Mao's Last Dancer (Movie Tie-In) Li Cunxin, 2010-07-27 THE INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER The extraordinary memoir of a peasant boy raised in rural Maoist China who was plucked from his village to study ballet and went on to become one of the greatest dancers of his generation From a desperately poor village in northeast China at age eleven Li Cunxin was chosen by Madame Mao s cultural delegates to be taken from his rural home and brought to Beijing where he would study ballet In 1979 the young dancer arrived in Texas as part of a cultural exchange only to fall in love with America and with an American woman Two years later through a series of events worthy of the most exciting cloak and dagger fiction he defected to the United States where he quickly became known as one of the greatest ballet dancers in the world This is his story told in his own inimitable voice THE BASIS FOR A MAJOR MOTION PICTURE

Mao's Last Dancer (Movie Tie-In). Li Cunxin,2010 Mary's Last Dance Mary Li,2020-11-03 The highly anticipated memoir of Australian ballerina Mary Li and the long awaited sequel to her husband Li Cunxin's bestselling memoir Mao's Last Dancer Mary's Last Dance is a powerful and uplifting memoir about chasing an impossible dream and sacrificing one's own ambition for the love of a child It is a moving and unforgettable story of passion dedication and devotion and the highly anticipated sequel to one of the world's most beloved books Mary Li is an international ballet star and a mother like no other She became a household name when her husband Li Cunxin published his bestselling memoir Mao's Last Dancer but that book told only half the story Growing up in a rambunctious family in Rockhampton Mary discovered an extraordinary early passion for ballet It saw her move to London at age sixteen to study at the Royal Ballet School and dance at the London Festival Ballet with the likes of Nureyev and later to Houston Ballet where as Principal Dancer she fell in love with the acclaimed dancer Li Cunxin The couple became the darlings of the dance world and were happier than they could have imagined at the arrival of their firstborn daughter Sophie Then right at the height of her international career Mary seemingly disappeared from view What could have happened to cause a woman so committed so talented to give it all away in a heartbeat Now almost twenty years on we learn what happened next to this inspiring family and why it is Mary's turn to tell a truly remarkable tale Full of love and hope Mary's Last Dance is an honest and profound look into the enchanting life of Mary Li Facing everything with ambition and drive Mary writes about her life in beautiful detail from hardships to hope The essential companion to Mao's Last Dancer and an outstanding read BETTER READING WINNER Courier Mail People's Choice Queensland Book of the Year Award 2021 Global Genres, Local Films Elena Oliete-Aldea,2017-06-29 The acute processes of globalisation at the turn of the century have generated an increased interest in exploring the interactions between the so called global cultural products or trends and their specific local manifestations Even though cross cultural connections are becoming more patent in filmic productions in the last decades cinema per se has always been characterized by its hybrid transnational border crossing nature From its own inception Spanish film production was soon tied to the Hollywood film industry for its subsistence but other film traditions such as those in the Soviet Union France Germany and in particular Italy also determined either directly or indirectly the development of Spanish cinema Global Genres Local Films The Transnational Dimension of Spanish Cinema reaches beyond the limits of the film text and analyses and contextualizes the impact of global film trends and genres on Spanish cinema in order to study how they helped articulate specific national challenges from the conflict between liberalism and tradition in the first decades of the 20th century to the management of the contemporary financial crisis This collection provides the first comprehensive picture of the complex national and supranational forces that have shaped Spanish films revealing the tensions and the intricate dialogue between cross cultural aesthetic and narrative models on the one hand and indigenous traditions on the other as well as the political and historical contingencies these different expressions responded to Acting is Your Business Wendy S. Kurtzman, 2024-01-25 After training and studying for years you've earned a degree now what? How to get a job and have a career as an actor is the number one question facing emerging artists and one which this book answers for you. While performing arts schools do a great job of teaching how to act, most don't teach you how to launch and sustain a career. This book addresses this fundamental aspect of your creative journey, delivering a precise formula to help you organize the next chapter of your life. It helps you to find work and proactively build a career by providing the tools you'll need to connect with working professionals within the industry. If acting is your business, you must run it as a business. Positioning you as CEO of your own company, this book uses a boardroom table as a visual model. At that table are 7 key positions, each representing an area of action and expertise that you must understand to build a successful career. With worksheets and tools supplemented throughout with interviews with industry professionals from North America, the UK, and Europe and Australia, and further supported by a companion website, this action plan will empower and equip you to achieve your career goals. Transnational Australian Cinema Olivia Khoo, Belinda Smaill, Audrey Yue, 2013-03-08 To date, there has been little sustained attention given to the historical cinema relations between Australia and Asia. This is a significant omission given Australia's geopolitical position and the place Asia has held in the national imaginary, oscillating between threat and opportunity. Many accounts of Australian cinema begin with the 1970s film revival, placing Asian Australian cinema within a post-revival schema of multicultural or diasporic cinema and ignoring Asian Australian connections prior to the revival. Transnational Australian Cinema charts a history of Asian Australian cinema encompassing the work of diasporic Asian filmmakers, films featuring images of Asia and Asians, films produced by Australians working in Asia's film industries or addressed at Asian audiences, and Asian films that use Australian resources including locations and personnel. Utilizing an interdisciplinary approach, the book considers diasporic Asian histories, the impact of government immigration and film policies on representation, and the new aesthetic styles and production regimes created by filmmakers who have forged links both through roots and routes with Asia. This expanded history of Asian Australian cinema allows for a renewed discussion of so-called dormant periods in the nation's film history. In this respect, the mapping of an expanded history of cinema practices contributes to our broader aim to rethink the transnationalism of Australian cinema. 廖正兴, 2016-05-01 1788 2013 1989 Maos letzter Tänzer Li Cunxin, 2012-05-04 Maos letzter Tänzer ist die autobiografische Geschichte des jungen Chinesen Li Cunxin, der aus rmlischen Verhältnissen stammt und Anfang der 70er Jahre völlig überraschend für die renommierteste Ballettschule des Landes, Madame Maos Ballettakademie, ausgewählt wird.
