subject matter internalizing its content and communicating its transforming power of persuasion Rhetoric provided Erasmus with the tools for finding theological loci in Scripture drawing from it a repertoire for knowing and living and translating it into sacred oratory Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This multidisciplinary handbook pulls together in one volume the research on children's and young adult literature which is currently scattered across three intersecting disciplines education English and library and information science The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook for Critical Thinking Noel Hendrickson, Kirk Amant, William Hawk, 2008-02-08 The Rowman Littlefield Handbook for Critical Thinking provides a
