From Truth and truth Francis Etheredge,2016-04-26 The final book of this trilogy explores reason at work in the nature of faith cf Fides et Ratio 43 indeed although faith is of its nature different from reason faith cannot exist except through grace assisted reason Volume One briefly meditated on the metaphysics of meaning which entailed considering the intimate interrelationship of truth and existence In this volume however it becomes clear that there is an intrinsic complementarity in the very nature of created being a complementarity between the literal and spiritual sense of what exists Thus for example a seed is both what actually exists and at the same time it can adequately express the beginning of the supernatural life sown in the sacrament of Baptism This leads to an almost literary argument for there being a single cause of all creation in that there is an incredible coherence of meaning throughout the whole More specifically the book discusses various questions of a bioethical nature and more generally offers a radical investigation of the nature of man male and female for in a word the origin nature and action of the human person require constant reciprocal reflection Thus there are various essays on different aspects of man male and female ranging from a consideration of God expressing the mystery of the Blessed Trinity through our participation in His own Being to the transition from a Jewish to a Christian understanding of marriage to a marital spirituality Finally faith in action ranges from being open to life to pilgrimages as a family and the slow but real discovery that there is a radical nature to our salvation in Christ that even if natural truth leads inexorably to the trembling outreaches of reason there is nevertheless a gratuitous Revelation which comes to meet and develop the life of us all

Exodus 18 Noppawat Kumpeeroskul, 2024-07-05 This work argues that Exod 18 1-27 functions literarily and theologically as the key transitional midpoint in the Exodus narrative As such the chapter's function is both retrospective recalling key features of chapters 1-17 and prospective anticipating key features of chapters 19-40 at the midpoint of the book In the Exodus narrative the character of Jethro is rhetorically employed by the narrator as a model to contrast with all the nations and as a model to contrast with all the faithless Israelites Exodus 18 draws to a close a first narrative movement in the first half of the book in which Yahweh is seen and known through his mighty acts of deliverance Through Moses Yahweh delivers Exodus 18 also signals a shift in the second half of the book to a self revelation of Yahweh which will feature Israel s need to heed the word and will of Yahweh as mediated through Moses Through Moses Yahweh will govern Masters of Preaching Ray E.
