Secret Maps of the Ancient World Charlotte Harris Rees, 2008 Who are The Coalition Many wonder but few know the truth The Coalition represents an amalgamation of single and married ultra successful males who have combined their years of knowledge interacting with the opposite sex into a 12 month guide A how to manual which will take an individual from being a man to the man in 12 short months step by step July Jones and Monty Sharpe two members of The Coalition have chosen to shed the cloak of anonymity and chronicle the thoughts and philosophies of the single members of the organization To date other Coalition members have chosen to remain anonymous Atlas of the Geography and History of the Ancient World John King Lord, 1902 Ancient Perspectives Richard J. A. Talbert, 2014-02-14 Ancient Perspectives encompasses a vast arc of space and time Western Asia to North Africa and Europe from the third millennium BCE to the fifth century CE to explore mapmaking and worldviews in the ancient civilizations of Mesopotamia Egypt Greece and Rome In each society maps served as critical economic political and personal tools but there was little consistency in how and why they were made Much like today maps in antiquity meant very different things to different people Ancient Perspectives presents an ambitious fresh overview of cartography and its uses The seven chapters range from broad based analyses of mapping in Mesopotamia and Egypt to a close focus on Ptolemy's ideas for drawing a world map based on the theories of his Greek predecessors at Alexandria The remarkable accuracy of Mesopotamian city plans is revealed as is the creation of maps by Romans to support the proud claim that their emperor's rule was global in its reach By probing the instruments and techniques of both Greek and Roman surveyors one chapter seeks to uncover how their extraordinary planning of roads aqueducts and tunnels was achieved Even though none of these civilizations devised the means to measure time or distance with precision they still conceptualized their surroundings natural and man made near and far and felt the urge to record them by inventive means that this absorbing volume reinterprets and compares The Penguin Historical Atlas of Ancient Civilizations John Haywood, 2005-10-25 The Penguin Historical Atlas of Ancient Civilizations explores the world's earliest cultures from the farming settlements of Mesopotamia to the Americas and Polynesia via the birth of Greek city states and the foundation of Rome It examines the development of civilizations in the Near East Babylonian Assyrian Persian as well as those in Europe the Minoans Etruscans and Celts Across the continents of Africa Asia and America it covers such subjects as Egypt from its pre dynastic roots to the age of the Pharaohs China during the Shang and Zhou dynasties and the great cities of the Incas and Aztecs Vivid descriptions of civilizations are complemented by discussion of such key topics as colonization agriculture and technology and the rise of empires and city states Richly illustrated with timelines photographs artwork re creations and full colour maps this is an illuminating and multi faceted one volume introduction to early peoples and the worlds they created Back cover Australian national bibliography, 1961 A History of the World in 12 Maps Jerry Brotton, 2013-11-14 A New York Times Bestseller Maps allow the armchair traveler to roam the world the diplomat to argue his points the ruler to administer his country the warrior to plan his campaigns and the propagandist to boost his cause rich and beautiful Wall Street Journal Throughout history maps have been fundamental in shaping our view of the world and our place in it But far from being purely scientific objects maps of the world are unavoidably ideological and subjective intimately bound up with the systems of power and authority of particular times and places Mapmakers do not simply represent the world they construct it out of the ideas of their age In this scintillating book Jerry Brotton examines the significance of 12 maps from the almost mystical representations of ancient history to the satellite derived imagery of today He vividly recreates the environments and circumstances in which each of the maps was made showing how each conveys a highly individual view of the world Brotton shows how each of his maps both influenced and reflected contemporary events and how by considering it in all its nuances and omissions we can better understand the world that produced it Although the way we map our surroundings is more precise than ever before Brotton argues that maps today are no more definitive or objective than they have ever been Readers of this beautifully illustrated and masterfully argued book will never look at a map in quite the same way again A fascinating and panoramic new history of the cartographer's art The Guardian The intellectual background to these images is conveyed with beguiling erudition There is nothing more subversive than a map The Spectator A mesmerizing and beautifully illustrated book The Telegraph A History of the Ancient World George Willis

The Rhetoric of Numbers in Gibbon's History F. P. Lock, 2012-09-28. Gibbon aspired to combine the critical analysis of the eighteenth century philosopher with the older traditions of the humanist and scholarly historian. His different uses of numbers to inform and to persuade illustrate his remarkable fusion of these approaches. This book, the first to be devoted to a historian's use of numbers, shows how carefully Gibbon interrogated and deployed the numerical evidence in his sources to create a more accurate historical narrative to demonstrate his own reliability and candor as a historian and to convince readers of the validity of his interpretations of characters and events.
