Love's Oneing Kerrie Hide,2022-11-08 Grounded in Christian love mysticism Love s Oneing gives voice to the luminous consciousness that awakens from within our oneness in God in contemplation With great sensitivity the book offers nuanced insight into the marriage of kenosis and desire in contemplation through the rich tapestry of writings from nine mystics Julian of Norwich the Cloud of Unknowing author Meister Eckhart Mechthild of Magdeburg Clare of Assisi John of the Cross Teilhard de Chardin Beatrice Bruteau and Ilia Delio With the delicate eye of a spiritual director immersed in mystical literature Kerrie Hide situates these mystical teachings within contemplative prayer whilst offering a scholarly exploration of contemplative practice to embody the insights Deeply grounded in traditional and contemporary mystical classics Hide celebrates how the Christian mystical tradition lays a foundation for the evolutionary growth of communion consciousness and the insights of quantum science highlighting key moments in contemplation that when surrendered into open into divine love Born of intellectual reflection lived experience and contemplative wisdom Love s Oneing makes a unique contribution to the existing literature on contemplation at a time when the recovery of the mystical dimension of life is crucial for the future of our planet in this climate crisis moment Love in Contemporary British Drama

Korbinian Stöckl,2021-01-18 Despite the recent turn to affects and emotions in the humanities and despite the unceasing popularity of romantic and erotic love as a motif in fictional works of all genres the subject has received surprisingly little attention in academic studies of contemporary drama Love in Contemporary British Drama reflects the appeal of love as a topic and driving force in dramatic works with in depth analyses of eight pivotal plays from the past three decades Following an interdisciplinary and historical approach the study collects and condenses theories of love from philosophy and sociology to derive persisting discourses and to examine their reoccurrence and transformation in contemporary plays Special emphasis is put on narratives of love s compensatory function and precariousness and on how modifications of these narratives epitomise the peculiarities of emotional life in the social and cultural context of the present Based on the assumption that drama is especially inclined to draw on shared narratives for representations of love the book demonstrates that love is both a window to remnants of the past in the present and a proper subject matter for drama in times in which the suitability of the dramatic form has been questioned Partners in Covenant Barbara A. Sheehan,2010-02-01 Partners in

Covenant is a guide for the personal formation and spiritual growth of those who seek to become more effective spiritual companions Filled with concrete experiential examples and reflection tools Barbara Sheehan's resource provides a practical way for individuals or groups to enter into a peer program Her sensitivity to a wide variety of cultures and spiritual expressions enhances the book's ability to revitalize the spiritual caring ministry of Christian communities The Immutability of God in the Theology of Hans Urs Von Balthasar Gerard F. O'Hanlon, 2007-11-19 This study shows how the trinitarian theology of Hans Urs von Balthasar opens up an approach to the controverted question of God's immutability and impassibility which succeeds in respecting both the transcendence and the immanence of God Contrary to both Process thought and the classical Thomist position von Balthasar's scattered treatment is here presented thematically in a way which makes it clear that his idea of an analogous event in the trinitarian God in which we participate is a radical reinterpretation of the traditional Christian axiom of divine immutability In the course of outlining the distinctiveness of von Balthasar's approach O'Hanlon introduces the reader to some of the fundamental themes of one of the major Roman Catholic theologians of this century who is still relatively unknown in the English speaking world Love's Enlightenment Ryan Patrick

Hanley, 2017-03-30 This book examines the transformation of the traditional understanding of love by four key Enlightenment thinkers Hume Adam Smith Rousseau and Kant In His Hands Esther Rivera, 2024-08-14 In His Hands Trusting Our Father For Our Children beckons parents into a transformative journey of prayer and trust Through 31 heartfelt devotions readers discover the profound impact of faith-filled prayers on parenting Crafted to inspire amidst joys and trials each reflection fosters a deeper connection with God empowering parents to release anxieties cultivate unwavering trust and invite divine wisdom into their journey As readers immerse themselves they witness the beauty of a faith growing stronger through prayer finding solace in entrusting their children to God's loving care Parents can experience self-awareness spiritual growth clarity and guidance through wisdom and insight In addition emotional healing gratitude and perspective of recognizing the goodness in their lives and relationship building This devotional transcends mere guidance becoming a transformative tool that empowers parents to embrace the spiritual dimensions of raising children It fosters a bond that withstands life's trials offering hope for the return of prodigal children to both our Heavenly Father first then into the arms of their loving parents Joining a community of believers readers embark on a journey to deepen their trust in God's plan for their children Their role as parents becomes a sacred calling as they learn to rely on the One who holds the universe and their precious children in His unwavering embrace Dive into this devotional journey and embrace the transformative power of prayer in parenting

Feeling Film: Affect and Authenticity in Popular Cinema Greg Singh, 2014-01-21 Cinema has the capacity to enflame our passions to arouse our pity to inspire our love Feeling Film is a book that examines the emotional encounters found in contemporary popular cinema cultures Examining melodrama film noir comic book franchises cult indie movies and romantic comedy within the context of a Jungian informed psychology and contemporary movements in film philosophy this book considers the various kinds of feelings engendered by our everyday engagements with cinema Greg Singh questions the popular idea of what cinema is and considers what happens during the anticipation and act of watching a movie through to the act of sharing our feelings about them the reviewing process and repeat viewing practices Feeling Film does this through a critique of purely textual approaches instead offering a model which emphasises lived warm embodied and inhabited psychological relationships between the viewer and the viewed It extends the narrative action of cinema beyond the duration of the screening into realms of anticipation and afterlife in particular providing insight into the tertiary and participatory practices afforded through rich media engagement In rethinking the everyday co productive relationship between viewer and viewed from this perspective Feeling Film reinstates the importance of feelings as a central concern for film theory What emerges from this study is a re engagement of the place of emotion affect and feeling in film theory and criticism In reconsidering the duration of the cinematic encounter Feeling Film makes a significant contribution to the understanding of the inter subjective relationship between viewer and viewed It takes post Jungian criticism into the realms of post cinema technologies and reignites the dialogue between depth psychology and the study of images as they appear to and for us This book will make essential reading for those interested in the relationship between film and aspects of depth psychology film and philosophy students at advanced undergraduate and postgraduate levels film and cinema academics and cinephiles

The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas Carlos Rojas,Eileen Chow,2013-03-13 What does it mean for a cinematic work to be Chinese Does it refer specifically to a work s subject or does it also reflect considerations of language ethnicity nationality ideology or political orientation Such questions make any single approach to a vast field like Chinese cinema difficult at best Accordingly The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas situates the term more broadly among various different phases genres and distinct national configurations while taking care to address the consequences of grouping together so many disparate histories under a single banner Offering both a platform for cross disciplinary dialogue and a mapping of Chinese cinema as an expanded field this Handbook presents thirty three essays by leading researchers and scholars intent on yielding new insights and new analyses using three different methodologies Chapters in Part I investigate the historical periodizations of the field through changing notions of national and political identity all the way from the industry s beginnings in the 1920s up to its current forms in contemporary Hong Kong Taiwan and the global diaspora Chapters in Part II feature studies centered on the field s taxonomical formalities including such topics as the role of the Chinese opera in technological innovation the political logic of the Maoist film and the psychoanalytic formula of the kung fu action film Finally in Part III focus is given to the structural elements that comprise a work s production distribution and reception to reveal the broader cinematic apparatuses within which these works are positioned Taken together the multipronged approach supports a wider platform beyond the geopolitical and linguistic limitations in existing scholarship Expertly edited to illustrate a representative set of up to date topics and approaches The Oxford Handbook of Chinese

Cinemas provides a vital addition to a burgeoning field still in its formative stages Christ Consciousness raymond wells,2024-08-08 The Spirit of God which is Infinite Love will enter into you and Give you Christ Consciousness You are Baptized with The Holy Spirit The Divine Love is within you and You are forever ONE with God in Spirit and In Truth You become aware of your Oneness with God LOVE Anatomies of the Gospels and Beyond ,2019-01-28 Anatomies of the Gospels and Beyond is an edited volume structured around essays that focus on one of the four canonical Gospels and Acts and or theoretical issues involved in literary readings of New Testament narrative The volume is intended to honor the legacy of R Alan Culpepper Emeritus Professor and Former Dean at Mercer University s McAfee School of Theology The title of the volume which alludes to the title of Culpepper s ground breaking monograph Anatomy of the Fourth Gospel and the breadth of the essays are apt reflections of his research interests over his academic career of over forty years The twenty five contributors are internationally recognized experts in New Testament studies thus the essays represent a snapshot of current research With Christ Today in Paradise Kenneth L. Thrasher,2010-01-01 Focusing on the ontological indwelling of God as the basis and ground of the soul the author expounds its capacity for spiritual experience which he describes metaphorically as being with Christ in paradise Aspects of mystical experience are briefly discussed an extended description of the author s own experience is presented and practical suggestions are offered to the reader for his or her own spiritual enrichment Studies in John's Epistles George Findlay,2024-06-23 Foreword by Cyril J Barber Findlay describes in practical terms how Christians can enter into and remain in the blessings of rest and fellowship Dogmatic Ecclesiology : Volume 1 Tom Greggs,2019-11-05 Ecclesiology is a key issue for the present age of church history This groundbreaking work by one of today s leading theologians offers a major Protestant ecclesiology for the church catholic This volume the first of three considers the priesthood of the church in light of the priesthood of Christ Tom Greggs shows the connection between Christ s work as high priest and the universal church s role in salvation All together the three volumes will offer a major statement on the doctrine of the church for Christians from a variety of backgrounds Women in Eighteenth-Century Scotland Deborah Simonton,2016-12-05 The eighteenth century looms large in the Scottish imagination It is a century that saw the doubling of the population rapid urbanisation industrial growth the political Union of 1707 the Jacobite Rebellions and the Enlightenment events that were intrinsic to the creation of the modern nation and to putting Scotland on the international map The impact of the era on modern Scotland can be seen in the numerous buildings named after the luminaries of the period Adam Smith David Hume William Robertson the endorsement of Robert Burns as the national poet hero the preservation of the Culloden battlefield as a tourist attraction and the physical geographies of its major towns Yet while it is a century that remains central to modern constructions of national identity it is a period associated with men Until recently the history of women in eighteenth century Scotland with perhaps the honourable exception of Flora McDonald remained unwritten Over the last decade however research on women and gender in Scotland has flourished and we have an increasingly full picture of women's lives at all social levels across the century. As a result, this is an appropriate moment to reflect on what we know about Scottish women during the eighteenth century, to ask how their history affects the traditional narratives of the period, and to reflect on the implications for a national history of Scotland and Scottish identity. Divided into three sections covering women's intimate, intellectual, and public lives, this interdisciplinary volume offers articles on women's work, criminal activity, clothing, family, education, writing, travel, and more. Applying tools from history, art, anthropology, cultural studies, and English literature, it draws on a wide range of sources, from the written to the visual, to highlight the diversity of women's experiences and to challenge current male-centric historiographies.
