Long Road Home:

The Long Road Home Lori Wick, 2005-01-01 She can't be dead the young pastor cried as he looked down at the still white face of his new bride Blinded by bitterness Paul Cameron leaves his church and flees to a logging camp deep in the north woods of Wisconsin There he wrestles with his loss unable to get Corrine out of his mind and unwilling to make peace with God When a falling tree crushes his legs Paul can run no further Broken now in body as well as spirit he must face his own heart as he encounters the love of God in the patient care of his nurse Abigail Finlayson The Long Road Home touches shattered dreams with God's faithfulness and the possibility of new love in this turn of the century romance

Fortune Tellers Walter A Friedman, 2013-12-01 A gripping history of the pioneers who sought to use science to predict financial markets The period leading up to the Great Depression witnessed the rise of the economic forecasters pioneers who sought to use the tools of science to predict the future with the aim of profiting from their forecasts This book chronicles the lives and careers of the men who defined this first wave of economic fortune tellers men such as Roger Babson Irving Fisher John Moody C J Bullock and Warren Persons They competed to sell their distinctive methods of prediction to investors and businesses and thrived in the boom years that followed World War I Yet almost to a man they failed to predict the devastating crash of 1929 Walter Friedman paints vivid portraits of entrepreneurs who shared a belief that the rational world of numbers and reason could tame or at least foresee the irrational gyrations of the market Despite their failures this first generation of economic forecasters helped to make the prediction of economic trends a central economic activity and shed light on the mechanics of financial markets by providing a range of statistics and information about individual firms They also raised questions that are still relevant today What is science and what is merely guesswork in forecasting What motivates people to buy forecasts Does the act of forecasting set in motion unforeseen events that can counteract the forecast made Masterful and compelling Fortune Tellers highlights the risk and uncertainty that are inherent to capitalism itself

The Warburgs Ron Chernow, 2016-11-15 From the Pulitzer Prize winning bestselling author of Alexander Hamilton the inspiration for the hit Broadway musical comes this definitive biography of the Warburgs one of the great German Jewish banking families of the twentieth century Bankers philanthropists scholars socialites artists and politicians the Warburgs stood at the pinnacle of German and later of German American Jewry They forged economic dynasties built mansions and estates assembled libraries endowed charities and advised a German kaiser and two American presidents But their very success made the Warburgs lightning rods for anti-Semitism and their sense of patriotism became increasingly dangerous in a Germany that had declared Jews the enemy Ron Chernow's hugely fascinating history is a group portrait of a clan whose members were renowned for their brilliance culture and personal energy yet tragically vulnerable to the dark and irrational currents of the twentieth century

The North Carolina Symphony Joe A. Mobley, John W. Lambert, 2019-06-20 From its beginnings during the Great Depression the North Carolina Symphony has touched the lives of countless Tar Heels One of the state's premier cultural organizations and the oldest continuously state supported orchestra in the nation the Suitcase Symphony grew from a small group of volunteer players to the world class orchestra it is today This book details the contributions of founder Lamar Stringfield longtime conductor Benjamin Swalin and his wife Maxine current music director Grant Llewellyn and other leaders of this iconic institution The authors place the symphony s story for the first time in the context of North Carolina s cultural history and in the process reveal much about the musical traditions of the Sahara of the Bozart and about the trials and triumphs of maintaining a state symphony orchestra The Long Road Home Martha Raddatz,2007-03-01 ABC News Chief Global Affairs Correspondent Martha Raddatz shares remarkable tales of heroism hope and heartbreak in her account of Black Sunday a battle during one of the deadliest periods of the Iraq War The First Cavalry Division came under surprise attack in Sadr City on Sunday April 4 2004 Over 7 000 miles away their families awaited the news for forty eight hellish hours expecting the worst In this powerful unflinching account Martha Raddatz takes readers from the streets of Baghdad to the home front and tells the story of that horrific day through the eyes of the courageous American men and women who lived it A masterpiece of literary nonfiction that rivals any war related classic that has preceded it The Washington Post

Coming In Ron Jordan,2007-01-24 A wind comes blowing bringing another new day with each breaking dawn Another day of toil and oftentimes tribulation mixed with affection for the land upon which he lives and works the cowhand s existence is a bond between nature and the folks he has come to know and respect His very existence is the epitome of a freedom that most folks will never know but merely dream of These are the heart rending tales of life in southeastern Wyoming living and working with ranchers and ranch hands cowboys and cowpokes and the occasional suburbanite in search of the real west The edge of civilization rises on a near horizon and with its arrival ushers the end of a western heritage and the cowboy culture that few outsiders will ever comprehend Written with truthfulness and candor the author weaves a tapestry of stories and personal experiences forever mindful of the fabric of life that holds this vanishing and fragile rural society together Provocative this is a perspective unlike any other ever presented Anguish coupled with brutal honesty and compassion for the working ranch hand in the American west this is a brotherhood of understanding A Book For Kids C.J. Steel,2002 Invested Paul Crosthwaite,Peter Knight,Nicky Marsh,Helen Paul,2022-12-21 Invested examines the perennial and nefarious appeal of financial advice manuals Who hasn t wished for a surefire formula for riches and a ticket to the good life For three centuries investment advisers of all kinds legit and otherwise have guaranteed that they alone can illuminate the golden pathway to prosperity despite strong evidence to the contrary In fact too often they are singing a siren song of devastation And yet we keep listening Invested tells the story of how the genre of investment advice developed and grew in the United Kingdom and the United States from its origins in the eighteenth century through today as it saturates our world The authors analyze centuries of books TV shows blogs and more all promising techniques for amateur investors to master the ways of the market from Thomas Mortimer's pathbreaking 1761 work Every Man His Own Broker through the Gilded Age explosion of sensationalist investment manuals the early twentieth century emergence of a vernacular financial science and the more recent convergence of self help and personal finance Invested asks why in the absence of evidence that such advice reliably works guides to the stock market have remained perennially popular The authors argue that the appeal of popular investment advice lies in its promise to level the playing field giving outsiders the privileged information of insiders As Invested persuasively shows the fantasies sold by these writings are damaging and deceptive peddling unrealistic visions of easy profits and the certainty of success while trying to hide the fact that there is no formula for avoiding life's economic uncertainties and calamities

The Pieces Kate Elizabeth, 2010-09-14 This is a book of poetry with soul The verses and lines have soul and emotion The writer captivates the heart very carefully and shares her experiences with the rest of the world through poetry

Where Poppies Grow Denniele Bohannon, Janice Britz, 2014-09-01 Quilts and projects rooted in history and honoring heroes Denniele Bohannon's great grandfather Almo O Kell served as a medic in World War I and was one of the many soldiers who never came home Together with Janice Britz she created the Kansas City Star's block of the month quilt Remembering Almo to honor those who served their country at the centennial of the Great War Two color variations and setting options are given for the main quilt Three more striking quilts two variations of a table runner and a poppy pin and pincushion round out the projects Also included is information about Almo's life with photos and brief excerpts from his letters

Down by the Barn Sharon J. Sockey, 2011-04 Down by the Barn features pictures and poems to make you laugh cry reminisce and think The simple things in life are often the best Sometimes the challenge is to find them even though they continually surround us

Destination Elsewhere Ruth Balint, 2021-11-15 In this unique history from below Destination Elsewhere chronicles encounters between displaced persons in Europe and the Allied agencies who were tasked with caring for them after the Second World War The struggle to define who was a displaced person and who was not was a subject of intense debate and deliberation among humanitarians international law experts immigration planners and governments What has not adequately been recognized is that displaced persons also actively participated in this emerging refugee conversation. Displaced persons endured war displacement and resettlement but these experiences were not defined by passivity and speechlessness. Instead they spoke back creating a dialogue that in turn helped shape the modern idea of the refugee. As Ruth Balint shows what made a good or convincing story at the time tells us much about the circulation of ideas about the war, the Holocaust and the Jews. Those stories depict the emerging moral and legal distinction between economic migrants and political refugees. They tell us about the experiences of women and children in the face of new psychological and political interventions into the family. Stories from displaced persons also tell us something about the enduring myth of the new world for people who longed to leave the old. Balint focuses on those persons whose storytelling skills became a major strategy for survival and escape out of the displaced persons camps and out of Europe. Their stories are brought to life in Destination Elsewhere alongside a new history of immigration, statelessness and the institution of the postwar family.

The Rebel Yell & the Yankee Hurrah John W. Haley, 2014-09-07 On an I will if you will dare John Haley enlisted in the 17th Maine Regiment in August 1862 for three years unless sooner discharged. Discharged, shot or starved would have been more accurate. Haley later wryly observed: Though a reluctant soldier at first he served steadfastly in the Army of the Potomac for nearly three years participating in some of the most significant battles of the Civil War. John Haley was not the only soldier to record each day's events in his journal by firelight or by picket's lantern for his was a literate generation. He was unusual in that he later painstakingly rewrote his battlefield notes reflecting at leisure and adding fascinating political and personal commentary to produce the remarkable volume he calls Haley's Chronicles.
