Shark The Biography Of Greg Norman:

Shark Lauren St. John, 1998-03-01 Greg Norman is golf's most complex and controversial celebrity and perhaps its most gifted and charismatic player. Winner of more than 70 tournaments including the 1986 and 1993 British Opens, he has reigned as the world's number one ranked golfer for most of a decade and began 1998 as the PGA Tour's career earnings leader with almost 12 million. As ruthless in the boardroom as he is on the golf course, the Shark turned a 2 million stake in Cobra Golf into a payoff of more than 40 million, bought a Boeing 747 jet for his personal use and launched a clothing line bearing his multicolored shark motif. Three parts Crocodile Dundee, two parts Jack Nicklaus and one part Don Quixote, the jet setting Shark is larger than life. He has raced Ferraris with Nigel Mansell, hauled marlin over the side of plunging boats, scuba dived with sharks, taken a joyride in an F 14, saved drowning friends and entertained a US president at his Florida compound. Yet Norman stands blond head and broad shoulders above golf's elite as the sport's most notorious victim of cruel calamity. His dramatic losses at the 1986 PGA Championship, the 1987 Masters and the 1996 Masters rank among golf's most inexplicable defeats rendered by the most outrageous strokes of misfortune. In this riveting and revealing biography, internationally acclaimed journalist Lauren St. John examines Norman's conquests as well as his failures and his relationships with his father, his agents, fellow golfers and caddies. Using her unparalleled access to dozens of people who know Norman best, including the Shark himself, St. John explains how Norman's fear of bankruptcy drove him to win the 1986 British Open, exclusively reveals the background of the break up with his first manager and his subsequent split with IMG, tells why golf's greatest natural talent has so often snatched defeat from the jaws of victory and explains his tempestuous relationships with Jack Nicklaus and other top players.

The Way of the Shark Greg Norman, Donald Thomas Phillips, 2006 A champion golfer and CEO of the Great White Shark corporation traces his rise from a teenage caddy to a three time PGA winner while discussing how to apply strategies learned on the course to a business career.

Shark Lauren St. John, 1998 In this biography, journalist Lauren St. John examines Norman's conquests as well as his failures and his relationships with his father, his agents, fellow golfers and caddies. Using her unparalleled access to dozens of people who know Norman best, including the Shark himself, St. John explains how Norman's fear of bankruptcy drove him to win the 1986 British Open, exclusively reveals the background of the break up with his first manager and his subsequent split with IMG, tells why golf's greatest natural talent has so often snatched defeat from the jaws of victory, explains his tempestuous relationships with Jack Nicklaus and other top players and reveals the inside stories of President Clinton's 1997 visit to the Norman home, Norman's involvement in the Cobra deal and the World Tour and President's Cup controversies. The result is a comprehensive and dramatic portrait of one of golf's most electrifying performers.

Sports around the World John Nauright, 2012-04-06 This multivolume set is much more than a collection of essays on sports and sporting cultures from around the world; it also details how and why sports are played wherever they exist and examines key charismatic athletes from around the world who have transcended their sports Sports Around the World History Culture and Practice provides a unique global overview of sports and sports cultures Unlike most works of this type this book provides both essays that examine general topics such as globalization and sport international relations and sport and tourism and sport as well as essays on sports history culture and practice in world regions for example Latin America and the Caribbean the Middle East and North Africa Europe and Oceania in order to provide a more global perspective These essays are followed by entries on specific sports world athletes stadiums and arenas famous games and matches and major controversies Spanning topics as varied as modern professional cycling to the fictional movie Rocky to the deadly ball game of the ancient Mayans the first three volumes contain overview essays and entries for specific sports that have been and are currently practiced around the world The fourth volume provides a compendium of information on the winners of major sporting competitions from around the world Readers will gain invaluable insights into how sports have been enjoyed throughout all of human culture and more fully comprehend their cultural contexts The entries provide suggestions for further reading on each topic helpful to general readers students with school projects university students and academics alike Additionally the four volume Sports Around the World spotlights key charismatic athletes who have changed a sport or become more than just an outstanding player

The Way of the Shark Greg Norman, 2007-10-16 With trademark charm and eloquence golf's Great White Shark chronicles his extraordinary life and career showing how lessons learned on pressure packed putting greens prepared him for phenomenal success in the boardroom

Masters of Men Liam Hayes, 2013-11-07 Masters of Men is the story of one journey taken over half a century apart by two outstanding golfers But this is more than a golf book It's the story of two young men and the people who filled their lives the mentor who dominated Ken Venturi the agent who loomed too large over Rory McIlroy and the two young girls who became their first loves and lost their men as they became champions Uniquely it pits the incredible struggles and victories of perhaps the single most naturally talented golfer from the 1950s and 60s Ken Venturi US Open champion 1964 against the game's most naturally talented golfer of today Rory McIlroy US Open champion 2011 It puts them on the same tee boxes on the same greens on the same day Masters of Men uniquely and dramatically brings together for two days two remarkable golfers from two different ages in golf on the final day of their greatest failure and the final day of their most remarkable triumph It weaves in elements of cultural and social history examines the birth of two of the greatest golf courses in the United States Augusta National and Congressional CC and examines the journey undertaken by the game of golf and its greatest players from generations past from Byron Nelson and Ben Hogan to Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus to Greg Norman and Tiger Woods It is an extraordinary story and one that will appeal to both golf fans and the wider sport reading public
