Lost New Testament:

Lost Scriptures Bart D. Ehrman, 2003-10-02 While most people think that the twenty seven books of the New Testament are the only sacred writings of the early Christians this is not at all the case A companion volume to Bart Ehrman's Lost Christianities this book offers an anthology of up to date and readable translations of many non canonical writings from the first centuries after Christ texts that have been for the most part lost or neglected for almost two millennia Here is an array of remarkably varied writings from early Christian groups whose visions of Jesus differ dramatically from our contemporary understanding Readers will find Gospels supposedly authored by the apostle Philip James the brother of Jesus Mary Magdalen and others There are Acts originally ascribed to John and to Thecla Paul's female companion there are Epistles allegedly written by Paul to the Roman philosopher Seneca And there is an apocalypse by Simon Peter that offers a guided tour of the afterlife both the glorious ecstasies of the saints and the horrendous torments of the damned and an Epistle by Titus a companion of Paul which argues page after page against sexual love even within marriage on the grounds that physical intimacy leads to damnation In all the anthology includes fifteen Gospels five non canonical Acts of the Apostles thirteen Epistles a number of Apocalypses and Secret Books and several Canon lists Ehrman has included a general introduction plus brief introductions to each piece This important anthology gives readers a vivid picture of the range of beliefs that battled each other in the first centuries of the Christian era

The Making of the New Testament Arthur G. Patzia, 2025-11-04 The story of the making of the New Testament is one in which scrolls bumped across cobbled Roman roads and pitched through rolling Mediterranean seas finally finding their destinations in stuffy dimly lit Christian house churches in Corinth or Colossae There they were read aloud and reread handled and copied forwarded and collected studied and treasured And eventually they were brought together to make up our New Testament This revised and expanded edition of The Making of the New Testament is a textbook introduction to the origin collection copying and canonizing of the New Testament documents Like shrewd detectives reading subtle whispers of evidence biblical scholars have studied the trail of clues and pieced together the story of these books Arthur Patzia tells the story answering our many questions How were books and documents produced in the first century What motivated the early Christians to commit teaching and narrative and vision to papyrus How were the stories and sayings of Jesus circulated handed down and shaped into Gospels What do we know about ancient letter writing secretaries and copy shops Why were four Gospels included instead of just one How were Paul s letters sent here and there gathered into a single collection Who decided and by what criteria which documents would be included in the New Testament Explore these questions and more about these Scriptures whose everyday gritty story rings true to their extraordinary message the palpable mystery of the Word made flesh
