Panic and Mourning Daniela Agostinho, Elisa Antz, Cátia Ferreira, 2012-10-30 Panic and mourning are two pivotal constructs that often emerge and interplay under circumstances of conflict violence crisis and catastrophe both natural and man made Whereas panic tends to crop up during the experience of violent events mourning on the other hand relates to the aftermath of a brutal disruption and to the way humans try to make sense of it retrospectively Conversely violent events can leave a thread of panic in their aftermath while mourning can be unsettled interrupted or even refuelled by another catastrophic incident From an international and inter disciplinary outlook this volume wishes to address questions at the interface of panic and mourning and their impact on practices in literature media and the arts Since violent events take place within cultures that will draw from their traditions memories and systems of beliefs in order to process them the authors of this book aim precisely at discussing the effects of calamity upon the cultural structure and the way literary artistic and media practices not only reproduce individual and collective anxieties but also generate knowledge and reshape the cultural formation within which they emerge British Mysteries - Boxed Set

 Friendship shows how love between men has a rich and varied history in English literature The friend could offer a reflection of one s own worth and a celebration of a kind of mutuality that was not connected to family or home These same sex friendships are memorable because they give shape to the novels of which they are a part and question the assumption that the love between friends is different from the love between lovers Queer Friendship explores English literary friendship in
