Ruskin Bond A Study of Human Emotions Dr. Sangeeta Paul Budhiraja, Literature challenges one not only to think about ethical conundrums but also makes one sensitive and compassionate When it blends with euphoria and nostalgia the integral parts of human mind it toughens and becomes sturdy Man loves to live in his past memories to be happy The experiences form a part of human personality and shape their behaviour pattern Nostalgia stores for us our memories which we relish lifelong Even the lamentable days of past become pleasant Though we might have ignored some not too pleasant incidents in our bygone days yet somewhat bitter experiences appear to be impressive and attractive It is aptly said that the panorama of mountains appear beautiful and splendid from a distance The bitterness of nearness is intolerable The more we grow in years the more our past recedes Distance from the life lived long ago makes it sweet and desirable Strain and stress of the present becomes frivolous when we slipand relapse into euphoric nostalgia The instincts of euphoria and nostalgia have been vividly handled by the legendry writers of all times They have given various dimensions and definitions to the readers to redeem these human aspects yet many more stones are still unturned These two instincts in the oeuvre of the legendry writer Ruskin Bond are the anchor points that suggest the scope of study I have chosen to put forward the very idea about how a man s body mind and soul blend with traces of his past memories and support the holistic growth

Sex and Power Rita Banerji, 2008-11-14 Sex underlies human existence and if human life is sacred how can sex not be As squeamish as India is today about sex this is also the land where queens once copulated with head horses at religious ceremonies where the art of love making was declared the revelation of the gods and recorded in elaborate detail in the kama sutras and prostitution was a form of sacred offering at temples adorned with erotic sculptures Using India as a paradigm Rita Banerji illustrates that sexual morality is not an absolute but a facet of living that undergoes periodic upheavals She delineates four major periods in Indian history when there were significant shifts in the collective social perception of sex and sexuality and the associated customs and beliefs What causes this revision in sexual ethos To explain this Sex and Power proposes a modified version of Nietzsche's slave versus master morality theory The theory which is tested against the dynamics of each of the four defined periods establishes that the moral overview of any given period is determined not by a set of pre-existing ethics but by the existent power structure of the period in question The accepted moral code actually serves the party in power How would this theory play out in the context of India today Banerji examines this question at length as one of extreme urgency and concludes that the three most burning issues facing the country today population explosion AIDS and female genocide are the manifestations of a collective sexual malfunctioning of society and need to be redressed in the context of an existent social and economic power hierarchy

How Literary Worlds Are Shaped Bo Pettersson, 2016-09-12 Literary studies still lack an extensive comparative analysis of different kinds of literature including ancient and non Western How Literary Worlds Are Shaped A Comparative Poetics of Literary Imagination aims to provide such a study Literature it claims is based on individual and shared human imagination which creates literary worlds that blend the real and the fantastic mimesis and genre often modulated by different kinds of unreliability The main building blocks of literary worlds are their oral visual and written modes and three themes challenge perception and relation They are blended and inflected in different ways by combinations of narratives and figures indirection thwarted aspirations meta usages hypothetical action as well as hierarchies and blends of genres and text types Moreover literary worlds are not only constructed by humans but also shape their lives and reinforce their sense of wonder Finally ten reasons are given in order to show how this comparative view can be of use in literary studies In sum How Literary Worlds Are Shaped is the first study to present a wide ranging and detailed comparative account of the makings of literary worlds A Communion of Subjects

Paul Waldau, Kimberley Patton, 2009-05-22 A Communion of Subjects is the first comparative and interdisciplinary study of the conceptualization of animals in world religions Scholars from a wide range of disciplines including Thomas Berry cultural history Wendy Doniger study of myth Elizabeth Lawrence veterinary medicine ritual studies Marc Bekoff cognitive ethology Marc Hauser behavioral science Steven Wise animals and law Peter Singer animals and ethics and Jane Goodall primatology consider how major religious traditions have incorporated animals into their belief systems myths rituals and art Their findings offer profound insights into the relationship between human beings and animals and a deeper understanding of the social and ecological web in which we all live Ritwik Ghatak and the Cinema of Praxis Diamond Oberoi

Vahali, 2020-04-24 In a significant departure from other works on Ritwik Ghatak this book establishes him as an auteur and a maestro on par with some of the great film directors like Sergei Eisenstein Satyajit Ray Ingmar Bergman Federico Fellini Kenji Mizoguchi and Luis Bunuel Based on in depth research that follows Ghatak's journey within the context of the Indian People's Theatre Association it fills an important gap in the scholarship around Ghatak by offering crucial insights into Ghatak's unique vision of cinema embedded as it is in the cultural psychic configurations of the people It analyses Ghatak's practice by minutely tracing formal similarities across the language of his cinematic oeuvre in the domain of cinematography lighting music and sound The book develops the way in which cinematic technique enters the domain of conceptual constructs and abstractions It moves on to chronicle Ghatak's political odyssey as reflected in his cinema Moreover it charts the manner in which Ghatak through his cinematic idiom offers a polemic of cinema that further adds to his notion of praxis a thoughtful Marxist paradigm organically associated with the culture and context of India By locating Ghatak within the discourse of nationalism the book brings to the surface Ghatak's critical insights related to the independence of the nation and the trauma of the partition of Bengal Ghatak's cinema served the crucial function of chronicling the mass tragedy of partition and its impact on the human psyche This book appeals to scholars of film studies and filmmaking as well as to researchers and general readers interested in debates pertaining to culture politics art psychoanalysis partition and refugee studies cinema theatre and ideology Kāma's Flowers Valerie Ritter, 2011-09-01 Kama's Flowers documents the transformation of Hindi poetry during the crucial period of 1885-1925 As Hindi was becoming a national language and Indian nationalism was emerging Hindi authors articulated a North Indian version of modernity by reenvisioning nature While their writing has previously been seen as an imitation of European Romanticism Valerie Ritter shows its unique and particular function in North India Description of the natural world recalled traditional poetics particularly erotic and devotional poetics but was now used to address sociopolitical concerns as authors created literature to advocate for a national character and to address a growing audience of female readers Examining Hindi classics translations from English poetry literary criticism and little known popular works Ritter combines translations with fresh literary analysis to show the pivotal role of nature in how modernity was understood Bringing a new body of literature to English language readers Kama s Flowers also reveals the origins of an influential visual culture that resonates today in Bollywood cinema

The Recognition of Sakuntala

Kalidasa, 2001-07-19 KING Yes I shall release you SAKUNTALA When KING When When like a bee I kiss the bud of your unbruised lip And flood my thirsting mouth with nectar Kalidasa s play about the love of King Dusyanta and Sakuntala a hermitage girl their separation by a curse and eventual reunion is the supreme work of Sanskrit drama by its greatest poet and playwright c 4th century CE Overwhelmingly erotic in tone in performance The Recognition of Sakuntala aimed to produce an experience of aesthetic rapture in the audience akin to certain types of mystical experience The pioneering English translation of Sakuntala in 1789 caused a sensation among European composers and writers including Goethe and it continues to be performed around the world This vibrant new verse translation includes the famous version of the story from the Mahabharata a poetic and dramatic text in its own right and a likely source for Kalidasa The introduction discusses the play in the aesthetic and cultural context of ancient India ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World s Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford s commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more

Righteous Republic Ananya Vajpeyi, 2012-10-31 What India s founders derived from Western political traditions is widely understood Less well known is how India s own rich knowledge traditions of 2 500 years influenced these men Vajpeyi furnishes this missing account showing how five founders turned to classical texts to fashion an original sense of Indian selfhood

India's Shakespeare: Translation, Interpretation and Performance Poonam Trivedi, Dennis Bartholomeusz, 2005 India s Shakespeare Translation Interpretation and Performance is ideal for English literature performance translation studies This collection of essays examines the diverse aspects of Shakespeare s interaction with India since two hundred years ago when the British first introduced him here While the study of Shakespeare was an imperial imposition the performance of Shakespeare was not Shakespeare translated and adapted on the commercial stage during the late nineteenth century was widely successful and remains to this day the most published and performed western author in India The important role Shakespeare has played in allowing cultures to speak with each other forms the center of this volume with contributions examining presence of Shakespeare in both colonial and post colonial India The essays discuss the several contexts in which Shakespeare was read taught translated performed and absorbed into the cultural fabric of India

The introduction details the history of this induction its shifts and developments and its corresponding critical discourse in India and the west This collection of essays emerging from first hand experience is presented from a variety of critical positions performative textual historicist feminist and post colonialist as befits the range of the subject Gender Meets Genre in Postwar Cinemas Christine Gledhill, 2012-01-19 This remarkable collection challenges traditional ways of thinking about the relationship between genre and gender understanding their meeting as a mutually transformative encounter Responding to postmodernist conceptions of genre and post feminist theories of gender and sexuality these essays move beyond the limits of representation Testing new thinking about genre gender and sexuality against closely analyzed films they explore generic convention as means of putting into play what our culture makes of us while finding in genre s repetitions infinite possibilities of cross generic cross gender cross sex permutation At the same time the aesthetic and emotional dimensions of gender and sexuality come into view as elements fuelling the dramatic worlds of film genres producing in the encounter new gendered perceptions affects and effects Drawing on the intensifying transnational context of film production and on postcolonial thinking this volume includes essays that explore the transformational transactions between gender and genre as world circulating Hollywood generic practices intersect with and are stimulated by American independent European Indian and Hong Kong cinemas Such revised concepts of genre and gender question taken for granted relationships between authorship and genre between centre and periphery between feminism and generic filmmaking and the supposed gendering of genres filmmakers and their audiences Contributors are Ira Bhaskar Xiangyang Chen Steven Cohan Luke Collins Pam Cook Lucy Fischer Jane Gaines Christine Gledhill Derek Kane Meddock E Ann Kaplan Samiha Matin Katie Model E Deidre Pribram Vicente Rodriguez Ortega Adam Segal Chris Straayer Yvonne Tasker and Deborah Thomas
