Mapping The Fiction Of Cristina Fernandez Cubas:

Mapping the Fiction of Cristina Fernández Cubas Kathleen Mary Glenn, Janet Pérez, 2005 Cristina Fernandez Cubas is without question one of the most important of the Spanish writers who have begun to publish since the end of the Franco dictatorship Credited with playing a major role in the renaissance of the short story in Spain she has won national and international acclaim for her fiction Works by her have been translated into eight languages and have become a staple of university courses on contemporary Peninsular literature Fernandez Cubas has created a remarkably coherent narrative world nourished by a core of fundamental concerns The eleven essays of Mapping the Fiction of Cristina Fernandez Cubas examine the intellectual preoccupations narrative strategies and rhetorical devices that distinguish the four volumes of short stories two novels the play and the book of memoirs that she has published to date The Angle of Horror, 2024-10-03 From Cristina Fern ndez Cubas Spain's award winning master of the short story comes a collection of unsettling thought provoking and often hilarious stories The Angle of Horror A socially awkward twenty something who transforms from Jekyll to Hyde by playing the tuba a miserly curmudgeon whose ultimate act of generosity as well as his final breath are snuffed out by a seemingly innocent grandson a young collegian who suffers a nightmare of shadows and slants then discovers his waking world is also horribly askew a lonely Spaniard living abroad who seeks familiarity in a Spanish specialty shop but only finds true belonging while obsessively stalking the proprietor These are but a few of the angles that Fern ndez Cubas constructs in these four twisted tales Helicon Grandfather's Legacy The Angle of Horror and The Flower of Spain Presented in critical edition and translation for the first time these acclaimed Spanish tales are featured alongside their English translation with historical contextualization and critical commentary by scholars Jessica A Folkart and Michelle Geoffrion Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium Jessica A. Folkart, 2014-10-08 Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Vinci Millennium The Ends of Spanish Identity investigates the predominant perception of liminality identity situated at a threshold neither one thing nor another but simultaneously both and neither caused by encounters with otherness while negotiating identity in contemporary Spain Examining how identity and alterity are parleyed through the cultural concerns of historical memory gender roles sex religion nationalism and immigration this study demonstrates how fictional representations of reality converge in a common structure wherein the end is not the end but rather an edge a liminal ground On the border between two identities the end materializes as an ephemeral limit that delineates and differentiates yet also adjoins and approximates In exploring the ends of Spanish fiction both their structure and their intentionality Liminal Fiction maps the edge as a constitutive component of narrative and identity in texts by Najat El Hachmi Cristina Fern ndez Cubas Javier Mar as Rosa Montero and Manuel Rivas In their representation of identity on the edge these fictions enact and embody the liminal not as simply a transitional and transient mode but as the structuring principle of identification in contemporary Spain The Long Aftermath Manuel Bragança, Peter Tame, 2015-12-01 In its totality the Long Second World War extending from the beginning of the Spanish Civil War to the end of hostilities in 1945 has exerted enormous influence over European culture Bringing together leading historians sociologists and literary and film scholars this broadly interdisciplinary volume investigates Europeans individual and collective memories and the ways in which they have shaped the continent s cultural heritage Focusing on the major combatant nations Spain Britain France Italy Germany Poland and Russia it offers thoroughly contextualized explorations of novels memoirs films and a host of other cultural forms to illuminate European public memory

Revisiting Centres and Peripheries in Iberian Studies Mark Gant,2019-08-05 Like its predecessor and companion volume New Journeys in Iberian Studies this volume gathers fresh and emerging research in a range of sub fields of Iberian studies from an international range of established academics and early career researchers The book provides rich evidence of the breadth and depth of new research being carried out in the dynamic field of Iberian studies at present As the title suggests a strong thread running through the collection is concerned with investigating the multiple spaces of tension between the centre and periphery that comprise the Iberian cultural system Topically the current situation in Catalonia naturally comes to the fore in a number of chapters and from a range of perspectives However in the revisiting of a range of cultural products and historical processes undertaken by the contributors it can be seen that transoceanic postcolonial relations are not neglected and concerns with history memory and fiction also weave their way through their work contempor nea Escrito en espan l'After the failure of the soixante huitards the collapse of European communism and the fall around 1989 of various dictatorships and revolutions in Latin America the sentimental approach to history is again reaping successes among the humanities and the social and political sciences In the Hispanic world this affective turn is on its way to repeating another fin de si cle like the one led by the intellectuals of 1898 A century later in both Spanish and Anglo Saxon universities notions such as disenchantment trauma memory and empathy inform virtually all the analyses of modern Spanish culture from the bloody Civil War and the nearly forty years of fascism that followed it to the disappointing transition to democracy Santiago Morales intervenes in this sentimental approach to history and to the novelistic production of the transition by recovering the links and tensions that the notion of melancholy maintains with the aesthetics of black humor in a corpus of fictional works written between 1976 and 1998 Through a methodology that alternates between the careful analysis of novels by Javier Mar as Gonzalo Torrente Ballester Cristina Fern ndez Cubas and Juan Jos Mill s and the distant reading or framing that places these texts in a broader history Anatom a del desencanto constructs a critique of the equivocal place held in our modern age by feelings that were in another time so noble and persistent such as grief fear guilt and compassion While other specialists who study the transition today agree in denouncing the ominous persistence of Francoism and the postwar ethos Santiago Morales sees a deeply ironic formula in the black humor of melancholy a catalyst in the creative and moral growth of Spanish narrative and a fundamental critical tool to change contemporary sentimental education Written entirely in Spanish Literatura y feminismo en España, S.
