Sound Work Jonathan Impett,2021-12-15 The practices and perception of music creation have evolved with the cultural social and technological contexts of music and musicians But musical authorship in its many technical and aesthetic modes remains an important component of music culture Musicians are increasingly called on to share their experience in writing However cultural imperatives to account for composition as knowledge production and to make claims for its uniqueness inhibit the development of discourse in both expert and public spheres Internet pioneer Philip Agre observed a discourse deficit in artificial intelligence research and proposed a critical technical practice a single disciplinary field with one foot planted in the craft work of design and the other foot planted in the reflexive work of critique A critical technical practice rethinks its own premises re evaluates its own methods and reconsiders its own concepts as a routine part of its daily work This volume considers the potential for critical technical practice in the evolving situation of composition across a wide range of current practices In seeking to tell more honest useful stories of composition it hopes to contribute to a new discourse around the creation of music

Why Fear Death? Curtis W. Coleman, 2017-02-28 How can I overcome the fear of death How can I stop being afraid of dying What happens when I die Where do I go when I die Can we know what will happen to us when we die In Why Fear Death author Curtis Coleman answers yes Leveraging his college and seminary training in the original biblical languages and his experience building a successful international biotechnology company Coleman masterfully weaves the Bible modern science and popular culture into a tour de force that demystifies death and argues that the fear of dying can be defeated by knowing what many have argued is unknowable. For most people the thing they most treasure is staying alive on earth. As a result they live their entire lives in bondage to fear of physical death. Coleman argues compellingly that we can confidently know what happens when we die and we can know where we will go when we die. We can choose to have the information that can eliminate the fear of death. Star Origins and Wisdom of Animals Jacquelin Smith, 2010-09.
