Thematic Structure and Para-Syntax: Arabic as a Case Study James Dickins,2020-03-05 Thematic Structure and Para Syntax Arabic as a Case Study presents a structural analysis of Arabic providing an alternative to the traditional notions of theme and rheme Taking Arabic as a case study this book claims that approaches to thematic structure propounded in universalist linguistic theories of which Hallidayan systemic functional linguistics is taken as an illustrative example are profoundly wrong. It argues that in order to produce an analysis of thematic structure and similar phenomena which is not undermined by its own theoretical presuppositions it is necessary to remove such notions from the domain of linguistic and semiotic theory. The book initially focuses on Sudanese Arabic because this allows for a beautifully clear exposition of general principles before applying these principles to Modern Standard Arabic and some other Arabic varieties. This book will be of interest to scholars in Arabic linguistics, linguistic theory and information structure.

Kitāb Sībawayhi: Syntax and Pragmatics

Amal Marogy, 2017-07-03. This book presents a comprehensive portrait of the Kitāb Sībawayhi. It offers new insights into its historical and linguistic arguments and underlines their strong correlation. The decisive historical argument highlights al-Rasīd's role not only as the centre of pre-Islamic Arabic culture but also as the matrix within which early Arab linguistics grew and developed. The Kitāb Sībawayhi's value as a communicative grammar forms the crux of the linguistic argument. The complementarity of syntax and pragmatics is established as a condition sine qua non for Sībawayhi's analysis of language. The benefits of a complementary approach are reflected in the analysis of nominal sentences and related notions of ibtidā' and definiteness. The pragmatic principle of identifiability is uncovered as the ultimate determiner of word order.
