Nature's Workshop Robert L. Herbert, Auguste Renoir, 2000-01-01 Renoir's works and writing on the decorative arts

From Millet to Léger Robert L. Herbert, 2002-01-01 In a preface prepared for this volume Herbert explains that these essays are linked by a focus on the relation of art to the urban industrial revolution BOOK JACKET Renoir, My Father Jean Renoir, 2001-09-30 In this delightful memoir Jean Renoir the director of such masterpieces of the cinema as Grand Illusion and The Rules of the Game tells the life story of his father Pierre Auguste Renoir the great Impressionist painter Recounting Pierre Auguste's extraordinary career beginning as a painter of fans and porcelain recording the rules of thumb by which he worked and capturing his unpretentious and wonderfully engaging talk and personality Jean Renoir's book is both a wonderful double portrait of father and son and in the words of the distinguished art historian John Golding it remains the best account of Renoir and furthermore among the most beautiful and moving biographies we have Includes 12 pages of color plates and 18 pages of black and white images "Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France, 1789-1914" Heather Belnap Jensen, 2017-07-05 Focusing specifically on portraiture as a genre this volume challenges scholarly assumptions that regard interior spaces as uniquely feminine Contributors analyze portraits of men in domestic and studio spaces in France during the long nineteenth century the preponderance of such portraits alone supports the book's premise that the alignment of men with public life is oversimplified and more myth than reality The volume offers analysis of works by a mix of artists from familiar names such as David Delacroix Courbet Manet Rodin and Matisse to less well known image makers including Dominique Doncre Constance Mayer Anders Zorn and Lucien Etienne Melingue The essays cover a range of media from paintings and prints to photographs and sculpture that allows exploration of the relation between masculinity and interiority across the visual culture of the period The home and other interior spaces emerge from these studies as rich and complex locations for both masculine self expression and artistic creativity Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France 1789-1914 provides a much needed rethinking of modern masculinity in this period The Spiritual Dynamic in Modern Art C. Spretnak, 2014-10-22 This book demonstrates that numerous prominent artists in every period of the modern era were expressing spiritual interests when they created celebrated works of art This magisterial overview insightfully reveals the centrality of an often denied and misunderstood element in the cultural history of modern art A Companion to Impressionism André Dombrowski, 2028-08-14 The 21st century's first major academic reassessment of Impressionism providing a new generation of scholars with a comprehensive view of critical conversations Presenting an expansive view of the study of Impressionism this extraordinary volume breaks new thematic ground while also reconsidering established questions surrounding the definition chronology and membership of the Impressionist movement In 34 original essays from established and emerging scholars this collection considers a diverse range of developing topics and offers new critical approaches to the interpretation of Impressionist art Focusing on the 1860s to 1890s this Companion explores artists who are well represented in Impressionist studies including Monet Renoir Degas and Cassatt as well as Morisot Caillebotte Bazille and other significant yet lesser known artists The essays cover a wide variety of methodologies in addressing such topics as Impressionism's global predominance at the turn of the 20th century the relationship between Impressionism and the emergence of new media the materials and techniques of the Impressionists and the movement's exhibition and reception history Part of the acclaimed Wiley Blackwell Companions to Art History series this important new addition to scholarship in this field Reevaluates the origins chronology and critical reception of French Impressionism Discusses Impressionism's account of modern identity in the contexts of race nationality gender and sexuality Explores the global reach and influence of Impressionism in Europe the Middle East East Asia North Africa and the Americas Considers Impressionism's relationship to the emergence of film and photography in the 19th century Considers Impressionism's representation of the private sphere as compared to its depictions of public issues such as empire finance and environmental change Addresses the Impressionist market and clientele period criticism and exhibition displays from the late 19th century to the middle of the 20th century Features original essays by academics curators and conservators from around the world including those from France Germany the United States the United Kingdom Japan Turkey and Argentina The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Impressionism is an invaluable text for students and academics studying Impressionism and late 19th century European art Post Impressionism modern art and modern French cultural history The Routledge Companion to Irish Art Fionna Barber, Fintan Cullen, 2025-04-30 This companion contains new and innovative writing on Irish art and its history from c 1800 to the present day This book critically engages with Irish art in a period linked to key events in Irish history beginning with the Acts of Union between Britain and Ireland 1800-01 and the significant social and cultural changes that resulted The book also provides a precedent for a focus on the significance of art in relation to other subsequent key historical events such as the early twentieth century struggles for independence or the role of political conflict in Northern Ireland from the late 1960s onwards and its aftermath Key themes covered include tradition and innovation upheavals of history place location and artistic formations Irish art and the wider world and embodiment and identity The book expands the critical discourse around Irish art over this period both within Ireland and beyond and encourages the potential for future scholarship in fields and periods not covered This book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history Irish studies and colonial studies Monet's Minutes André Dombrowski, 2023-01-01 A stunning exploration of the vital links between Claude Monet's Impressionism and the time technologies that helped define modernity in the nineteenth century Monet's Minutes is a revelatory account charting the relationship between the works of Claude Monet 1840-1926 founder of French Impressionism and one of the world's best known painters and the modern experience of time Andr Dombrowski illuminates Monet's celebration of instantaneity in the context of the late nineteenth century time technologies that underwrote it Monet's version of Impressionism demonstrated an acute awareness of the particularly modern pressures of time but until now scholars have not examined the histories and technologies of time and timekeeping that informed Impressionism's major stylistic shifts. Arguing that the fascination with instantaneity rejected the dulling cultures of newly routinized and standardized time, Monet's Minutes traces the evolution of Monet's art to what were then seismic shifts in the shape of time itself. In each chapter, Dombrowski focuses on the connections between a set of Monet's works and a specific technology or experience of time while providing the voices of period critics responding to Impressionism. Grounded in exceptional research and analyses, this book offers new interpretations of key works by Monet and a fresh perspective on late nineteenth century art, society and modern temporality.

Luxury Peter McNeil, Giorgio Riello, 2016-05-19 We live in a world obsessed by luxury. Long distance airlines compete to offer first class sleeping experiences and hotels recommend exclusive suites where you are never disturbed. Luxury is a rapidly changing global industry that makes the headlines daily in our newspapers and on the internet. More than ever, luxury is a pervasive presence in the cultural and economic life of the West and increasingly too in the emerging super economies of Asia and Latin America. Yet luxury is hardly a new phenomenon. Today's obsession with luxury brands and services is just one of the many manifestations that luxury has assumed. In the middle ages and the Renaissance, for example, luxury was linked to notions of magnificence and courtly splendour. In the eighteenth century, luxury was at the centre of philosophical debates over its role in shaping people's desires and oiling the wheels of commerce. And it continues to morph today with the growth of the global super rich and increasing wealth polarization. From palaces to penthouses, from couture fashion to lavish jewellery, from handbags to red wine, from fast cars to easy money. Peter McNeil and Giorgio Riello present the first ever global history of luxury from the Romans to the twenty first century, a sparkling and ever changing story of extravagance, excess, novelty and indulgence.

Culture and Civilization Irving Louis Horowitz, 2011-12-31 Intellectual activity in the twentieth century took place largely under the banner of science and society. As the new millennium develops, it is becoming evident that science and society are not words that represent an unmitigated good, nor for that matter do they exhaust what is new in the human condition. Past writing on the theme of culture has emphasized the growth and expansion of human capabilities. Recent use of the term civilization has placed great emphasis on the fall from grace of human beings. The use of both terms is rapidly changing. Culture and Civilization develops critical ideas intended to produce a positive intellectual climate, one that is prepared to confront threats and alert us to the opportunities of the twenty first century. It recognizes that the twenty first century presents people in all fields and of all faiths with shared challenges. Culture and Civilization embraces the work of novelists, journalists, cultural figures, technologists, physical scientists, historians and policy personnel who range beyond social science areas. What they have in common is a view that civilization is under assault and that it represents a cause worth advancing and defending. This publication does not embrace idiosyncratic visions of the clash of world civilizations or the end of Western civilization. It does attempt to bring together immediate issues of the century that are substantially new and challenging We see that the essential polarity between democracy and autocracy has now taken on larger deeper dimensions in a different political economic and ecological terrain the central issue of our day is now civilization versus barbarism The character of democratic culture is central to the global equation and the systemic challenge This publication is a sober response to such a challenge

Matisse and Decoration John Klein, 2018-01-01 A brand new look at the extremely beautiful if underappreciated later works of one of the most inventive artists of the 20th century Between 1935 and his death at midcentury Henri Matisse 1869 1954 undertook many decorative projects and commissions These include mural paintings stained glass ceramic tiles lead crystal pieces carpets tapestries fashion fabrics and accessories work that has received no significant treatment until now By presenting a wealth of new insights and unpublished material including from the artist s own correspondence John Klein an internationally acclaimed specialist in the art of Matisse offers a richer and more balanced view of Matisse s ambitions and achievements in the often neglected later phases of his career Matisse designed many of these decorations in the innovative and widely admired medium of the paper cut out whose function and significance Klein reevaluates Matisse and Decoration also opens a window onto the revival and promotion following World War II of traditional French decorative arts as part of France s renewed sense of cultural preeminence For the first time the idea of the decorative in Matisse s work and the actual decorations he designed for specific settings are integrated in one account amounting to an understanding of this modern master s work that is simultaneously more nuanced and more comprehensive
