

The image features the Black Panther character in a highly stylized, low-poly art style. The character is depicted from the waist up, standing in a powerful, slightly crouched pose. The suit is primarily black with vibrant orange and yellow accents, particularly around the chest and joints. The character's face is partially obscured by the mask, which has a glowing orange eye. The background is a dark, geometric pattern of purple and blue triangles, creating a sense of depth and movement. The overall aesthetic is modern and digital.

Ticonderoga: A Story of Early Frontier Life In The Mohawk Valley George Payne Rainsford James, 2020-09-28 The house was a neat though a lowly one It bore traces of newness for the bark on the trunks which supported the little veranda had not yet mouldered away Nevertheless it was not built by the owner s own hands for when he came there he had much to learn in the rougher arts of life but with a carpenter from a village some nine miles off he had aided to raise the building and directed the construction by his own taste The result was satisfactory to him and what was more in his eyes was satisfactory to the two whom he loved best at least it seemed satisfactory to them although those who knew them even not so well as he did might have doubted and yet loved them all the better The door of the house was open and custom admitted every visitor freely whatever was his errand It was a strange state of society that in which men though taught by daily experience that precaution was necessary took none They held themselves occasionally ready to repel open assault which was rare and neglected every safeguard against insidious attack which was much more common It was the custom of the few who visited that secluded spot to enter without ceremony and to search in any or every room in the house for some one of the inhabitants But on this occasion the horse that came up the road stopped at the gate of the little fence and the traveler whoever he was when he reached the door after dismounting knocked with his whip before he entered The master of the house rose and went to the door He was somewhat impatient of ceremony but the aspect and demeanor of his visitor were not of a kind to nourish any angry feeling He was a young and very handsome man probably not more than thirty years of age sinewy and well formed in person with a noble and commanding countenance a broad high brow and a keen but tranquil eye His manner was courteous but grave and he said without waiting to have his errand asked I know not sir whether I shall intrude upon you too far in asking hospitality for the night but the sun is going down and I was told by a lad whom I met in the woods just now that there is no other house for ten miles farther and to say the truth I am very ignorant of the way The Black Eagle George
