1. "I really care about you, and I'm grateful for your feelings. However, I don't feel the same way."
2. "I'm really flattered by your words, but I'm not there emotionally. I hope you understand."
3. "I'm really thankful for you and everything we've shared, but I don't feel the same way romantically."
4. "You mean a lot to me, but I can't say I love you the same way. I hope we can still maintain a strong bond."
5. "It's really hard to hear this because I care about you, but I don't feel the same. I don't want to hurt you."
6. "I'm honored by your feelings, but I think we're in different places emotionally. I can't return your love."
7. "I'm really glad we're friends, and I hope that doesn't change, but I don't feel the same way about you."
8. "I truly appreciate your honesty and the love you're giving, but I don't share those feelings."
9. "I think you're amazing, and I really value what we have, but I don't feel the same way romantically."
10. "It's hard for me to say this, but I don't have romantic feelings for you. I still hope we can be friends."
11. "I think you're a great person, but I'm not in love with you. I hope we can remain close and continue to share good times."
12. "I love you in a way that's different from what you're feeling, and I hope that doesn't cause any distance between us."
13. "I respect and admire you deeply, but I don't feel the same way romantically. I hope we can navigate this with mutual understanding."
14. "Your feelings mean a lot to me, and I truly value you as a person, but I can't reciprocate those emotions in the same way."
15. "It's not easy to say this, but my feelings don't align with yours romantically. I hope we can continue to support and respect each other."

Response to Disaster Henry W. Fischer III, 2008-08-21 Response to Disaster combines the original research of author Henry W Fischer with the literature used today to describe behavioral and organizational challenges commonly experienced before during and after disasters Actual problems are presented and compared to those often misperceived to occur know as disaster mythology Fisher examines case studies conducted during the post impact and long term recovery periods of major and minor disasters worldwide He asserts that the role of the mass media assists in eliciting needed help with an effective response but also perpetuates disaster mythology Fisher presents striking comparisons between the perception of disaster in the eyes of the general public the actual situations emergency responders face and the way mass media reporters broadcast information Additionally the problems encountered by emergency response organizations are compared and contrasted with general public and media perceptions of disaster response Fisher presents the response to September 11 2001 the south Asian tsunami and hurricane Katrina in this comprehensive third edition
