Energywellness.ca Judith Marian Campbell, Jane Karchmar, 2004 A Source Book on Early Monetary Thought Edward W. Fuller, 2020-11-27 This volume contains thirty seven contributions from the most significant early developers of monetary economics Starting with Aristotle the collection tracks the development of the modern theory of money through the ages by thinkers like Albert the Great Thomas Aquinas Jean Buridan Martin de Azpilcueta John Locke Richard Cantillon David Hume and A R J Turgot The Deepest Human Life Scott Samuelson, 2014-04-03 This accessible and thought provoking introduction to philosophy shows how the eternal questions can shed light on our lives and struggles These days we generally leave philosophical matters to professional philosophers Scott Samuelson thinks this is tragic for our lives as well as for philosophy In The Deepest Human Life he restores philosophy to its proper place at the center of our humanity rediscovering it as our most profound effort toward understanding as a way of life that anyone can live Exploring the works of some of history s most important thinkers in the context of the everyday struggles of his students Samuelson guides readers through the most vexing quandaries of existence and shows just how enriching the examined life can be Samuelson begins at the beginning with Socrates and the method he developed for approaching our greatest mysteries From there he embarks on a journey through the history of philosophy demonstrating how it is encoded in our own personal quests for meaning Through heartbreaking stories humanizing biographies accessible theory and evocative interludes like On Wine and Bicycles or On Zombies and Superheroes Samuelson invests philosophy with the personal and vice versa The result is a book that is at once a primer and a reassurance that the most important questions endure coming to life in each of us Winner of the 2015 Hiett Prize in the Humanities Class Meetings: Embracing Their Origin, Nature, Obligation, and Benefits Leonidas Rosser, 1855
