Lost Faces:

The Lost Faces Roderick Jellema, 1979 Saving Face Stephen Pattison, 2016-04-01 Faces are all around us and fundamentally shape both everyday experience and our understanding of people To lose face is to be alienated and experience shame to be enfaced is to enjoy the fullness of life In theology as in many other disciplines faces as both physical phenomena and symbols have not received the critical appreciative attention they deserve This pioneering book explores the nature of face and enfacement both human and divine Pattison discusses questions concerning what face is how important face is in human life and relationships and how we might understand face both as a physical phenomenon and as a series of socially inflected symbols and metaphors about the self and the body Examining what face means in terms of inclusion and exclusion in contemporary human society and how it is related to shame Pattison reveals what the experience of people who have difficulties with faces tell us about our society our understandings of and our reactions to face Exploring this ubiquitous yet ignored area of both contemporary human experience and of the Christian theological tradition Pattison explains how Christian theology understands face both human and divine and the insights might it offer to understanding face and enfacement Does God in any sense have a physically visible face What is the significance of having an enfaced or faceless God for Christian life and practice What does the vision of God mean now If we want to take face and defacing shame seriously and to get them properly into perspective we may need to change our theology thought and practice changing our ways of thinking about God and about theology

The Cassandra Complex Lawrence Murray,2003 Here After Sean Costello,2014-11-28 Following the death of his ten year old son physician Peter Croft embarks on a desperate seemingly random search for a missing child risking his sanity even his life in a grief induced quest His journey propels him into the darkest reaches of human suffering and pits him squarely against an adversary whose own obsession defies all reason Here After is a story of love loss obsession and redemption with gripping action sequences and a subtle paranormal underpinning A compelling read from a seasoned storyteller Costello s sixth novel will keep you reading deep into the night Here After has been optioned to film by David Hackl director of Saw V Feasting the Heart Reynolds Price,2001-11-07 Ranging from his experiences as a writer to topics of faith and racial intolerance Reynolds Price s stories from National Public Radio s All Things Considered showcase the author s consistent talent for lyrical prose and insightful observations and all those stories are now compiled here in The Feasting Heart In the fall of 1993 Alice Winkler of National Public Radio s Morning Edition asked Reynolds Price to write a short story for a Christmas morning broadcast This assignment would result in NPR s inviting Price to join its varied group of commentators on All Things Considered The laws of radio require a concision that became a welcome new discipline for Price these are all the personal essays which he has broadcast since July 25 1995 Whether recounting events from his past examining the details of his current experience as a writer teacher traveler and general witness of the world Price demonstrates in his direct prose that a writer can instantly connect with his audience He discusses a few predictable topics family the poisonous mysteries of racial intolerance and faith but he also deals with new matters capital punishment Gone With the Wind his adventures while navigating an immensely inaccessible America in a wheelchair and he provides a memorable piece on childlessness Throughout Price never loses sight of the origin of either the word or the spirit of the essay the French word connotes a try an attempt and each piece here is a well formed revealing often amusing and refreshing foray into a moment unlike any we ve encountered in other forms from him We re unlikely to read more thought provoking work from a commentator for a great time to come Immersed in Verse Allan Wolf,2009 Contains advice ideas writing activities and encouragement from a working poet for aspiring poets Includes poems by a variety of poets from the unknown to the famous including Langston Hughes e e cummings Eve Merriam and more The Restoration of the Nativity Church in Bethlehem Claudio Alessandri,2020-01-17 This book is a summary of the main restoration works carried out at the Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem that commenced in September 2013 Work on roof wooden structures wall and floor mosaics internal plasters wooden architraves and painted columns of the naves external wall surfaces and Narthex is all presented in a sequence of reports that accompany the reader up to the final interventions through accurate descriptions of historical and archaeological features initial state of conservation and appropriate techniques of conservation and restoration

Topics are treated with the methodological and linguistic rigor specific to each disciplinary sector involved even if in the interest of making reading and comprehension easier it was sometimes preferred to present only significant case studies which are nevertheless representative of groups of wider and more complex problems Through the reading of this work the reader can simply fulfil his desire for knowledge and obtain answers to certain curiosities about the past history of the Church At the same time useful guidelines in dealing with conservation and restoration interventions at historic architectural sites of similar complexity can be found The book is therefore addressed to a generic reader interested in the history and conservation of one of the most representative examples of our heritage but also in light of its technical and scientific value to university students technicians restorers architects structural engineers archaeologists and historians One Bible,

Emerging Iconographies of Medieval Rome Annie Montgomery Labatt,2019-10-23 Emerging Iconographies of Medieval Rome examines the development of Christian iconographies that had not yet established themselves as canonical images but which were being tried out in various ways in early Christian Rome This book focuses on four different iconographical forms that appeared in Rome during the eighth and ninth centuries the Anastasis the Transfiguration the Maria Regina and the Sickness of Hezekiah all of which were labeled Byzantine by major mid twentieth century scholars The trend has been to readily accede to the pronouncements of those prominent authors subjugating these rich images to a grand narrative that privileges the East and turns Rome into an artistic backwater In this study Annie Montgomery Labatt reacts against traditional scholarship which presents Rome as merely an adjunct of the East It studies medieval images with formal and stylistic analyses in combination with use of the writings of the patristics and early medieval thinkers The experimentation and innovation in the Christian iconographies of Rome in the eighth and ninth centuries provides an affirmation of the artistic vibrancy of Rome in the period before a divided East and West Labatt revisits and revives a lost and forgotten Rome not as a peripheral adjunct of the East but as a center of creativity and artistic innovation Lady Jane

Grey Eric Ives,2011-09-19 Lady Jane Grey is one of the most elusive and tragic characters in English history In July 1553 the death of the childless Edward VI threw the Tudor dynasty into crisis On Edward s instructions his cousin Jane Grey was proclaimed queen only to be ousted 13 days later by his illegitimate half sister Mary and later beheaded In this radical reassessment Eric Ives rejects traditional portraits of Jane both as hapless victim of political intrigue or Protestant martyr Instead he presents her as an accomplished young woman with a fierce personal integrity The result is a compelling dissection by a master historian and storyteller of one of history s most shocking injustices Monumental Names Galina Oustinova-Stjepanovic,2022-12-30 What stands behind the propensity to remember victims of mass atrocities by their personal names Grounded in ethnographic and archival research with Last Address and Memorial one of the oldest independent archives of Soviet political repressions in Moscow and a winner of the Nobel Peace Prize the book examines a version of archival activism that is centred on various practices of documentation and commemoration of many dead victims of historical violence in Russia to understand what kind of historicity is produced when a single name is added to an endless list What do acts of accumulation of names of the dead affirm when they are concretised in monuments and performance events The key premise is that multimodal inscriptions of names of the dead entail a political aesthetic and conceptual movement between singularity and multitude that honours each dead name yet conveys the scale of a mass atrocity without reducing it to a number Drawing on anthropology history philosophy and aesthetic theory the book yields a new perspective on the politics of archival and historical justice while it critically engages with the debates on relations and distinctions between names and numbers of the dead monumental art and its political effects law and history image and text the specific one and the infinite many Lippincott's Magazine of Popular Literature and Science ,1878
