Low City High City:

Low City, High City Edward Seidensticker, 1983 Sacred High City, Sacred Low City Steven Heine, 2012 The author argues that lived religion in Japan functions as an integral part of daily life any apparent lack of interest masks a fundamental commitment to participating regularly in diverse though diffused religious practices The book uses case studies of religious sites at two representative but contrasting Tokyo neighborhoods as a basis for reflecting on this apparently contradictory quality Low City, High City Edward Seidensticker, 1970-12-12 City Tourism Robert Maitland, Brent W. Ritchie, 2009 Capital city status attracts and drives tourism by enhancing a city's appeal to the tourist and its international standing With a focus on city tourism themes this book examines subjects including the identity of a city in a tourism context and practical matters such as promoting the city as a product By examining tourist activities in national capitals the book addresses issues in capital city development as tourist destinations with a broad international approach and case studies on major tourist cities The Japanese City Pradyumna P. Karan, Kristin Stapleton, 2014-10-17 Japan is one of the most crowded countries on earth with three fourths of its population now living in cities Tokyo is easily the most populous city on the planet And yet though closely packed its citizens dwell together in relative peace In America inner city violence often attributed in part to overcrowding is frequently emphasized as one of the great social problems of the day What might we learn from Japan's situation that could be applied to our own as we approach the twenty first century In this collection an interdisciplinary group of international scholars seek to understand and explain the process and characteristics shaping the modern Japanese city With frequent comparisons to the American city they consider such topics as urban landscapes the quality of life in the suburbs spatial mixing of social classes in the city land use planning and control environmental pollution and images of the city in Japanese literature The only book on the subject The Japanese City surveys the important literature and highlights the current issues in urban studies The numerous photographs maps tables and graphs combined with the high quality of the contributions offer a comprehensive look at the contemporary Japanese city Contributors William Burton David L. Callies Roman Cybriwsky Kuniko Fujita Theodore J. Gilman Richard Child Hill P. P. Karan Robert Kidder Cotton Mather and Kohei Okamoto The City as Subject Jeffrey E. Hanes, 2002-05-10 After three years of advanced study in Europe at the turn of the twentieth century during which he engaged Marxism and later steeped himself in the exciting new field of social economics Seki was transformed into a progressive BOOK JACKET Remaking the Chinese City Joseph W. Esherick, 2001-10-31 In China today skyscrapers tower over ancient temples freeways deliver lines of cars and tour buses to imperial palaces cinema houses compete with old theaters featuring Peking Opera The disparity evidenced in the contemporary Chinese cityscape can be traced to the early decades of the twentieth century when government elites sought to transform cities into a new world that would be at once modern and distinctly Chinese Remaking the Chinese City aims to capture the full diversity of recent Chinese urbanism by examining the modernist transformations of China's cities in the first half of the twentieth century Collecting in one place some of the most interesting and exciting new work on Chinese urban history this volume presents thirteen essays discussing ten Chinese cities the commercial and industrial center of Shanghai the old capital Beijing the southern coastal city of Canton the interior's Chengdu the tourist city of Hangzhou the utopian New Capital built in Manchuria during the Japanese occupation the treaty port of Tianjin the Nationalists capital in Nanjing and temporary wartime capitals of Wuhan and Chongqing Unlike past treatments of early twentieth century China which characterize the period as one of failure and decay the contributors to this volume describe an exciting world in constant and fundamental change During this time the Chinese city was remade to accommodate parks and police paved roads and public spaces Rickshaws trolleys and buses allowed the growth of new downtowns Department stores theaters newspapers and modern advertising nourished a new urban identity Sanitary regulations and traffic laws were enforced and modern media and transport permitted unprecedented freedoms Yet despite their fondness for things Western and modern early urban planners envisioned cities that would lead the Chinese nation and preserve Chinese tradition The very desire for modernity led to the construction of a visible and accessible national past and the imagining of a distinctive national future In their investigation of the national capitals of the period the essays show how cities were reshaped to represent and serve the nation To promote tourism traditions were invented and recycled for the pleasure and edification of new middle class and foreign consumers of culture Abundantly illustrated with maps and photographs Remaking the Chinese City presents the best and most current scholarship on modern Chinese cities Its thoroughness and detailed scholarship will appeal to the specialist while its clarity and scope will engage the general reader Contributors Michael Tsin on Canton Ruth Rogaski and Brett Sheehan on Tianjin David Buck on Changchun Kristin Stapleton on Chengdu Liping Wang on Hangzhou Madeleine Dong on Beijing Charles Musgrove on Nanjing Stephen MacKinnon on Wuhan Lee MacIsaac on Chongqing and Jeffrey Wasserstrom and David Strand with concluding essays
