Beneventi, 2019-03-14 Contested Spaces Counter narratives and Culture from Below in Canada and Québec explores strategies for reading space and conflict in Canadian and Québecois literature and cultural performances positing questions such as how do these texts and performances produce and contest spatial practices What are the roles of the nation city community and individual subject in reproducing space particularly in times of global hegemony and neocolonialism And in what ways do marginalized individuals and communities represent contest or appropriate spaces through counter narratives and expressions of culture from below Focusing on discord rather than harmony and consensus this collection disturbs the idealized space of Canadian multicultural pluralism to carry literary analysis and cultural studies into spaces often undetected and unforeseen including flophouses and slums shantytowns and urban alleyways underground spaces and peep shows and inner city urban parks as they are experienced by minorities and other marginalized groups These essays are the products of sustained high level collaboration across French and English academic communities in Canada to facilitate theoretical exchange on the topic of space and contestation uncover geographies of exclusion and generate new spaces of hope in the spirit of pioneering works by Henri Lefebvre Michel Foucault Michel de Certeau Doreen Massey David Harvey and other prominent theorists of space The Violent Woman as a New Theatrical Character Type Shelley Scott, 2007 This book analyzes plays by Canadian women that deal with real life incidents of violent women In each of the plays under consideration the playwright is theatrically engaged with the social meaning of the woman's violent act asking how it was interpreted in public discourse and investigating the implications of that interpretation The female playwrights in this study have each made individual choices about the form in which they will tackle their tricky subject matter and their choices make for varied and intriguing relationships with their audiences Each play is also placed in the context of its social milieu by means of an examination of some of the inter textual discourse surrounding its appearance In every case the fundamental question remains what and how does the violent woman mean Voice of Her Own
