Longterm Careperspectives From Research And Demonstrationshc:

Health Care Financing Review ,2002 Community Resources for Older Adults Robbyn R. Wacker,Karen A. Roberto,2007-12-17 How have programs for older adults evolved Who uses these resources How are they delivered And what challenges do service providers face in meeting the needs of the aging baby boom generation Community Resources for Older Adults Programs and Services in an Era of Change Third Edition answers these and other critical questions by providing a theoretical framework for understanding the forces that shape older adults likelihood to seek assistance

Community Care Demonstrations ,1987 A Systematic Comparison of Community Care Demonstrations Peter Kemper,1987 Reprint - Institute for Research on Poverty University of Wisconsin. Institute for Research on Poverty, The Heart of Long Term Care Rosalie A. Kane,Robert L. Kane,Richard C. Ladd,1998 Long term care in the United States has taken the nursing home as its benchmark but the monetary social and psychological costs of nursing home care are all too high This book challenges the current dominance of nursing homes as the principal institution of long term care It offers a series of alternative models where both services and housing can be provided in a way that allows long term consumers to enjoy dignified normal lifestyles It addresses the political and economic consequences of making this decision The authors start with the premise that long term care is designed to assist people who lack the capacity to function fully independently They argue that no disabled person of any age should be required to forsake his her humanity in exchange for care The book rejects the artificial dichotomy between social and medical care asserting that both play important roles in psychological and physical well being of long term care patients The authors consider the need for competent and compassionate medicine and discuss the methods for improving both its coordination of care and its effectiveness The book redefines the meaning of safety and protection in long term care and how this goal can be accomplished without sacrificing quality of living As the new millennium and the aging of baby boomers approaches more creative approaches to providing better long term care are required This volume outlines a useful framework for the provision of effective and humane community based programs that are both feasible and affordable It will be an invaluable guide for geriatricians public health professionals family physicians nurses and others who care for elderly patients Research Activities ,1994 Bridging the Family Care Gap Joseph E. Gaugler,2021-01-09 Bridging the Family Care Gap explores expected future shortages of family caregivers of older persons and identifies potential solutions The book examines the sustainability and availability of care management models and whether they can be effectively scaled up to meet community needs It identifies newly emerging policy initiatives at local state and federal levels The book addresses the state of family caregiving science dissemination and implementation of promising programs and supports technological innovations and other strategies to offset the family care gap This edited volume also explores lay healthcare workers as guides interpreters and advocates in healthcare systems that provide continuity of contact for family caregivers Details threats to family caregiving sociodemographic chronic disease and socioeconomic challenges Presents solutions to the caregiving gap in a systematic synthesized manner Addresses the intersection of family caregiving and technology Discusses chronic disease management to offset and reduce the need for family caregiving Describes models of caregiver support in work settings Reimagines the delivery of long term services and supports with novel initiatives Community-Based Systems of Long-Term Care Rick T. Zawadski,2014-04-23 An enlightening review of the successes and failures of several federally funded community based projects that offered elderly persons an alternative to nursing home care Policymakers caregivers and students of public administration and gerontology must read this valuable book Medical Care Review ,1990 Health Care of the Elderly Marilyn D. Petersen,Diana L. White,1989-03 The literature focusing on major barriers to health care of the elderly is critically reviewed in this book Each chapter focuses on a specific problem examining in depth the existing information on a particular area of concern Following an explicit and rigorous methodology known as information synthesis contributors examine three categories of issues elements organization and delivery services in the long term care system social support programmes for the elderly and clinical care issues and physician education Handbook of Long-Term Care Administration and Policy Cynthia Massie Mara,Laura Olson,2008-03-27 Attitudes toward long term care contain a strong residue of negativity in today s society and current problems with the system augment such perceptions Unless dealt with now this will only get worse as the 85 and older crowd is the fastest growing part of the population and the first wave of Baby Boomers is approaching 60 Exploring and delinea A Call for Action United States. Congress. Pepper Commission,1990 International Perspectives on State and Family Support for the Elderly Scott Bass,Jill Norton,Robert Morris Deceased,2013-12-02 Within the context of long range planning this book examines the changing responsibilities of the state and family toward elders in different societies around the world International Perspectives on State and Family Support for the Elderly presents a fresh range of lucid analyses of family caregiving policy from Canada the United States Sweden the United Kingdom Hong Kong Austria Denmark Israel and the People s Republic of China Different institutional structures levels of economic development and cultural values among other factors impact policy development in various countries With the information examined in this book readers can gain an understanding of elder care in other societies which can help them in developing policies for their own countries Authors of International Perspectives on State and Family Support for the Elderly address questions such as Who is responsible for caring for the aged What are the policy issues that determine how such care is handled in various countries Are the underlying principles upon which policy is based changing Who pays for the care of the aged What is the balance of the roles of government family and community Along with these questions authors discuss the importance of family care the well being payment and rights of informal caregivers providing services for informal caregivers shifting the burden of care from formal organizations to families the effects of governmental frameworks on caregiving the impact of the political agenda on caregiving caregiving and the welfare stateInternational Perspectives on State and Family Support for the Elderly contains information for all professionals interested or involved in developing policy for the elderly Demographers sociologists social workers health care and public health professionals gerontologists and advanced students in these fields will find this book a helpful guide in their studies Matching Resources to Needs in Community Care Bleddyn Davies, David Challis, 2018-08-09 First published in 1986 Matching Resources to Needs describes the PSSRU's community care approach and analyses the first of the community care projects a seminal set of experiments in the care of the elderly at high risk of institutional long term care The experiments create field structures which provide incentives to improve efficiency decentralised power over resources being balanced by enhanced accountability The first part explains the approach analyses the causes of inefficiency in British social care and reviews British and American evidence about the relationships between resources recipient characteristics and outcomes The approach is compared with some two dozen American experiments hitherto unknown in the UK It describes the design of the project and its evaluation The authors then examine the experimental results They show that cost and welfare effects are better and the costs of outcomes are lower for recipients of community care The third part of the book uses observational and other data to explore the relationships between structures assumptive worlds causal processes and outcomes and their costs It also analyses the performance of the core tasks of entrepreneurial case management for types of case The book concludes with a discussion of the broader implications of this approach to community care The Clinical Care of the Aged Person David G. Satin, 1994-03-03 As the population of aged people increases throughout the world the need for comprehensive integrated geriatric care is rapidly becoming a high priority Developed from an education program in clinical geriatrics offered through the Division on Aging of the Harvard Medical School this authoritative text provides broad interdisciplinary coverage of geriatric health care The book incorporates the theory and skill needed for many disciplines to work together effectively It integrates the various topics covered by way of section introductions cross references within chapters a case study and case conference and an introductory chapter of discussions among a panel of aged people With contributions from a wide range of experts this book teaches an interdisciplinary perspective on the aged and their health care and examines the working relationships among the many professionals providing care for the aged Journal of Human Services Abstracts ,1982 Active Projects Report , The PSRO and the Nursing Home: Ten demonstration projects in PSRO long-term care review Rand Corporation, 1979 Status Report ,1995
