Marbot Eine Biographie:

Marbot Wolfgang Hildesheimer, 1983      The Distinction of Fiction Dorrit Cohn, 2000-12 Winner of the Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Comparative Literary Studies from the Modern Language Association Winner of the Modern Language Association s Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Comparative Literary Studies The border between fact and fiction has been trespassed so often it seems to be a highway Works of history that include fictional techniques are usually held in contempt but works of fiction that include history are among the greatest of classics Fiction claims to be able to convey its own unique kinds of truth But unless a reader knows in advance whether a narrative is fictional or not judgment can be frustrated and confused In The Distinction of Fiction Dorrit Cohn argues that fiction does present specific clues to its fictionality and its own justifications Indeed except in cases of deliberate deception fiction achieves its purposes best by exercising generic conventions that inform the reader that it is fiction Cohn tests her conclusions against major narrative works including Proust s A la Recherche du temps perdu Mann s Death in Venice Tolstoy s War and Peace and Freud s case studies She contests widespread poststructuralist views that all narratives are fictional On the contrary she separates fiction and nonfiction as necessarily distinct even when bound together An expansion of Cohn s Christian Gauss lectures at Princeton and the product of many years of labor and thought The Distinction of Fiction builds on narratological and phenomenological theories to show that boundaries between fiction and history can be firmly and systematically explored

Biographie Als Religiöser und Kultureller Text Anthony J. Cascardi, Dietrich Ritschl, Roxane Witke, 2002      The Text and Its Context Nigel Harris, Joanne Sayner, 2008 This Festschrift for Ronald Speirs Professor of German at the University of Birmingham contains twenty four original essays by scholars from Great Britain Germany Austria and Norway Between them they encompass the entire modern period from the later eighteenth century onwards and focus on a wide range of German speaking environments Several essays throw new light on authors to whom Professor Speirs himself has devoted particular attention such as Brecht Thomas Mann Nietzsche and Fontane whilst others discuss writers such as Lenz Bchner Bhlau C F Meyer Keyserling Jahnn and Huch Above all however the contributions address the complexities of writing in ideologically diverse contexts including the Third Reich and the former German Democratic Republic This interplay between text and context is the cornerstone which links all the essays as it has consistently informed Ronald Speirs s own work which combines a scrupulous attention to textual detail with an acute awareness of the socio political milieux and philosophical influences that shape creative literature      Fakes and Forgeries Peter Knight, Jonathan Long, 2004 The possibility that works of art and literature might be forged and that identity might be faked has haunted the cultural imagination for centuries That spectre seems to have returned with a vengeance recently with a series of celebrated hoaxes and scandals ranging from the Alan Sokal hoax article in Social Text to Benjamin Wilkomirski TM s oefake Holocaust memoir But as well as creating anxiety the possibility of oefaking it has now been turned into entertainment Traditionally these activities have been dismissed as dangerous and immoral but more recently some scholars have begun to speculate for example that all forms of national identity rely on forged myths of origin Recent cultural theory has likewise called into question traditional notions of authenticity and originality in both personal identity and in works of art Despite critical pronouncements of the death of the author and the substitution of the simulacrum for the original however making a distinction between the genuine and the fake continues to play a major role in our everyday understanding and evaluation of culture law and politics Consider for example the fiasco surrounding the forged Hitler diaries law suits against auction houses for failing to detect forgeries in the art market or the problem of plagiarism at universities It still seems to matter that we can spot the difference especially in the historical moment when we are capable of making copies that are indistinguishable perhaps even better than the original This collection of essays considers the moral aesthetic and political questions that are raised by the long history and current prevalence of fakes and forgeries The international team of contributors consider the issues thrown up by a wide range of examples drawn from fields ranging from literature to art history These case studies include little known subjects such as Eddie Burrup the Australian aboriginal artist who turned out to be an 81 year old white woman as well as new interpretations of familiar cases such as faked holocaust memoirs The strength of the collection is that it brings together not only a wide range of cultural examples of fakes and forgeries from different historical periods but also offers a wide variety of theoretical takes that will form a useful introduction and casebook on this growing field of inquiry

An Introduction to Narratology Monika Fludernik, 2009-02-16 An Introduction to Narratology is an accessible practical guide to narratological theory and terminology and its application to literature In this book Monika Fludernik outlines the key concepts of style metaphor and metonymy and the history of narrative forms narratological approaches to interpretation and the linguistic aspects of texts including new cognitive developments in the field how students can use narratological theory to work with texts incorporating detailed practical examples a glossary of useful narrative terms and suggestions for further reading This textbook offers a comprehensive overview of the key aspects of narratology by a leading practitioner in the field It demystifies the subject in a way that is accessible to beginners but also reflects recent theoretical developments and narratology's increasing popularity as a critical tool

Learning from Lying Julia Luisa Abramson, 2005 Learning from Lying narrates a new literary history as seen through the lens of mystification Beginning with an examination of mystification's elaboration during the century of Enlightenment the book accounts for mystification's distinctiveness relative to other deceptive forms particularly forgery and provides a timely intervention in current debates about the study of fakes Readings of works by Denis Diderot Prosper Merimee and Wolfgang Hildesheimer follow out the cosmopolitan roots of the genre in the Republic of Letters and show how it theorizes literature through practical experiment For when textual imitation is revealed it unveils the necessary collusion between reader and writer that allows literature to exist as such

BOOK JACKET Born Under Auschwitz Mary Cosgrove, 2014 Uncovers the literary traditions of melancholy that inform major works of postwar and contemporary German literature dealing with the Holocaust and the Nazi period      Drawn from Life Jonathan Murray, 2018-11-14 Explores intrinsic connections between early modern intelligencers and metadrama in the plays of Shakespeare's contemporaries      Towards a Theory of Life-Writing Marija Krsteva, 2022-11-30 Towards a Theory of Life Writing Genre Blending provides a look into the rules of life writing genre blending proposing a theory to explain and illustrate the main regulations governing such genre play It centers on fact and fiction duality in the formation of auto biofictional genres This book investigates the existing developments in this field and explores major criticism and lines of inquiry in order to arrive at the theory of life writing genre play textuality The specific interplay of the different generic characteristics develops a specific textuality at the heart of it This is termed biofictional preservation biopreservation to explain the textual transformation and the shaping of the auto biofictional genres Written for undergraduate and graduate students but also for the general readers the book further exemplifies the theory in the analyses of different biofictions about the American authors F Scott Fitzgerald and Ernest Hemingway featuring overlapping and juxtaposed material This volume aims to provide a theory of this specific textuality in order to better understand and approach the process in question as well as to open up new horizons for further study and exploration      David Lodge and the Art-and-Reality Novel Daniel Ammann, 2020-03-31 Two distinctive views emerge concerning the presumed battle between Lodge's creative and critical work One holds that Lodge's fiction is antimodernist and therefore lags behind his criticism which displays a theoretical interest in the modernist and though to a lesser extent in the postmodernist text According to the opposite view time and again there have been strong elements of modernism and postmodernism in Lodge's novels In order to bring together the two lines of Lodge's work this study shall focus on some aspects in his fiction that are also discussed in his criticism Given this interdependence his declared interest in what he calls the art and reality novel can be regarded as a major starting point The emphasis falls on various forms of interplay in the fields of literature criticism and reality Accordingly it should be possible to apply Lodge the theorist to Lodge the novelist and thus bridge or at least explain the alleged division in his work

Writing History in Film William Guynn, 2013-08-21 Historical film has been an important genre since the earliest silent films The French Revolution the American Civil War the conquest of the New World World War II all have been repeatedly represented in film But how do we distinguish between fictionalized spectacle and authentic historical representation Writing History in Film sets out the narratological semiological rhetorical and philosophical bases for understanding how film can function as a form of historical interpretation and representation With case studies and an interdisciplinary approach William Guynn examines the key issues facing film students and scholars historians and anyone interested in how we see our historical past      Textual Subjectivity A. C. Spearing, 2005-10-27 This book investigates how subjectivity is encoded in the texts of a wide variety of medieval narratives and lyrics not how they express the subjectivity of individuals but how subjectivity escaping the bounds of individuality is incorporated in the linguistic fabric of their texts Most of the poems discussed are in English and the book includes analyses of Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde, Man of Law's Tale and Complaint Unto Pity, the works of the Pearl poet, Havelok the Dane, the lyric sequence attributed to Charles of Orleans, the earliest such sequence in English and many anonymous poems. It also devotes sections to Ovid's Heroides and to poems by the troubadour Bernart de Ventadorn. For the first time it brings to bear on medieval narratives and lyrics a body of theory which denies the supposed necessity for literary texts to have narrators or speakers and in doing so reveals the implausibilities into which a dogmatic assumption of this necessity has led much of the last century's criticism. Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias Konzett, 2015-05-11 Designed to provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities, the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers, individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition. Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts, the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature, culture and history and society. In addition to the essays, author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions, selected critical editions and English language translations. All entries conclude with a list of further readings.

Contemporary Literary Criticism Daniel G. Marowski, 1988-08 Entries include critical commentary, brief biographical information, a portrait when available, a list of principal works and may also include a further reading section.

Encyclopedia of Contemporary German Culture John Sandford, 2013-04-03 Pre and post unification culture. Includes Austria and Switzerland. Annotated suggestions for further reading. English and German language works. The Many Faces of Germany John A. McCarthy, Walter Grunzweig, Thomas Koebner, 2004-04-01 With the fall of the Berlin Wall and the shifting of American foreign policy away from old Europe, long established patterns of interaction between Germany and the U.S. have come under review. Although seemingly disconnected from the cultural and intellectual world, political developments were not without their influence on the humanities and their curricula during the past century. In retrospect, we can speak of the many different roles Germany has played in American eyes. The Many Faces of Germany seeks to acknowledge the importance of those incarnations for the study of German culture and history on both sides of the Atlantic. One of the major questions raised by the contributors is whether the transformations in the transatlantic dynamics and in the importance of Germany for the U.S. have had a major influence on the study of things German in the U.S. internally. The volume gathers together leading voices of the older and younger generations of social historians, literary scholars, film critics and cultural historians. An

Impossible Friendship Sonja Mejcher-Atassi, 2024-05-28 In Jerusalem as World War II was coming to an end, an extraordinary circle of friends began to meet at the bar of the King David Hotel. This group of aspiring artists, writers and intellectuals among them Wolfgang Hildesheimer, Jabra Ibrahim Jabra, Sally Kassab, Walid Khalidi and Rasha Salam, some of whom would go on to become acclaimed authors, scholars and critics, came together across religious lines in a fleeting moment of possibility within a troubled history What brought these Muslim Jewish and Christian friends together and what became of them in the aftermath of 1948 the year of the creation of the State of Israel and the Palestinian Nakba Sonja Mejcher Atassi tells the story of this unlikely friendship and in so doing offers an intimate cultural and social history of Palestine in the critical postwar period She vividly reconstructs the vanished social world of these protagonists tracing the connections between the specificity of individual lives and the larger contexts in which they are embedded In exploring this ecumenical friendship and its artistic literary and intellectual legacies Mejcher Atassi demonstrates how social biography can provide a picture of the past that is at once more inclusive and more personal This group portrait she argues allows us to glimpse alternative possibilities that exist within and alongside the fraught history of Israel Palestine Bringing a remarkable era to life through archival research and nuanced interdisciplinary scholarship An Impossible Friendship unearths prospects for historical reconciliation solidarity and justice World Literature Today, 1982 Fundamentals of Literary Theory Klaus W. Hempfer, 2024-05-02 This monograph offers new insights into the fundamentals of literary theory It synthesizes and evaluates research from recent decades critically examining this work from a transnational perspective and with a particular focus on publications in English French and German The book is divided into six sub theories that tackle problems of interpretation fictionality performativity and performance intertextuality genre and periodization Drawing on texts from Classical Antiquity to English German French Spanish and Italian literature the book brings together a range of different scholarly traditions in different languages
