Asian Traditions of Meditation Halvor Eifring, 2018-01-31 Meditation has flourished in different parts of the world ever since the foundations of the great civilizations were laid It played a vital role in the formation of Asian cultures that trace much of their heritage to ancient India and China This volume brings together for the first time studies of the major traditions of Asian meditation as well as material on scientific approaches to meditation It delves deeply into the individual traditions while viewing each of them from a global perspective examining both historical and generic connections between meditative practices from numerous historical periods and different parts of the Eurasian continent It seeks to identify the cultural and historical peculiarities of Asian schools of meditation while recognizing basic features of meditative practice across cultures thereby taking the first step toward a framework for the comparative study of meditation The book accessibly written by scholars from several fields opens with chapters that discuss the definition and classification of meditation These are followed by contributions on Yoga and Tantra which are often subsumed under the broad label of Hinduism Jainism and Sikhism Indian traditions not usually associated with meditation Buddhist approaches found in Southeast Asia Tibet and China and the indigenous Chinese traditions Daoism and Neo Confucianism The final chapter explores recent scientific interest in meditation which despite its Western orientation remains almost exclusively concerned with practices of Asian origin Until a few years ago a major obstacle to the study of specific meditation practices within the traditions explored here was a widespread scholarly orientation that prioritized doctrinal issues and sociocultural contexts over actual practice. The contributors seek to counter this bias and supplement concerns over doctrine and context with the historical study of meditative practice. Asian Traditions of Meditation will appeal broadly to readers interested in meditation, mindfulness, and spirituality, and those in the emerging field of contemplative education, as well as students and scholars of Asian and religious studies. Nyingma: Mahayoga, Anuyoga, and Atiyoga, Part Two Jamgon Kongtrul Lodro

Taye, 2024-10-15. A collection of texts and commentaries from the Nyingma tradition of Tibetan Buddhism on Dzogchen or Great Perfection teachings which introduce us to our most basic nature, the clear and pristine awareness that is the nature of the mind. The Treasury of Precious Instructions, compiled by Jamgon Kongtrul Lodro Taye, one of Tibet's greatest Buddhist masters, is a shining jewel of Tibetan literature, presenting essential teachings from the entire spectrum of practice lineages that existed in Tibet. In its eighteen volumes, Kongtrul brings together some of the most important texts on key topics of Buddhist thought and practice, as well as authoring significant new sections of his own. Teachings and practices of the Nyingma lineage, the first of the eight lineages, are presented in the first and second volumes of the series, the second one of which is translated here. These texts are all related to the three yogas: Mahayoga, Anuyoga, and Atiyoga. The first Nyingma volume includes works that are representative of the first two yogas, while this volume focuses especially on those belonging to the pith instruction class, specifically those related to the unsurpassed secret section, the Heart Essence, or Nyingtik. According to the understanding of the Nyingma school, the most profound tenet of the Buddha's teachings is that within the mind of every being, as its bedrock, fundamental stratum or element, lies the Buddha nature. The teachings of this volume each present this essential tenet in a variety of ways and are composed by various Tibetan and Indian masters, including the Buddha Garab Dorje, Manjushri, Padmasambhava, Longchen Rabjam, and Jamgon Kongtrul Lodro Taye.
