Nature Of The International Firm Nordic Contributions To International Business Research:

Nature of the International Firm Ingmar Bjorkman, Mats Forsgren, 1997-09 Asia-Pacific Issues in International Business Sidney J. Gray, Sara L. McGaughey, William R. Purcell, 2001-01-01 This volume represents research on a selection of key issues in international business in the Asia Pacific region In particular the contributors examine the internationalization process export expansion and performance foreign direct investment and the management of international business relationships More specifically they analyze the growth patterns of Danish and US companies developing operations in the region the impact of the Internet the competitiveness of the Australian wine industry and the development and application of export performance measures the factors influencing the location decisions of Japanese Multinational Enterprises MNEs and the investment risk perceptions of Australian MNEs the multinational knowledge acquisition modes of Taiwanese electronics firms the protection of intellectual property rights the use of performance measures in international joint ventures the human resource management practices of ethnic Chinese owned enterprises compared to Anglo American MNEs The SAGE Handbook of International Marketing Masaaki Kotabe, Kristiaan Helsen, 2009-01-05 Over the past two decades the nature of international marketing has faced huge change Increasingly challenged with the unprecedented emergence of globally integrated yet geographically scattered activities multinational marketing has had to respond accordingly The SAGE Handbook of International Marketing brings together the fundamental questions and themes that have surfaced and promises to be an essential addition to the study of this critical subject area In an internationally minded and detailed analysis the contributors seek to examine the state of the art in research in international marketing with particular emphasis on the conceptual framework and theory development in the field Looking at new research formative and fundamental literature and the nature of strategic alliance and global strategy this timely and comprehensive handbook offers the reader a compelling examination of the central concerns of marketing for an international community Network Knowledge in International Business Sarianna M. Lundan, 2002-01-01 This text focuses on contemporary cutting edge research concerning the increasing strategic importance of subsidiary networks to the multinational firm It combines contributions from three major related areas of inquiry the changing theoretical conception of networks and the structure of the multinational firm the importance of spillovers and agglomeration economies related to multinational investments and the management of the flow of information and knowledge from headquarters to subsidiaries and vice versa International Entrepreneurship Antonella Zucchella, Giovanna Magnani, 2016-04-08 Over the past two decades international entrepreneurship has become a key issue in international business studies This second edition of International Entrepreneurship examines this key emerging issue from its foundations entrepreneurship strategic management and international business studies The book proposes an integrated interpretive framework in which to place international entrepreneurship examining both theoretical and practical interests It asserts that firms faced by global competitive pressures need to develop proactive and innovative responses to cope with the uncertainties of international markets and instead capture the opportunities This book presents a common framework to complement the growing contributions to this topical and lively subject

The Changing Strategies of International Business Agnieszka Chidlow, Pervez N. Ghauri, Thomas Buckley, Emma C. Gardner, Amir Qamar, Emily Pickering, 2019-01-16 The ACADEMY OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS UK and Ireland Chapter Published in association with the UK and Ireland Chapter of the Academy of International Business In line with the 45th AIB UKI conference this edited collection brings together fresh perspectives on international business strategy with a focus on the challenges faced by multinational enterprises MNEs in today's changing commercial and political landscape With a diverse range of contributors from varying international backgrounds this book discusses the different strategies employed by MNEs and analyses how they cope with the current global business environment An extremely useful read for those studying globalisation and MNEs this book provides an interdisciplinary and timely approach to international business strategy

International Business Review, 2001

Knowledge, Networks and Power U. Holm, M. Forsgren, J. Johanson, 2015-05-12 This book presents more than four decades of research in international business at the Department of Business Studies Uppsala University Gradually this research has been recognized as The Uppsala School The work in Uppsala over the years reflects a broad palette of issues and approaches

The Internationalisation of Mobile Telecommunications Peter J. Curwen, Jason Whalley, 2009-01-01 the authors have a pleasant approach to arranging and commenting on their facts which makes the book readable readers wanting quantitative data about mobile networks on which qualitative theories can be based will be very well satisfied Robert Milne Info The Journal of Policy Regulation and Strategy for Telecommunications As a source of information on the mobile sector the book is highly valuable we should commend the authors for making a wealth of information accessible and in my view even for the most seasoned industry expert the book will shed light on a dimension or aspect that has previously been overlooked or under valued Wolter Lemstra Competition and Regulation of Network Industries The Internationalisation of Mobile Telecommunications is a comprehensive look at the rapidly changing market structure the alternative technologies the extent of globalization and the ownership of firms in increasingly competitive mobile telecommunications markets around the world This is an exceptionally valuable book for anyone interested in understanding current and future developments in mobile telecommunications Stanford L Levin Southern Illinois University Edwardsville US Peter Curwen and Jason Whalley review the strategic operations of and technological options available to the 30 most prominent international mobile operators This review is initially based upon the Asia Pacific African European Latin American and North American regions before moving on to take a worldwide perspective The authors place these mobile operators within a wider business context via a broad ten year appraisal of the companies involved in the entire telecommunications media and technology TMT sector The issue as to whether there truly is such a thing as a global mobile operator is addressed the answer in practice is negative Based upon the very latest data available the underlying premise of the book is that mobile telecommunications is such a fast moving sector that operators are obliged to alter their international strategies as circumstances unravel without necessarily having a long term master plan and hence that opportunism is a hallmark of operators international strategies This state of the art overview of the internationalisation of mobile telecommunications will prove essential reading for academics and practitioners with a vested interest in technology telecommunications and strategic management Reshaping the Boundaries of the Firm in an Era of Global
