MacKenzie, 2017-03-01 Imperial power both formal and informal and research in the natural sciences were closely dependent in the nineteenth century This book examines a portion of the mass produced juvenile literature focusing on the cluster of ideas connected with Britain's role in the maintenance of order and the spread of civilization It discusses the political economy of Western ecological systems and the consequences of their extension to the colonial periphery particularly in forms of forest conservation Progress and consumerism were major constituents of the consensus that helped stabilise the late Victorian society but consumerism only works if it can deliver the goods From 1842 onwards almost all major episodes of coordinated popular resistance to colonial rule in India were preceded by phases of vigorous resistance to colonial forest control By the late 1840s a limited number of professional positions were available for geologists in British imperial service but imperial geology had a longer pedigree Modern imperialism or municipal imperialism offers a broader framework for understanding the origins long duration and persistent support for overseas expansion which transcended the rise and fall of cabinets or international realignments in the 1800s Although medical scientists began to discern and control the microbiological causes of tropical ills after the mid nineteenth century the claims for climatic causation did not undergo a corresponding decline Arthur Pearson's Pearson's Magazine was patriotic militaristic and devoted to royalty The book explores how science emerged as an important feature of the development policies of the Colonial Office CO of the colonial empire

Towards a Grammar of Race Arcia Tecun, Lana Lopesi, Anisha Sankar, 2022-10-21 A search for new ways to talk about race in Aotearoa New Zealand brought together this powerful group of scholars writers and activists For these authors attempts to confront racism and racial violence often stall against a failure to see how power works through race across our modern social worlds The result is a country where racism is all too often left unnamed and unchecked voices are erased the colonial past ignored and silence passes for understanding By bringing what is unspoken into focus Towards a Grammar of Race seeks to articulate and confront ideas of race in Aotearoa New Zealand an exploration that includes racial capitalism colonialism white supremacy and anti Blackness A recurring theme across the book is the inescapable entanglement of local and global manifestations of race Each of the contributors brings their own experiences and insights to the complexities of life in a racialised society and together their words make an important contribution to our shared and future lives on these shores Contributors to this book Pounamu Jade Aikman Faisal Al Asaad Mahdis Azarmandi Simon Barber Garrick Cooper Morgan Godfery Kassie Hartendorp Guled Mire Tze Ming Mok Adele Norris Nathan Rew Vera Seyra Beth Teklezgi Selome Teklezgi and Patrick Thomsen

Travel Writing and the Natural World, 1768-1840 P. Smethurst, 2012-10-10 Taking as a starting point the parallel occurrence of Cook's Pacific voyages the development of natural history scenic tourism in Britain and romantic travel in Europe this book argues that the effect of these practices was the production of nature as an abstract space and that the genre of travel writing had a central role in reproducing it Literature of Nature Patrick D. Murphy, Terry Gifford, Katsunori Yamazato, 1998 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company The Rights of Nature David R. Boyd, 17-09-05 An important and timely recipe for hope for humans and all forms of life Palila v Hawaii New Zealand s Te Urewera Act Sierra Club v Disney These legal phrases hardly sound like the makings of a revolution but beyond the headlines portending environmental catastrophes a movement of immense import has been building in courtrooms legislatures and communities across the globe Cultures and laws are transforming to provide a powerful new approach to protecting the planet and the species with whom we share it Lawyers from California to New York are fighting to gain legal rights for chimpanzees and killer whales and lawmakers are ending the era of keeping these intelligent animals in captivity In Hawaii and India judges have recognized that endangered species from birds to lions have the legal right to exist Around the world more and more laws are being passed recognizing that ecosystems rivers forests mountains and more have legally enforceable rights And if nature has rights then humans have responsibilities In The Rights of Nature noted environmental lawyer David Boyd tells this remarkable story which is at its heart one of humans as a species finally growing up Read this book and your world view will be altered forever New Zealand Books in Print ,1999

Empire and Environmental Anxiety J. Beattie, 2011-05-25 A new interpretation of imperialism and environmental change and the anxieties imperialism generated through environmental transformation and interaction with unknown landscapes Tying together South Asia and Australasia this book demonstrates how environmental anxieties led to increasing state resource management conservation and urban reform Aotearoa New Zealand in the Global Theatre Marketplace James Wenley, 2020-10-18 Aotearoa New Zealand in the Global Theatre Marketplace offers a case study of how the theatre of Aotearoa has toured represented and marketed itself on the global stage How has New Zealand work attempted to stand out differentiate itself and get seen by audiences internationally This book examines the journeys of a dynamic range of culturally and theatrically innovative works created by Aotearoa New Zealand theatre makers that have toured and been performed across time place and theatrical space from Moana Oceania to the Edinburgh Festival Fringe from a M ori Shakespeare adaptation to an immersive zombie theatre experience Drawing on postcolonialism transnationalism cosmopolitanism and globality to understand how Aotearoa New Zealand has imagined and conceived of itself through drama the author investigates how these representations might be read and received by audiences around the world variously reinforcing and complicating conceptions of New Zealand national identity Developing concepts of theatrical mobility portability and the market this study engages with the whole theatrical enterprise as a play travels from concept and scripting through to funding marketing performance and the critical response by reviewers and commentators This book will be of global interest to academics producers and theatre artists as a significant resource for the theory and practice of theatre touring and cross cultural performance and reception Leisure and the Politics of the Environment Louise Mansfield, Belinda

Wheaton,2023-04-14 Within leisure studies there is a growing awareness and intensifying conscience about the potential environmental threat posed by the continued and unmanaged economic growth and development of sport tourism and leisure This collection brings together explicit discussions from a range of fields including environmental geography consumer research sociology and politics of the increasing relevance and complexities of environmental politics in leisure studies It provides a snapshot into the wide ranging debates on the politics of the environment and leisure sport tourism and serves as a starting point for further dialogue between leisure studies scholars and those in other disciplines where many of environmental debates have been advanced The volume will be of great value to scholars and practitioners in the areas of leisure studies conservation and local politics This book was published as a special issue of Leisure Studies Changing Representations of Nature and the City Gabriel N. Gee,Alison Vogelaar,2018-07-04 The turn of the 1960s 70s characterized by the rapid acceleration of globalization prompted a radical transformation in the perception of urban and natural environments The urban revolution and related prospect of the total urbanisation of the planet in concert with rapid population growth and resource exploitation instigated a surge in environmental awareness and activism One implication of this moment is a growing recognition of the integration and interconnection of natural and urban entities The present collection is an interdisciplinary inquiry into the changing modes of representation of nature in the city beginning from the turn of the 1960s 70s Bringing together a number of different disciplinary approaches including architectural studies and aesthetics heritage studies and economics environmental science and communication the collection reflects upon the changing perception of socio natures in the context of increasing urban expansion and global interconnectedness as they are were manifest in specific representations Using cases studies from around the globe the collection offers a historical and theoretical understanding of a paradigmatic shift whose material and symbolic legacies are still accompanying us in the early 21st century The World to Come Lloyd Geering,2015-12-23 The Christian era is at an end after two thousand years the religious faith that has shaped western civilisation has been found wanting So argues Lloyd Geering in a controversial examination of society and religion in which he looks at the reasons for Christianity s decline and the likely shape of spirituality in a global future Geering a renowned writer and thinker on social and religious issues warns of endings and potential catastrophes But he sees grounds for hope in our increasing awareness of our human predicament claiming that a new global consciousness could provide the spiritual dimension to an evolving international culture Understanding World Heritage in Asia and the Pacific - N° 35 - The Second Cycle of Periodic Reporting 2010-2012 Kaori Kawakami,Kai Weise,Paul Richard Dingwall,2012 Personal, Societal, and Ecological Values of Wilderness ,1998
