Navigating Right And Wrong Ethical Decision Making In A Pluralistic Age:

Navigating Right and Wrong Daniel E. Lee, 2002-10-09 How should I live my life Is there really anything that is inherently right or wrong These may sound like simple questions but finding answers to them is anything but simple particularly in an age of ethical pluralism In our multicultural multiethnic world is there any meaningful way to talk about moral obligations Daniel Lee says yes In Navigating Right and Wrong this long time ethicist and teacher helps us begin to reconcile our personal moral commitments with an openness to alternatives with an eye to responsibly negotiating ethics and morality in our pluralistic age Through concise thoughtful prose and engaging anecdotes Lee introduces readers to various philosophical and theological moral theories ultimately arguing that we must embrace a faith based ethics or succumb to the alternative ethical subjectivism In the final analysis Lee asserts we can do no more than acknowledge that the value claims we make are part of the faith we affirm be it one that is explicitly religious or entirely secular in nature Assuming no prior philosophical knowledge Navigating Right and Wrong will be of use to general readers students and anyone else who has ever earnestly asked the question Is there really anything that is right or wrong Navigating Right and Wrong Daniel E. Lee, 2002 This concise and readable book uses the question of obligation to the law as a stepping off point to a more general discussion of deciding what's right and wrong Visit our website for sample chapters Human Rights and the Ethics of Globalization Daniel E. Lee, Elizabeth J. Lee, 2010-09-13 Human Rights and the Ethics of Globalization provides a balanced thoughtful discussion of the globalization of the economy and the ethical considerations inherent in the many changes it has prompted The book's introduction maps out the philosophical foundations for constructing an ethic of globalization taking into account both traditional and contemporary sources These ideals are applied to four specific test cases the ethics of investing in China the case study of the Firestone company's presence in Liberia free trade and fair trade issues pertaining to the coffee trade with Ethiopia and the use of low wage factories in Mexico to serve the US market The book concludes with a comprehensive discussion of how to enforce global compliance with basic human rights standards with particular attention to stopping abuses by multinational corporations through litigation under the Alien Tort Claims Act Death with Dignity Robert Orfali, 2011 In this book the author makes a case for legalized physician assisted dying Using the latest data from Oregon and the Netherlands he puts a new slant on perennial debate topics such as slippery slopes the integrity of medicine and sanctity of life This book provides an in depth look at how we die in America today It examines the shortcomings of our end of life system You will learn about terminal torture in hospital ICUs and about the alternatives hospice and palliative care The author scrutinizes the good the bad and the ugly He provides a critique of the practice of palliative sedation The book makes a strong case that assisted dying complements hospice By providing both Oregon now has the best palliative care system in America This book above all may help you or someone you care about navigate this strange landscape we call end of life It can be an informed guide to a good death in the age of hospice and high tech medical intervention Proceedings and
