Revolution and later by the Marielitos who escaped from the island in the 1980s Since then it has spread to the larger Hispanic community to the African American community and to other segments of society as well Today practitioners can be found in every state and interest in Orisha and related traditions has gained popularity As the number of practitioners has grown so has public awareness In this compelling introduction Clark answers such questions as where did this religion come from What do practitioners believe Is it a cult What takes place at a ritual event How does it view death and the afterlife Is there ritual sacrifice Clark a practitioner as well as a scholar of the faith dispels the myths that surround this religious practice and brings readers to a better understanding of this growing faith in America

The Oxford Handbook of Caribbean Religions Michelle A. Gonzalez, Michelle Gonzalez Maldonado, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Caribbean Religions offers a comprehensive overview of Caribbean religions The Caribbean is a microcosm of the world's religions but the small geographic space resulted in the encounter of global religions and indigenous religious practices The racial ethnic and cultural diversity of this region makes brief introductions to Caribbean religions incapable of truly addressing its complex and diverse religious landscape The Handbook also elaborates on the diversity of the religious traditions and the national particularity of the region while also considering multiple geographic settings It mentions how often Caribbean religion is studied through the perspective of a discrete religious tradition or geographic setting

Negotiating Conviviality L. Hay, 2014-06-13 This book is an ethnographic study of a group of migrants in Cape Town from Malawi Zimbabwe and South Africa It seeks to understand how migrants overcome structural exclusion by forming and maintaining convivial relationships through the Bay Community Church and how this is facilitated by Information and Communication Technologies ICTs The book argues that ICTs are implicated in the negotiation of conviviality ICTs allow for a negotiation of intimacy and distance although their functions may facilitate more contact than is desired or further distance those already separated physically This book interrogates the strict division between insiders and outsiders and highlights that migrants are able to sustain multiple networks and relationships linking their home and host countries Despite increasingly strict border control and animosity from host communities migrants are able to overcome imposed identities such as outsider They do so by using ICTs such as cell phones and Facebook to emphasise their Christian identity which is one of the main factors for inclusion in church based networks Membership with a mixed denominational church such as the Bay further challenges the notion that migrants stick to themselves Inclusive communities such as the Bay and everyday desires for conviviality evoke the need to reconsider policies too narrowly articulated around the dichotomisation of foreigners and nationals home and away us and them

African and Diaspora Aesthetics Sarah Nuttall, 2006 In Cameroon a monumental statue of liberty is made from scrap metal In Congo a thriving popular music incorporates piercing screams and carnal dances When these and other instantiations of the aesthetics of Africa and its diasporas are taken into account how are ideas of beauty reconfigured Scholars and artists take up that question in this invigorating lavishly illustrated collection which includes more than one hundred color images Exploring sculpture music fiction food photography fashion and urban design the contributors engage with and depart from canonical aesthetic theories as they demonstrate that beauty cannot be understood apart from ugliness Highlighting how ideas of beauty are manifest and how they mutate travel and combine across time and distance continental and diasporic writers examine the work of a Senegalese sculptor inspired by Leni Riefenstahl's photographs of Nuba warriors a rich Afro Brazilian aesthetic incorporating aspects of African Jamaican and American cultures and African Americans Africanization of the Santer a movement in the United States They consider the fraught intricate spaces of the urban landscape in postcolonial South Africa the intense pleasures of eating on R union and the shockingly graphic images on painted plywood boards advertising morality plays along the streets of Ghana And they analyze the increasingly ritualized wedding feasts in Cameroon as well as the limits of an explicitly African aesthetics Two short stories by the Mozambican writer Mia Couto gesture toward what beauty might be in the context of political failure and postcolonial disillusionment Together the essays suggest that beauty is in some sense future oriented and that taking beauty in Africa and its diasporas seriously is a way of rekindling hope Contributors Rita Barnard Kamari Maxine Clarke Mia Couto Mark Gevisser Simon Gikandi Michelle Gilbert Isabel Hofmeyr William Kentridge Dominique Malaquais Achille Mbembe Cheryl Ann Michael Celestin Monga Sarah Nuttall Patricia Pinho Rodney Place Els van der Plas Pippa Stein Fran oise Verg s

The Human Cost of African Migrations Toyin Falola, Niyi Afolabi, 2007-11-13 In an era of globalization population growth and displacements migration is now a fact of life in a constantly shifting economic and political world order This book contributes to the discourse on the beneficiaries benefactors and the casualties of African displacement While the few existing studies have emphasized economic motivation as the primary factor triggering African migration this volume treats a range of issues economic socio political pedagogical developmental and cultural Organized with a multidisciplinary thrust in mind this book argues that any discussion of African migration whether internal or external must be conceived as only one aspect of a more complex organic and global patterning of flux and reflux necessitated by constantly shifting dynamics of world socio economic cultural and political order Africas of the Americas ,2008-03-31 The anthropology and history of African American religious formations has long been dominated by approaches aiming to recover and authenticate the historical transatlantic continuities linking such traditions to identifiable African source cultures While not denying such continuities the contributors to this volume seek to transcend this research agenda by bracketing Africa and African pasts as objective givens and asking instead what role notions of Africanness and pastfulness play in the social and ritual lives of historical and contemporary practitioners of Afro Atlantic religious formations The volume s goal is to open up contextually salient claims to African origins to empirical scrutiny and so contribute to a broadening of the terms of debate in Afro Atlantic studies

Trans-Atlantic Migration Toyin Falola,Niyi Afolabi,2007-11-21 This book argues that a new cadre of African immigrants are finding themselves in the New World mostly well educated high income earning professionals and belonging to the category termed African brain drain they constitute the antinomy of those Africans who were forcibly removed from Africa during slavery Along with this sense of freedom and voluntary migration comes a paradox that of living in two worlds and negotiating the pleasures and agonies that come with living in exile For the new African immigrant the primary factor motivating migration is the desire for a better life whether fleeing political persecution economic crisis refugee crisis or a combination thereof The overall consequences include displacement alienation and the not so enchanting reality of exile In its encompassing structure and multivalent perspectives Trans Atlantic Migration sets in motion the shifting theoretical and pragmatic verity that the new African diaspora and transatlantic migrations are paths laden with paradoxes that only time negotiations compromises and sense of identities can ultimately resolve Metaphysical Africa Michael Muhammad Knight,2021-11-30 The Ansaru Allah Community also known as the Nubian Islamic Hebrews AAC NIH and later the Nuwaubians is a deeply significant and controversial African American Muslim movement Founded in Brooklyn in the 1960s it spread through the prolific production and dissemination of literature and lecture tapes and became famous for continuously reinventing its belief system In this book Michael Muhammad Knight studies the development of AAC NIH discourse over a period of thirty years tracing a surprising consistency behind a facade of serial reinvention It is popularly believed that the AAC NIH community abandoned Islam for Black Israelite religion UFO religion and Egyptosophy However Knight sees coherence in AAC NIH media explaining how in reality the community taught that the Prophet Muhammad was a Hebrew who adhered to Israelite law Muhammad s heavenly ascension took place on a spaceship and Abraham enlisted the help of a pharaonic regime to genetically engineer pigs as food for white people Against narratives that treat the AAC NIH community as a postmodernist deconstruction of religious categories Knight demonstrates that AAC NIH discourse is most productively framed within a broader African American metaphysical history in which boundaries between traditions remain quite permeable Unexpected and engrossing Metaphysical Africa brings to light points of intersection between communities and traditions often regarded as separate and distinct In doing so it helps move the field of religious studies beyond conventional categories of orthodoxy and heterodoxy challenging assumptions that inform not only the study of this particular religious community but also the field at large The Souls of Womenfolk Alexis

Wells-Oghoghomeh,2021-09-13 Beginning on the shores of West Africa in the sixteenth century and ending in the U S Lower South on the eve of the Civil War Alexis Wells Oghoghomeh traces a bold history of the interior lives of bondwomen as they carved out an existence for themselves and their families amid the horrors of American slavery With particular attention to maternity sex and other gendered aspects of women s lives she documents how bondwomen crafted female centered cultures that shaped the religious consciousness and practices of entire enslaved communities Indeed gender as well as race co constituted the Black religious subject she argues requiring a shift away from understandings of slave religion as a gender amorphous category Women responded on many levels ethically ritually and communally to southern slavery Drawing on a wide range of sources Wells Oghoghomeh shows how they remembered reconfigured and innovated beliefs and practices circulating between Africa and the Americas In this way she redresses the exclusion of enslaved women from the American religious narrative Challenging conventional institutional histories this book opens a rare window onto the spiritual strivings of one of the most remarkable and elusive groups in the American experience The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology Katie G. Cannon,Anthony B. Pinn,2014 The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology brings together leading scholars in the field to present a critical and comprehensive analysis of African American Theology in its many forms and contexts providing an interdisciplinary examination of the nature content and meaning of this form of theology
