SENTIMENTAL MOMENT OR WHY DID THE BAGUETTE CROSS THE ROAD? | 080

Don't fill up on bread
I say absent-mindedly
The servings here are huge My son, whose hair may be receding a bit, says Did you really just say that to me?

What he doesn't know is that when we're walking together, when we get to the curb
I sometimes start to reach for his hand

Robert Hull, 2019-08-09 Published in 1988 this book is a teacher's eye view of how children come to write and rewrite poems and of how they make aesthetic choices in their writing Drawing on over twenty years experience of teaching poetry in primary and secondary schools Robert Hull presents a detailed account of the process of writing poetry in the classroom The reader is invited almost in confidence to be witness to a skilled teacher's planning recognition and definition of children's emergent understanding and expertise The author adopts a non-behaviourist model which stresses difficulty and uncertainty rejecting a simplistic assumption of linear progression predictability of outcome and short term results The many examples of poems written by the children demonstrate in a very vivid and impressive way the value of this approach All teachers not just of poetry will find this a fascinating and informed study and an inspiration for their own work in the classroom Markers of Allusion in Archaic Greek Poetry Thomas J. Charles Wells Moulton, 1892 The Embattled Lyric Nathaniel Tarn, 2007 This book has two main subjects which are interwoven the attitudes of selected poets including Neruda Rilke Breton Celan and Artaud to the primitive and the archaic studied from an anthropologist's viewpoint and a model of the processes whereby poetry is produced and received built on the author's successful careers as both poet and anthropologist The book includes detailed biographical information about how Tarn went from being a French to an English to an American poet It also reveals the effect of a double career and of these moves on a unique body of poetry and theoretical work An extremely substantial interview serving also as an introduction to and discussion of the essays demonstrates that there is nothing like this work to be found elsewhere
