Inspiring Faith in Schools Dr David Torevell,Dr Marius C Felderhof,Mrs Penny Thompson,2013-05-28 Inspiring Faith in Schools addresses the privileging of secularism that appears to affect RE in countries influenced by modern western thought The authors argue that a more engaging form of RE would emerge if religious life were to inhabit centre stage Currently religious faith is made to hover in the wings awaiting the call to face the inquisitorial challenge of the modern day enquirer. The consequent relationship between pupil and the Divine as the purpose of study is then already intrinsically irreligious as indicated in the Book of Job by putting God in the dock whereas it is the pupil who should be cross examining his or her life. What are the ways of exciting and engaging the young so that they begin to entertain the possibility of religious life as a genuine option for themselves. Leading scholars in philosophy and theology from the UK Australia Canada and the USA come together to address these questions together with RE experts. Marius Felderhof writes an Afterword summing up the challenges faced by such a re visioning of RE.

Jesus Crown of Thorns has become one of the most ubiquitous features of Christian religious art but was the crown of history anything like the crown of popular medieval art and piety. The image that springs to mind is that of a bloodied beaten Jesus wearing a cruelly fashioned woven crown made of sharp thorns. But this image is deeply misleading based on a fundamental misunderstanding and mistranslation of the Gospels. Faith C Tibble rectifies this misunderstanding showing how The Crown of Thorns underwent a yet unrecognized artistic evolution. Tibble tracks the artistic progression of the Crown of Thorns from when it was first depicted in the 4th century until the 11th century when it begins to exhibit the artistic trends that are still recognizable today even in modern depictions in art and cinema. Through doing so Tibble adds new perspective to our understanding of the ideologies associated with medieval Christianity: victory, humility, perseverance and how those ideologies are exemplified in depictions of the Crown of Thorns. Tibble demonstrates how a simple mistranslation led to a different understanding of the Gospels and an unexpected trajectory for European art with profound and unintended consequences.
