Marbling In Miniature:

Marbling in Miniature Christopher Weimann,1980 Marbled Paper Richard J. Wolfe,1990 For 250 years after its introduction to Europe around 1600 the method of decorating paper known as marbling reigned supreme as the chief means of embellishing the fine work of hand bookbinders Richard J Wolfe reconstructs the rise and fall of the craft and offers the most comprehensive account available of its history techniques and patterns A publication of the A S W Rosenbach Fellowship in Bibliography Series Inventory of the Collection of Pictures, Miniatures, Decorative Furniture, Porcelain, Objects of Art, Books, &c. Victoria and Albert Museum,2025-08-10 Reprint of the original first published in 1882 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Catalogue, Descriptive and Historical of the National Gallery of Scotland Under the Management of the Board of Manufactures National Gallery of Scotland,1879 Catalogue of the Objects of Indian Art H. Boyd,2017-01-04 The sculpture of the early bronze age Cyclades has been systematically studied since the time of Christos Tsountas at the end of the 19th century But that study has been hampered by the circumstance that so many of the subsequent finds come from unauthorized excavations where the archaeological context was irretrievably lost Largely for that reason there are still many problems surrounding the chronology the function and the meaning of Early Cycladic sculpture This lavishly illustrated and comprehensive reassessment sets out to rectify that situation by publishing finds which have been recovered in controlled excavations in recent years as well as earlier finds for which better documentation can now be provided Using the material from recent excavation projects and drawing on the papers presented at a symposium held in Athens in 2014 it is possible now to undertake a fresh overview of the entire body of sculpture from the Cycladic islands which has been found in secure archaeological contexts Beginning with early examples from Neolithic settlement sites and extending into a consideration of material found in later contexts the 35 chapters are divided into sections which examine sculpture from settlements cemeteries and the sanctuary at Kavos concluding with a discussion of material techniques and aspects of manufacture Catalogue ... of the National Gallery of Scotland, Under the Management of the Board of Manufactures Drummond,1875 Fine Print ,1981 Auction-sale catalogues Foster (messrs.),1886 Architectural Record ,1915 American Stone Trade ,1913 The Art of Praxiteles: The mature years Antonio Corso,2004 Fifth Chapter Praxiteles at his Peak around 364 360 22 The Cnidian Aphrodite 23 The Coan Aphrodite 24 The statues of the Twelve Gods in the sanctuary of the Savior Artemis in Megara 25 The Aphrodite who is about to wreath herself 26 The statue of Chaerippe Indexes Oxford

Education, 1900 Marble Statuettes of the Roman Period Brian Martens, 2025-07-18 The excavations of the Athenian Agora have played a major role in bringing to light the rich sculptural legacy of ancient Athens The project's storerooms boast one of the most important bodies of sculpture from classical antiquity covering the complete range and history of output in a storied center of artistic production This volume presents for the first time the marble statuettes and statuette fragments carved between the 1st century BCE and the 4th century CE that have been excavated from the Agora since 1931 Comprising one in six figural sculptures found at the site these works are testament to a thriving demand for small divine images in Roman period Greece that has been insufficiently recognized until now Among these broken and battered figures are the portraits of polytheistic Athens naked Aphrodite at her bath winged Eros assisting his mother tired Herakles after a labor teenage Artemis aiming her bow attentive Asklepios dispatching cures The author marshals a detailed and heavily illustrated catalogue of 672 objects to offer new data to the study of Greek iconography and sculptural production Taken as a collective whole the statuettes document the vibrant religion society and art of Athens and beyond

Fragmentation in Archaeology John Chapman, 2013-04-15 Fragmentation in Archaeology revolutionises archaeological studies of material culture by arguing that the deliberate physical fragmentation of objects and their often structured deposition lies at the core of the archaeology of the Mesolithic Neolithic and Copper Age of Central and Eastern Europe John Chapman draws on detailed evidence from the Balkans to explain such phenomena as the mass sherd deposition in pits and the wealth of artefacts found in the Varna cemetery to place the significance of fragmentation within a broad anthropological context
