Mapping World Communication War Progress Culture:

Mapping World Communication Armand Mattelart, 1994 The task of this book is to reconstruct the genealogy of the sphere of world communication We will follow a multidimensional approach analyzing the ways in which technologies and networks have taken root since the nineteenth century and have ceaselessly pushed back to light the concepts doctrines theories and controversies that have marked the construction of the scientific field known as international communications

The Globalization of Corporate Media Hegemony Lee Artz, Yahya R. Kamalipour, 2012-02-01 When commercial media practices are insinuated into local cultures existing cultural and media practices are often displaced and social inequalities are exacerbated sometimes with the consent of consumers but frequently confronting organized proponents The Globalization of Corporate Media Hegemony provides case studies from five continents from government promoted telecommunications programs and technologies in Canada and Britain MTV Asia s call in request lines and the pan Latin ideology of a Mexican television variety show to Islamic pop radio in Turkey commercial radio in Africa a Millionaire game show in India and Hollywood s muted influence on Korean cinema among others Each case offers new insight into the particulars of an expanding corporate hegemony and together they invite the conversation on media globalization to consider the dynamics of class conflict and negotiation as an analytical perspective having prescriptive potential Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile, Cort J. Willmott, 2005 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White Media, Structures, and Power Robert E. Babe, 2011-01-01 Containing introductions and contributions by other prominent scholars this volume situates Babe s work within contemporary scholarship and underscores the extent to which he is one of Canada s most prescient thinkers

Transgression 2.0 Ted Gornelios, David J. Gunkel, 2011-11-24 Addresses the multifaceted aspects of transgression in the digital age from piracy to audio mashups

De-Coca-Colonization Steven Flusty, 2004-03-01 A novel theoretical account of globalization De Coca Colonization argues that we must move away from top down visions of the processes at work and concentrate on how ordinary people who are locked out of power structures create globalities of their own Changing Genders in Intercultural Perspectives Barbara Saunders, Marie-Claire

Foblets,2002 Drawing on extensive fieldwork the essays in this book develop contextual and strategic analyses of the way sex gender constellations can be configured as political identities as a resource or in response to unforeseen contingencies

Media Industries Jennifer Holt,Alisa Perren,2011-09-19 Media Industries History Theory and Method is among the first texts to explore the evolving field of media industry studies and offer an innovative blueprint for future study and analysis capitalizes on the current social and cultural environment of unprecedented technical change convergence and globalization across a range of textual institutional and theoretical perspectives brings together newly commissioned essays by leading scholars in film media communications and cultural studies includes case studies of film television and digital media to vividly illustrate the dynamic transformations taking place across national regional and international contexts Coexisting Contemporary Civilizations Guy Ankerl,2000 Some important questions are discussed in this book Are there any civilisations other than the Western one living in our so called Global Age Eastern civilisation Is the concept of East anything more than non West Or does there exist in reality a distinct Chinese Indian Arabo Muslim and Western civilisation Is the construction of large civilisation states such as China and India an unparalleled historical achievement Do economic ties always eclipse other forms of affiliation such as those formed through kinship or between speech communities What is the role of the Latin and the Jewish Peoples in our Anglo American led Western world Is English today the global language or merely an international one Is the Chinese thought pattern closely related to its writing system Is today s world one of symmetrical interdependence Or rather one of hegemony If the so called North South or East West dialogue fails in constructing a universally accepted world civilisation then what is the appropriate arrangement for reaching such a consensus within humankind

Condensing the Cold War Joanne P. Sharp,2001 Splintering Urbanism Steve Graham,Simon Marvin,2002-09-11 Splintering Urbanism makes an international and interdisciplinary analysis of the complex interactions between infrastructure networks and urban spaces It delivers a new and powerful way of understanding contemporary urban change bringing together discussions about globalization and the city technology and society urban space and urban networks infrastructure and the built environment developed developing and post communist worlds With a range of case studies illustrations and boxed examples from New York to Jakarta Johannesburg to Manila and Sao Paulo to Melbourne Splintering Urbanism demonstrates the latest social urban and technological theories which give us an understanding of our contemporary metropolis Constellations of the Transnational ,2015-06-29 In the wake of proliferating discourses around globalisation and culture some central questions around cultural politics have acquired a commonsensical and hegemonic character in contemporary intellectual discourse The politics of difference the possibilities of hybridity and the potential of multiple liminalities frame much discussion around the transnational dimensions of culture and post identity politics In this volume the economic political and social consequences of the focus on culture in contemporary theories of globalization are analysed around the disparate fields of architecture museum discourse satellite television dub poetry carnival and sub national theatre The discourses of hybridity diaspora cultural difference minoritization are critically interrogated and engaged with through close analysis of cultural objects and practices The essays thus intervene in the debate around modernity globalization and cultural politics and the volume as a whole provides a critical constellation through which the complexity of transnational culture can be framed Thinking through the particular the essays limn the absent universality of forms of capitalist globalization and the volume as a whole provides multiple perspectives from which to enter the singular modernity of our times in all its complexity

Travel Worlds Raminder Kaur, John Hutnyk, 1999 Everyone's Got a Traveller's Tale but Travel Worlds tells them with a sting African American musicians head East for Kung Fu kicks while paedophiles go for cheap sex pilgrimage Western bible bashers adopt missionary positions in India while heroic Saint George signs on as an Arab soldier in Britain the scars of Partition mock the protocols of transit while nomadic insurgents resist the Bangladeshi nation state with lyrical persuasion Kula Shaker and Madonna trinketize the Orient while dead tourists exchange values with travelling terrorists British Mirpuris and Black women travel back to the Old Country and beyond in ways that are not quite as they seem and ethnographers collide with tourists in the carousel of Goa's resorts Including poetry and fiction alongside academic essays this book refuses simplistic dichotomies of north south and east west and confronts head on existing conventions of writing about travel in post colonial literary and cultural studies

Postcolonial Studies Meets Media Studies Kai Merten, Lucia Krämer, 2016-04-15 The book brings together experts from Media and Communication Studies with Postcolonial Studies scholars to illustrate how the two fields may challenge and enrich each other Its essays introduce readers to selected topics including Media Convergence Transcultural Subjectivity Hegemony Piracy and Media History and Colonialism Drawing on examples from film literature music TV and the internet the contributors investigate the transnational dimensions in today's media engage with local and global media politics and discuss media outlets as economic agents thus illustrating mechanisms of power in postcolonial and neo colonial mediascapes
