Comparative Map History and "the History of Cartography" Matthew H.

Edney,2025-07-10 The apparently centuries old field of the history of cartography was invented after 1950 through incomplete historiographies by leading map historians This monograph uses an empirically grounded analysis of the ways in which early maps have been systematically studied since the early 1800s to offer an innovative account of the practices and institutions of comparative map history in support of Western imperialism and nationalism and of how the field was reconfigured as the core of a newly idealized discipline of the history of cartography Playing with Earth and Sky James Housefield,2016-07-05 Playing with Earth and Sky reveals the significance astronomy geography and aviation had for Marcel Duchamp widely regarded as the most influential artist of the past fifty years Duchamp transformed modern art by abandoning unique art objects in favor of experiences that could be both embodied and cerebral This illuminating study offers new interpretations of Duchamp s momentous works from readymades to the early performance art of shaving a comet in his hair It demonstrates how the immersive spaces and narrative environments of popular science from museums to the modern planetarium prepared paths for Duchamp s nonretinal art By situating Duchamp s career within the transatlantic cultural contexts of Dadaism and Surrealism this book enriches contemporary debates about the historical relationship between art and science This truly original study will appeal to a broad readership in art history and cultural studies
