Département des manuscrits, 1912 Catalogue des manuscrits persans Bibliothèque nationale (France). Département des manuscrits, 1905 The Hammered Dulcimer Paul M. Gifford, 2001-06-13 The last quarter of the twentieth century saw a renewed interest in the hammered dulcimer in the United States at the grassroots level as well as from elements of the Folk Revival This book offers the reader a discussion of the medieval origins of the dulcimer and its subsequent spread under many different names to other parts of the world Drawing on articles the author has written in English as well as articles by specialists in their own languages Gifford explains the history and evolution of the instrument Special attention is paid to the North American tradition from the early 18th century to the 1970s revival Drawing from local histories news clippings photographs and interviews the book examines the playing of the dulcimer and its associated social meanings

Music Theory in the Safavid Era Owen Wright,2018-10-25 The Safavid era 1501 1722 is one of the most important in the history of Persian culture celebrated especially for its architecture and art including miniature paintings that frequently represent singers and instrumentalists Their presence reflects a sophisticated tradition of music making that was an integral part of court life yet it is one that remains little known for the musicological literature of the period is rather thin There is however a significant exception the text presented and analysed here a hitherto unpublished and anonymous theoretical work probably of the middle of the sixteenth century With a Sufi background inspiring the use of the nay as a tool of theoretical demonstration it is exceptional in presenting descriptive accounts of the modes then in use and suggesting how these might be arranged in complex sequences As it also gives an account of the corpus of rhythmic cycles it provides a unique insight into the basic structures of art music during the first century of Safavid rule Music of a Thousand Years Ann E. Lucas,2019-10-22 A free open access ebook is available upon publication Learn more at www.luminosoa.org Iran's particular system of traditional Persian art music has been long treated as the product of an ever evolving ancient Persian culture In Music of a Thousand Years Ann E Lucas argues that this music is a modern phenomenon indelibly tied to changing notions of Iran's national history Rather than considering a single Persian music history Lucas demonstrates cultural dissimilarity and discontinuity over time bringing to light two different notions of music making in relation to premodern and modern musical norms An important corrective to the history of Persian music Music of a Thousand Years is the first work to align understandings of Middle Eastern music history with current understandings of the region's political history

Music Theory in Ethnomusicology Stephen Blum,2023-04-28 Music Theory in Ethnomusicology outlines a conception of music theory suited to cross cultural research on musical practices assessing the extent to which musical terminologies of diverse languages can be interpreted in relation to general concepts without imposing the assumptions and biases of one body of existing theory Repertoire International des Sources Musicales, RISM Mohammed Taghi Massoudieh,Société Internationale de Musicologie et l'Association Internationale des Bibliothèques Musicales,1996

Touraj Kiaras and Persian Classical Music: An Analytical Perspective Owen Wright,2017-07-05 In this book Owen Wright analyses a single recording of classical Persian music made by Touraj Kiaras a distinguished singer accompanied by four noted instrumentalists The format of the recording is typical of a public concert performance and thus includes instrumental compositions as well as a central exploration of vocal repertoire and technique The analysis identifies salient structural features whether of the individual components or of the whole in a way accessible to the western reader but it also takes account of the analytical metalanguage used in Persian scholarship and includes consideration of the relationship between music and poetry It is important to note that it is also guided by the perceptions of the performer whose input and responses to questions have significantly influenced the enterprise To avoid the dryly impersonal the analysis is also framed by an introduction which combines a biographical sketch of Touraj Kiaras with a survey of the twentieth century evolution of Persian classical music and of the position of the vocal repertoire within it and by an epilogue which examines further the ideological basis of prevalent attitudes to music and seeks to explore the validity of the analytical enterprise within this context
