Mapping Literary Modernism Time And Development:

Mapping Literary Modernism Ricardo J. Quinones, 2014-07-14 Professor Quinones describes significant stages in the development of literary Modernism redefining the period as extending from about 1900 to 1940 and beyond and not as an entity centered on the 1920s Originally published in 1985 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Mapping Literary

Modernism Ricardo J. Quinones, 1985 The Senses of Modernism Sara Danus, 2002 In The Senses of Modernism Sara Danus develops a radically new theoretical and historical understanding of high modernism The author analyses works by Mann Proust and Joyce as narratives of the sweeping changes that affected high and low culture Mapping Across

Robert Louis Stevenson and the Appearance of Modernism A. Sandison, 1996-05-21 Despite attracting the admiration of Modernists like Nabokov and Borges Stevenson remains for many an apologist for the lost world of the romance This is not only to misread and simplify his fiction it is greatly to undervalue his lively forward looking literary essays Strenuously resisting the authority of the literary fathers though haunted by the complexities of paternity Stevenson reveals strong affinities with emergent Modernism It is from this perspective that Alan Sandison's latest book the first to appear for nearly thirty years conducts a lively and readable re-examination of this often underrated writer

Encyclopedia of Time Samuel L. Macey, 2013-04-11 In this encyclopedia some 200 international scholars in 360 articles explore subjects such as physics archeoastronomy astronomy mathematics time's measurements and divisions as well as covering other scientific and interdisciplinary areas biology economics and political science horology history medicine geography geology and telecommunications Joyce's Modernist Allegory Stephen Sicari, 2001 This text suggests that James Joyce's famous experiments with style and technique throughout Ulysses constitute a series of attempts to find a language adequate to his purposes a language capable of representing an ideal of behaviour for the modern world World War I and Southern Modernism David A. Davis, 2017-11-27 Winner of the 2018 Eudora Welty Prize When the United States entered World War I parts of the country had developed industries urban cultures and democratic political systems but the South lagged behind remaining an impoverished agriculture region Despite New South boosterism the culture of the early twentieth century South was comparatively artistically arid Yet southern writers dominated the literary marketplace by the 1920s and 1930s World War I brought southerners into contact with modernity before the South fully modernized This shortfall created an inherent tension between the region's existing agricultural social structure and the processes of modernization leading to distal modernism a form of writing that combines elements of modernism to depict non modern social structures Critics have struggled to formulate explanations for the eruption of modern southern literature sometimes called the Southern Renaissance Pinpointing World War I as the catalyst David A Davis argues southern modernism was not a self generating outburst of writing but a response to the disruptions modernity generated in the region In World War I and Southern Modernism Davis examines dozens of works of literature by writers including William Faulkner Ellen Glasgow and Claude McKay that depict the South during the war Topics explored in the book include contact between the North and the South southerners who served in combat and the developing southern economy Davis also provides a new lens for this argument taking a closer look at African Americans in the military and changing gender roles

Sequel to History Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth, 2020-10-06 Sequel to History offers a comprehensive definition of postmodernism as a reformation of time Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth uses a diversified theoretical approach drawing on post structuralism feminism new historicism and twentieth century science to demonstrate the crisis of our dominant idea of history and its dissolution in the rhythmic time of postmodernism She enlarges this definition in discussions of several crises of cultural identity the crisis of the object the crisis of the subject and the crisis of the sign Finally she explores the relation between language and time in post modernism proposing an arresting theory of her own about the rhythmic nature of postmodern temporality Because the postmodern construction of time appears so clearly in narrative writing each part of this work is punctuated by a rhythm section on a postmodern narrative Robbe Grillet's Jealousy Cortezar's Hopscotch and Nabokov's Invitation to a Beheading these extended readings provide concrete illustrations of Ermarth's theoretical positions As in her critically acclaimed Realism and Consensus in the English Novel Ermarth ranges across disciplines from anthropology and the visual arts to philosophy and history For its interdisciplinary character and its lucid definition of postmodernism Sequel to History will appeal to all those interested in the humanities

Five Faces of Modernity Matei Călinescu, 1987 This ambitious and illuminating book offers an analysis of nothing less than the aesthetic and intellectual ideas which have governed literary production during the past 150 years

The Poetics of the Everyday Siobhan Phillips, 2010 Wallace Stevens once described the malady of the quotidian lamenting the dull weight of everyday regimen Yet he would later hail that which is always beginning over and over recognizing if not celebrating the possibility of fresh invention Focusing on the poems of Wallace Stevens Robert Frost Elizabeth Bishop and James Merrill Siobhan Phillips positions everyday time as a vital category in modernist aesthetics American literature and poetic theory She eloquently reveals how through particular but related means each of these poets converts the necessity of quotidian experience into an aesthetic and experiential opportunity In Stevens Phillips analyzes the implications of cyclic dualism In Frost she explains the theoretical depth of a habitual middle way In Bishop s work she identifies the attempt to turn recurrent mornings into a ceremony rather than a sentence and in Merrill she shows how cosmic theories rely on daily habits Phillips ultimately demonstrates that a poetics of everyday time contributes not only to a richer understanding of these four writers but also to descriptions of their era estimations of their genre and ongoing reconfigurations of the issues that literature reflects and illuminates

The Modern Elegiac Temper John B. Vickery, 2006-05-01 Lamentation of death is the traditional elegiac focus but in the twentieth century the elegy has become characterized as well by the mourning of other kinds of loss those personal familial romantic cultural and philosophical privations and dispossessions that have so greatly shaped the modern sensibility According to John B Vickery a profound elegiac temper is itself the major trait of twentieth century culture registered in attitudes ranging from regret sorrow confusion anger anxiety doubt and alienation to outright despair He transforms our understanding of the elegy and its relation to modernism in The Modern Elegiac Temper Vickery offers in depth readings of a broad sampling of British and American poems written from World War I to the present He considers works of overlooked poets such as Vernon Watkins George Barker and Edith Sitwell while also attending to canonical writers such as T S Eliot Ezra Pound W H Auden and Wallace Stevens Taking a text oriented rather than author or theory oriented approach he discusses in turn the personal love cultural and philosophical elegy and shows how war the Great Depression the Holocaust and other major historical events influenced poets elegiac expressions By suggesting ways in which the individual centered concerns of the traditional elegy metamorphose under the depersonalizing lens of high modernism Vickery reveals the modern elegy to be a finely calibrated instrument for reading and expressing absorbing and reflecting the modern temperament

The Antimodernism of Joyce's

Portrait of the Artist As a Young Man Weldon Thornton, 1994 Thornton takes a fresh look at important psychological and cultural issues in this novel arguing that although it may be a classic text of literary modernism it is a fundamentally antimodernist work This comprehensive and thoughtful book provides readers with a new cultural critique and intellectual history of Portrait which promises to become one of the major discussions of the novel From Dickinson to Dylan Glenn Hughes, 2020-12-01 Glenn Hughes examines the ways in which six literary modernists Emily Dickinson Marcel Proust T S Eliot Ezra Pound Samuel Beckett and Bob Dylan have explored the human relationship to a transcendent mystery of meaning Hughes argues that visions of transcendence are perhaps surprisingly a significant feature in modernist literature and that these authors works account for many of the options for interpreting what transcendent reality might be This work is unique in its extended focus in a comparative study spanning a century on the persistence and centrality in modernist literature of the struggle to understand and articulate the dependence of human meaning on the mystery of transcendent meaning Hughes shows us that each of these authors is a mystic in his or her way and that none are tempted by the modern inclination to suppose that meaning originates with human beings Together they address one of the most difficult and important challenges of modern literature how to be a mystic in modernity
