Ballantyne, Antoinette M. Burton, 2009 Investigating how intimacy is constructed across the restless world of empire Te Manu Aute New Zealand. Department of Education, 1983 Te Manu Aute the paper kite is a selective resources list of studies of aspects of Maori history and culture Dancing with Difference Linda Ashley, 2012-12-09 As the global vicissitudes of migration unfold so does ethnic difference in the classroom and this book offers a timely examination of teaching about culturally different dances At a time when the world of dance is on the one hand seemingly becoming more like fusion cookery there is another faction promoting isolation and preservation of tradition How if at all may these two worlds co exist in dance education Understanding teaching about culturally different dances from postmodern postcolonial pluralist and critical perspectives creates an urgent demand to develop relevant pedagogy in dance education What is required to support dance educators into the next phase of dance education so as to avoid teaching from within a Eurocentric creative dance model alone An ethnographic investigation with teachers in New Zealand lays a foundation for the examination of issues challenges and opportunities associated with teaching about culturally different dances Concerns and issues surrounding notions of tradition innovation appropriation interculturalism social justice and critical pedagogy emerge Engaging with both practice and theory is a priority in this book and a nexus model in which the theoretical fields of critical cultural theory semiotics ethnography and anthropology can be activated as teachers teach is proposed as informing approaches to teaching about culturally different dances Even though some practical suggestions for teaching are presented the main concern is to motivate further thinking and research into teaching about dancing with cultural difference Cover photo Photo credit lester de Vere photography ltd Dancing with Difference 2009 Directed and co choreographed for AUT University Bachelor of Dance by Linda Ashley with Jonelle Kawana Yoon jee Lee Keneti Muaiava Aya Nakamura Siauala Nili Valance Smith Sakura Stirling and dancers Won first prize in the 2009 Viva Eclectika Aotearoa s Intercultural Dance and Music Biennial Challenge run by NZ Asia Association Inc NZ and the NZ Diversity Action Programme Glamour in the Pacific Fiona Paisley, 2009-07-08 Since its inception in 1928 the Pan Pacific Women s Association PPWA has witnessed and contributed to enormous changes in world and Pacific history Operating out of Honolulu this women s network established a series of conferences that promoted social reform and an internationalist outlook through cultural exchange For the many women attracted to the project from China Japan the Pacific Islands and the major settler colonies of the region the association s vision was enormously attractive despite the fact that as individuals and national representatives they remained deeply divided by colonial histories Glamour in the Pacific tells this multifaceted story by bringing together critical scholarship from across a wide range of fields including cultural history international relations and globalization gender and empire postcolonial studies population and world health studies world history and transnational history Early chapters consider the first PPWA conferences and the decolonizing process undergone by the association Following World War II a new generation of nonwhite women from decolonized and settler colonial nations began to claim leadership roles in the Association challenging the often Eurocentric assumptions of women's internationalism In 1955 the first African American delegate brought to the fore questions about the relationship of U S race relations with the Pan Pacific cultural internationalist project The effects of cold war geopolitics on the ideal of international cooperation in the era of decolonization were also considered The work concludes with a discussion of the revival of East meets West as a basis for world cooperation endorsed by the United Nations in 1958 and the overall contributions of the PPWA to world culture politics The internationalist vision of the early twentieth century imagined a world in which race and empire had been relegated to the past Significant numbers of women from around the Pacific brought this shared vision together with their concerns for peace social progress and cooperation to the lively even glamorous political experiment of the Pan Pacific Women's Association Fiona Paisley tells the stories of this extraordinary group of women and illuminates the challenges and rewards of their politics of antiracism one that still resonates today
