Cuadernos fiscales no. 6. Administración tributaria: reflexiones para Colombia desde el derecho comparado 9789587728552,2018-02-21 La multiplicidad de funciones que se le encomiendan al Estado moderno por la constitucional implican desde el ideal del Estado social de derecho grandes desafíos financieros para la Hacienda Pública De manera que es el Sistema Tributario el principal responsable de generar los ingresos requeridos para la financiación de los servicios públicos y en general de la actividad estatal Desde esta perspectiva es claro que la escasez de recursos necesitadamente se supera en la medida en que la Autoridad de Impuestos logre hacer efectivas las obligaciones tributarias que recaen sobre los contribuyentes y demás sujetos pasivos del Sistema Luego no es extraño que la doctrina fiscal haya acuñado la expresión un Sistema Tributario vale lo que valga la Administración Tributaria encargada de aplicarlo El éxito de una Administración Tributaria en su tarea de asegurar los ingresos públicos y proteger la base impositiva es de suma importancia pues el Sistema Tributario de un país es fundamental para el sostén de la calidad de vida de sus ciudadanos mediante el financiamiento de programas y servicios públicos y la redistribución del ingreso Esto es particularmente cierto en los tiempos corrientes en que la volatilidad económica ha debilitado los ingresos públicos y se espera que produzca una disminución en el cumplimiento del contribuyente Las administraciones tributarias de todo el mundo ahora reconocen la necesidad de concentrarse en maximizar el cumplimiento en condiciones difíciles

MacPherson 2011 La concepción universal de las funciones asignadas a la Autoridad de Impuestos reduce la aplicación de las mismas en el sentido de que su tarea principal es entendida como la aplicación del Sistema Tributario como un todo normativo en donde en la perspectiva de la norma se considera y se reglamenta desde el nacimiento de la obligación tributaria sustancial y formal hasta su respectiva extinción
