Interwar Berliners faced this question with great hope yet devastating consequences In Germany the First World War and 1918 Revolution transformed the city streets into the most important media for politics and commerce There partisans and entrepreneurs fought for the attention of crowds with posters illuminated advertisements parades traffic jams and violence
The Nazi Party relied on how people already experienced the city to stage aggressive political theater including the April Boycott and Kristallnacht Observers in Germany and abroad looked to Berlin s streets to predict the future They saw dazzling window displays that radiated optimism They also witnessed crime waves antisemitic rioting and failed policing that pointed toward societal collapse Recognizing the power of urban space officials pursued increasingly radical policies to revitalize the city culminating in Albert Speer s plan to eradicate the heart of Berlin and build Germania      Connector Road and Bridge
