Nature's Silent Call Wilborn J. Deason,1925 Songs of Nature John Sallis,2020-02-04 The work of the contemporary Chinese painter prompts reflections on nature art and music from one of America s leading philosophers This text by John Sallis carries out a series of ruminations by taking up Cao Jun s art and thought with a focus on questions of the elemental Sallis s reflections are not a matter of simply relating art works to philosophical thought as theoretical insights and developments run throughout Cao Jun s writings and inform many of his artistic works Sallis maintains abundant points of contact with Chinese philosophical traditions but also with Western philosophy In these reflections on art Sallis poses a critique of mimesis and considers the relation of painting to music He affirms his conviction that the artist must always turn to nature especially as reflections on the earth and sky delimit the scale and place of what is human Full color illustrations enhance this provocative and penetrating text
