Marc Antony:

The Life and Times of Marc Antony Arthur Weigall, 2014-04-07 Mark Antony 83 50 B C is one of the most unique and best known figures of antiquity a man whose relationships with some of history's giants ensured his own legacy A protégé of Julius Caesar's a lover of Cleopatra's a sworn enemy of Cicero's and a foil for Octavian Antony has long been remembered for the role he played in others' lives more than for his own accomplishments Fittingly and ironically Antony might be best remembered today for the words Shakespeare put in his mouth for Caesar's eulogy While Antony's relationships with Rome's most famous leaders and history's most famous woman were central components in his lives the fact that his legacy has been intertwined with them belies the fact that he was a powerful man in his own right Coming up as a capable and competent military man who Caesar trusted as his right hand Antony parlayed that into governing Rome itself while Caesar fought Pompey After Caesar's assassination in 44 B C Antony deftly navigated from tenuous footing as a declared enemy of the state to become one of Rome's two most powerful leaders arguably its most powerful in just a matter of years outmaneuvering and getting the best of enemies like Brutus and Cicero At the same time Antony was notorious in his own time for his voracious appetite for vice and the branding of him as a boor has persisted for over 2 000 years Of course Antony's relationship with Cleopatra has become the stuff of legends and one of history's most famous love stories but even that was a byproduct of the fact that Antony ruled the eastern third of the Roman Empire as triumvir Had Octavian and fate not caught up with him at the Battle of Actium one of the most famous naval battles ever history might have been very different Marc Antony Mary Kittredge, 1988 A biography of the Roman general orator and statesman who after the death of Julius Caesar formed an uneasy alliance with Caesar's heir Octavian and ruled the eastern half of the Empire Mark Antony Eleanor Goltz Huzar, 1978 Vestal Virgins, Sibyls, and Matrons Sarolta A. Takács, 2010-01-01 A fascinating exploration of women's role in Roman religion that facilitates a better understanding of their importance in Rome's cultural formation Roman women were the procreators and nurturers of life both in the domestic world of the family and in the larger sphere of the state Although deterred from participating in most aspects of public life women played an essential role in public religious ceremonies taking part in rituals designed to ensure the fecundity and success of the agricultural cycle on which Roman society depended Thus religion is a key area for understanding the contributions of women to Roman society and their importance beyond their homes and families In this book Sarolta A. Takács offers a sweeping overview of Roman women's roles and functions in religion and by extension in Rome's history and culture from the republic through the empire She begins with the religious calendar and the various festivals in which women played a significant role She then examines major female deities and cults including the Sibyl Mater Magna Isis and the Vestal Virgins to show how conservative Roman society adopted and integrated Greek culture into its mythic history artistic expressions and religion Takács's discussion of the Bona Dea Festival of 62 BCE and of the Bacchantes female worshippers of the god Bacchus or Dionysus reveals how women could also jeopardize Rome's existence by stepping out of their assigned roles. Takacs's examination of the provincial female flaminica and the Matres Matronae demonstrates how women served to bind imperial Rome and its provinces into a cohesive society. the Life and Times of Marc Anthony Arthur Weigall, 1931 The Book of Knowledge Roman Harambura, 2014-10-24 We all have questions Who actually built the pyramids What happens after we die Who created crop circles And why Nostradamus the Healer the Prophet the Man Cleopatra the women behind the legend Who actually controls humanity If Nikola Tesla was so important why is he so forgotten What is the purpose of life But who has the answers Without a doubt author Roman Harambura believes we hold the answers within our imagination the greatest gift of all The universe he explains is filled with life and human beings are not alone Earth our home is simply one planet in a sky filled with thousands of universes each with the potential to harbor life beyond our human ability to understand If we can simply come to accept and embrace the fact that we are just one small part of the inconceivably vast miracle of life across the stars our own world would change Imagination in Harambura's experience is our greatest gift In his The Book of Knowledge I Am Alien he shares an eclectic and thought provoking array of ideas to inspire engage and capture your imagination As expressed by a being known as Kuntarkis the hundreds of lessons insights and experiences within are intended to instigate your own questions and journey of discovery Kuntarkis also answers questions submitted by people from all over the world This book is highly recommended for those who are seeking a broader understanding not just about their own lives but life in all aspects
