Missiological Hermeneutics Shawn B. Redford, 2012-10-18 How have those engaged in the mission of God been challenged to reinterpret Scripture through their experience In what ways were the missionaries in the Bible challenged to reevaluate Scripture in their own time Redford attempts to give shape to the nature of missional hermeneutics by examining Scripture present day cultural values historical struggles and the experience of those who are engaged in the mission of God In order for missionaries to overcome the scientific polarization in Western hermeneutics they must be able to perceive and learn from the overarching missional and spiritual hermeneutics found throughout Scripture so that they can balance missional spiritual historical critical and even unforeseen hermeneutical paths providing increased confidence in biblical interpretation

Catching the Wind - A Guide for Interpreting Ecclesiastes Dale McIntire, 2020-07-28 Depressing Ungodly Skippable Each of these words have been used to describe Ecclesiastes Catching the Wind A Guide for Interpreting Ecclesiastes provides an interpretive companion for pastors Bible study teachers and leaders and Bible readers who are tired of skipping Ecclesiastes because either it is too hard to understand or its content appears too contrary to fit into preconceived notions of what and how God reveals Himself in His Word The message of Ecclesiastes often lost to readers and interpreters in the puzzling enigmatic details of the book becomes readily accessible when Ecclesiastes is considered in the whole Catching the Wind utilizes the structure of a modern social research report to reveal the divine intent of Ecclesiastes the divine truth that true meaning in human life comes in covenant relationship with the sovereign God and through no other means The guide provides instruction for developing a biblical hermeneutic an interpretation of the text of Ecclesiastes examples of personal application and abundant study questions for further investigation

Justification James K. Beilby, Paul Rhodes Eddy, 2011-11-10 Therefore since we have been justified by faith we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ Rom 5 1 When Paul wrote these words he seemed confident he had made himself clear But for centuries the Pauline doctrine of justification has been a classic point of interpretation and debate in Christian exegesis and theology And while in recent decades there have been moments of hopeful convergence among the various traditions of the Western church the fine print often reveals more facets and distinctions than ever before This volume focuses on five views of justification and calls on representative proponents to set forth their case and then respond to each other The five views are Traditional Reformed Michael S Horton Progressive Reformed Michael F Bird New Perspective James D G Dunn Deification or Theosis Veli Matti Kärkkäinen Roman Catholic Gerald O Collins and Oliver Rafferty In addition editors James Beilby Paul R Eddy and Steven E

Enderlein provide an extensive introduction to the issues informing this important debate This distinguished forum of biblical interpreters and theologians offers a lively and informative engagement with the biblical historical and contemporary understandings of justification Justification Five Views is not only a fascinating probe into Paul s meaning it is also a case book in theological method He Who Gives Life Graham A. Cole,2007-08-16 Often the most misunderstood and therefore ignored member of the Trinity the Holy Spirit deserves our attention and understanding God the Father and God the Son rightfully garner much explanation and exploration and God the Holy Spirit ought to be given the same studiousness curiosity and scholarship In this addition to Crossway s Foundations of Evangelical Theology series Dr Graham Cole has written a work that offers a comprehensive theology of the Holy Spirit This book shows the ultimate selflessness of the Holy Spirit as the member of the Trinity who always works for the glory of God the Father and God the Son and the good of the saints Ideal for pastors teachers and students of theology this book is a superb theology of the Holy Spirit Part of the Foundations of Evangelical Theology series A Critical Examination of the Doctrine of Revelation in Evangelical Theology Carisa A. Ash,2015-07-14 How God reveals himself is an important matter for Christians especially evangelicals For too long Carisa Ash contends evangelicals have rightly affirmed that God reveals through the created world but then they functionally neglect such revelation In this monograph Ash offers a corrective to this practice by presenting a theology of revelation that explores the commonalities between various forms of revelation world written and spoken word and Incarnate Word Particularly aimed at theologians interested in theological method Ash s study will also benefit people interested in faith and learning or interdisciplinary integration Ash argues that evangelicals must strive to align more closely their affirmations and their practice Her critique of current practices in theological method and integration along with the proposed theology of revelation are designed to help move the conversation forward Marketing Information Guide ,1971 Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1968 Includes subject section name section and 1968 1970 technical reports Five Views on Apologetics Zondervan,2010-06-01 Of the most common approaches to apologetics which is most effective The goal of apologetics is to persuasively defend Christianity against charges of falsehood inconsistency or credulity It s an intellectual discipline that serves to bolster the faith of Christian believers and to aid the task of evangelism but are some methods more effective than others Five Views on Apologetics examines the how to of apologetics putting five prominent techniques under the microscope Classical represented by William Lane Craig Evidential represented by Gary Habermas Cumulative Case represented by Paul D Feinberg Presuppositional represented by John M Frame Reformed Epistemology represented by Kelly James Clark Offering a forum for presentation critique and defense this book allows the contributors for the different viewpoints to respond to the others Your own informed conclusions can then guide you as you meet the questions of a needy world with the claims of the gospel The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Biblical Foundations for Manhood and Womanhood Wayne Grudem, 2002-10-04 For years a debate has raged over how to define true masculinity and true femininity While there is agreement that men and women share equally in the privilege of being made in God's image some views of manhood and womanhood blur God-given gender distinctions Wayne Grudem assembled a team of distinguished writers to show how egalitarian views destroy God's ideal for your relationships marriage and life purposes The contributors to this book include John Piper Pastor of Bethlehem Baptist Church Minneapolis Minnesota Bruce A Ware Senior Associate Dean of the School of Theology and Professor of Christian Theology at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Richard W Hove Director of Campus Crusade for Christ at Duke University Daniel Doriani Dean of the Faculty and Professor of New Testament at Covenant Theological Seminary Daniel R Heimbach Professor of Christian Ethics at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Peter Jones Professor of New Testament at Westminster Theological Seminary in California These writers explore key issues including the interchangeability of male female roles the meaning of submission and the historical novelty of egalitarian interpretations of Scripture This book will demonstrate how some views of manhood and womanhood tamper with our understanding of God's character and why the extremes of male domination and feminism destroy the beauty of our sexual differences differences that celebrate the excellence of men and women as God created us
